INFIDEL ARGUMENTS.

Blasphemers of the Bishops of Rome Sell in Boston Costly Lines

CONTRADICTED BY OTHER ACADEMICS

Father Malone's Eloquent Lecture and Intense Dog's Discord in Its a Large Audience.

Father T. E. Malone, the eloquent Catholic priest, delivered his lecture on Modern Infidels to a large and select audience, numbered and disciplined and some of the United Orders have for night in the Temple St. Ann's Orphanage. All the religious denominations in the city were represented and some few persons who are accredited with not 2000 were charged to be most sensitive listeners. The lecture was entirely free of all manifestations of anger or uncomfortable severity and was a pleasure to give to the Catholics. On the stage were the speaker and President George Q. Cannon, Hon. Jerry T. Caine and Judge McNulty.

The speaker was introduced by President George Q. Cannon, who in a few brief and appropriate remarks said that he was greatly pleased to see so large and intelligent an audience. The Church is to be congratulated on its payment interest towards people who believed in God and Christ. The Church Father Malone was sure that he spoke for himself in extending an welcome. We had all been made to feel at home in the pulpit of the Tabernacle of Mormon and were now to witness the pulpit, out of and head to some of the mistakes of Infidels. Here Father Malone stepped to the front and was received, the President Cannon called him, with a round of applause.

The lecturer said: that Christianity needed no apologies. Christianity was not modeled in all ages made to rule nations upon earth and was and was the revelation. Its great mission, which might not be realized in one or all of the capability of nations of an eternal infinity. The lecturer has been in the land again and again from the beginning in opposition to Christianity. Christianity was the only religion that has successfully withstood the demon Atheism. Christianity has reliance to atheists and atheists, to infidels and infidelity and other sects, which are encouragement to the weak-hearted and impressed. It reminded the time of persons and times their owning. It limited the work of man and greatness and philosophy, to the United. It is the light perpetual to the darkness. It illuminates the paths and makes their journey easier to travel, their burthen lighter to bear. What day is to the wintering and offering flower religion is to the infinity and wretchedness of man. It has power cause to all mankind and nations.

Father Malone and Infidelity.

Father Malone, "is continually paying close attention and is more thought." A very superficial glance over the many sectarian writings and sermons by the so-called Christ is of another science will confirm the fact that is shown absolutely nothing of modern science, but does be even know aught of the literature of modern infidelity. The same ever everything is changed, it is an evolution too."

Father Malone then quoted extracts from the writings of Col. Ingersoll in which he sought to characterize style against the Christian religion, and which, what could, in the mind of the education of men who attitude were from the truth. There seemed was simply the sop flying and [illegible] of Col. Ingersoll. Hardly even in the opposition who would attempt to undermine Christianity was interested in the beginning that it was not what attacking the [illegible] affair, that it was the Mayor Curtis is the part and opinion that the Mormon are the most vulnerable rock in the world, that the Mormon rock is dot and that it is what to be a position to observe with it.

Ingersoll assumes that wherever the Bible has been believed women has been ignorant. The very opposite of this, reflected Father Malone, was the truth. Ingersoll's Bible was the only, perhaps and therefore has not with the account of Christianity cannot be contradicted. As Ingersoll's view a charmed area passed on from to be the shifted track a circle which [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] that ratio Ingersoll, he is [illegible] the Mormon passed in the fire, as the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible]. All that is left of the [illegible] Bible, or Book of Ingersoll's history [illegible] in the [illegible] growth of [illegible].

"Mr. Ingersoll, of course, takes [illegible] of the origin of the universe. There are [illegible] Ingersoll's [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
