EXCHANGES DO GOOD BUSINESS.

Day's Record 127,233 Shares for the Sum of $21,621.31.

BRISK ON THE OLD BOARD.

Midnight Bowers the Feature on the New Exchange, the Stock Selling on a Decline.

The day's business in mining stocks amounted to 127,233 shares, with a selling value of $21,621.31. On the old exchange activity was rife, and sales were made reaching a total of 74,832 shares or $16,756.68, while the new board had a record of 52,400 shares with a value of $4,864.63. Late this afternoon active dealing was going on, making the day a lively one for mining securities, both great and small.

TRADING QUITE BRISK.

Sales Were Numerous, but Stocks Had a Downward Tendency.

Despite the killing of much valuable time on the old exchange today, the brokers managed to do a good volume of business, the sales made reaching a total of 74,832 shares, for which buyers paid the sum of $16,756.68. Four days may be aptly termed the feature of the call, as in this security the transfers amounted to 15,700 shares at figures ranging from 99 to 26 cents a share, the lower figure prevailing up to the close of business.

The trading commenced with Alex, which sold at $1.30 a share. This came a transfer of Chloride Point at $1.85, after which Daly-West was bought for $10.50 and Dalton and Lark displayed considerable activity at 10 to 9½ cents. Daly did business at 45 to 44½, while Eagle followed and sold at 10 to 9½. Northern Light was taken at 55½ cents, while in Omaha the brokers dealt at 44½ to 44. This followed by sales of Star Consolidated around $1.05, Sacramento at 4½ to 4¼ and Sunshine at 95 to 94. Sunbeam took part at 56½ and Ontario changed hands between $1.22 and $1.27.

Dalmatia stocks furnished a leader in Honeycomb Lay Mar, which sold at 1½ cents, the latter figure catching some stocks. Dalton took part on a stationary basis, while Emerald fluctuated
