NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Journal Dies Very Suddenly on Its Way to Court.

A BOY KILLED AT HEATON.

He Took Accidentally Shoots Another—Has Diamond Wedding—Legislature, Etc.

Flower Growers are causing much excitement at Ogden, Utah.

Tom McGinnis, while riding into Cheyenne, Wyo., the other night, fell from his horse and was killed.

Bessie Thorne, Hallie Ferguson, Lillie Lacey and Ella Walker appeared in a production at the Grand Opera House, Salt Lake, on Thursday.

L. L. Greene, representing E. D. Gaylord & Co., of New York, was robbed in a saloon, Wyo., while letting somnambulists on the purchase of 1000 cases of water bottles.

England is to have the biggest Punch of July celebration that has yet come off. Twenty-five African chiefs, representing a Zulu chief, are to be present and take part.

The Rock Springs (Wyo.) News says that the next Fourth of July days will be exciting ones in Sweetwater. Unless there is nothing that wishing that time, we are reminded the longest drill strip in the country.

At 10, one Mrs. James Bryan were drive down a steep grade near Fort Collins, Colo., the team ran away, dashing the wagon against the stacks and flying across the road, killing both women. Two children in the wagon escaped.

Harry Gardner Dutchings was killed from a horse Monday, at the Bowery, Tooele, and Jeremiah Dutchings, Jr., Dutchings was injured. No bones were broken, but he was scattered very serious internal injuries. He did not return consciousness and died some hours after.

Sewell Cumsten, a 10-year-old son of James Hardy, April 15, in the place with a revolver Monday evening in Los Angeles, Calif., inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. It is certainly to Cumsten's know it was loaded. Hardy, who is in a serious condition, complained against Cumsten.

Sugar Beets (Calif.) are now shown to be various of a profitable crop of honey. The late rains will be the sugar and dandelion shortly blossom in the season. The honey is nearly exhausted. Honey for the price of the new production will be less than last.

At Sheridan, Wyo., a little boy known as Bobby was thrown on the Tongue River ice and carried away by an immensely improved in the river, due to the raising of the river in the mountains. The boy's carcass at 25,000 lbs was seen over the stream, by the street, in consulting a loss of $2,000.

Reports from the Gila valley, A. T., are that a large crop of alfalfa, hay is to be harvested about the 20th, and water is plentiful to grow the second crop. Fruit in that section is higher somewhat, by the late frost, yet will be abundant. Cherries are about ripe and peaches are a good set on the trees.

Two thousand brought in Laramie to the Standard Cattle company are doing good work, very are exchanged in two weeks they have killed more than twelve wolves and several cats. The logs lead to packs, and whenever a wolf is scented they never fail to trail it. Where they come on it they pay the wolf to make short work in getting it to pieces.

There are now eight inmates in the Idaho State Soldiers' Home. The rolls are ready to receive inmates, as the hospital is full and active. There are being cared for are persons who have been in the experiment of keeping the institution ready for them. There are twenty-seven applicants awaiting confirmation that the home is ready for them.

The Gilmer (Idaho) Valley Beet Sugar company has made a careful estimate of the beet crop of Gilmer and Amazon in the coming season, and claims as the result of its investigations that the acreage in the Gilmer valley will double of last year of beets at the factory here this season, and those of Amazon, Jerome, will more. In other words, the company is laying plans to manufacture 100,000 tons of beets into sugar at Gilmer factory during the coming season.

A trial was suddenly interrupted in the Fremont court in Tuesday, Dexter Gardner, the sheriff in the case, was present at the opening of the trial, and it was announced that he was confined to a bed in the hospital suffering from exhaustion. Soon afterwards it was discovered that the defendant in the case, the defendant, position of the proceedings to allow Gardner to submit costs and testify. Gardner was taken to the city jail instead. Upon reaching the hall he became worse and gave out, saying he was placed in a chair where he remained later expired.

The county commissioners were out in the Lemhi Tuesday morning, says the Salmon Herald, to see about the bridge across the Lemhi River. The bridge was built in the 1870 and is in a dangerous condition. The commissioners decided to have it repaired. The work will be begun in the city of the month. Of the Big Hayden will be closed to the Lemhi Lumber, about 15,000 lbs in the Lemhi. The work and Mill road, which is to be put in the three miles of the Big Hayden crossing district, in the Lemhi. Meanwhile, the Mill will be distributed in approach to the river of the Lemhi to be used only for people.

Wonderful Fruitage.

The Grand Junction Sentinel has received a specimen of a peach tree which is a wonder in the fruit line. The tree is a young one, and has borne a large number of peaches, all of which are of the same size, and are ripening at the same time