PLEAS OF PRISONERS TAKEN.

Six of the Accused Was George A. Dixon, "Dallas Tommy's" Alleged Assailant.

Judge Baskin devoted the first half hour of this morning's session in his division of the Third district court to the taking of the pleas of defendants against whom indictments had been returned by the present grand jury. The following appeared:

DIXON AND THE INDIAN.

George A. Dixon was arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to murder "Dallas Tommy," at Tooele City, on January 20th, 1895.

He is defended by J. M. Hamilton, and pleaded not guilty. The defendant's bond is fixed at $5,000, which the court ordered be reduced to $3,000, Judge Judd stating that he understood this was the only, murderous one whom he had acted. The defendant's sureties, who very patiently occupied the benches, will now go to the county jail in U. S. marshal.

DOUGLAS IS ALLOWED.

Wm. Douglas waived the hearing of the indictment charging him with forgery at the premises of the Consolidated Oil company on Dec. 12, 1894, and pleaded to it, E. R. Wilson.

TO STAND TRIAL.

Wesley Amment, Wm. Parker and S. E. Lee, two of three men charged with stealing cattle belonging to Wm. J. Hickman, from whom it is alleged they stole a silver watch valued at $100 and a chain and pistol with $15. As, answer, these appeared to be free to the indictment, the prosecution having omitted to include the gun on which the offense was alleged to have been committed, the case, on motion of District Attorney Judd, will be resubmitted to the grand jury.

The defendants were further arraigned on a charge of forgery, the holding up of a street car. It is alleged that they robbed J. E. Lechmiller, the conductor of the car, of $18 in the way. Each entered a plea of not guilty.

CITY CASES FOR SCHOOLS.

Wm. Cooney stole coal—grand larceny. It is alleged that on January 10 he stole and there sold several tons of coal belonging to M. Murphy, Sam of Hingham, J. M. Hamilton will defend, defendant having taken no plea.

SHELTERING FORGERY.

G. F. Moore and Jack Cameron in jail to a charge of forgery, entering the dwelling house of J. E. Lynch on December 7th, 1894.

ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT.

Thomas H. Wade was given until tomorrow to plead to an indictment charging him with having embezzled the sum of $1,000, while an employee of the Pacific Express company, the money being the property of Thomas Neville, Mr. Williams is his attorney.

TRUTH VS. BRIVARY.

In these temple a few days since by Judge Potter against Thomas F. Morrison, in which plaintiff seeks to obtain the sum of $5,000, alleged to be due for professional services, the defendant has filed a demurrer in which it is claimed the complaint is ambiguous, unintelligible and uncertain, in the sense that it does not appear clearly what courts the services were rendered, or in what proceedings or against the various instruments, pleadings, answers, indictments, affidavits or papers were drawn by the plaintiff. Also that it does not appear that Potter was authorized to draw instruments, nor in what suits the defendant was interested in New York City, Philadelphia or elsewhere.

A notice of motion has also been filed for a more complete statement of the particulars in respect to the several items of alleged services, in order that the defendant may be enabled to answer the same.

Benefit Entertainment.

A benefit entertainment will be given in the Stimson ward meeting house Friday evening, February 22nd, under the auspices of the Y. L. M. I. A. The program will consist of songs, recitations, instrumental selections, etc., and will close with a humorous dramatical Lark. Some of the best talent in the city has been engaged for the occasion.

JUDGE BERRITT'S COURT.

Judgment Against the Alexanders—Suit Against the Penitentiary Notes, Etc.

In the case of Mahon J. Mahon et al vs. D. Alexander and wife, filed yesterday, the jury this morning brought in a sealed verdict, finding for plaintiffs in the sum of $503.31, signed by the foreman. A stay of twenty-four hours was allowed to prepare exceptions to the verdict.

James W. Lindsay, administrator, vs. the Union Pacific Railway Co. and the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railway Co. Continued for the term by consent.

Buckeye Manufacturing Co. vs. C. A. Rountree et al. Upon stipulation of counsel, judgment in favor of plaintiff against Henry C. Vedder and Fred H. Dunn for $3,000 and costs. The trial of the case of M. J. Shea vs. the Dalton Gold Mining & Manufacturing company was on this day. Dunn & Rigby for plaintiff; Attorneys Bancroft and Van Riper for the defendants. The suit is brought to recover $1,000, claimed to be due on two promissory notes signed by Jos. Dalton and L. Wilson and C. H. Wetherell (former) in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant company deny having the right to be defendants, alleging that the boards of directors were fully authorized for same without stockholder's action.

The hearing is proceeding this afternoon.

The Farmers' Convention.

SALT LAKE COUNTY, FEB. 19, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

We have had a farmer's convention the last two days at this place (Fairview) and 150 of whom we were favored with a visit from Prof. Mills, of Logan Agricultural college.

Agriculture, horticulture, dairying, tree-planting, horse-shoeing, etc., were earnestly and intelligently treated upon by the professor and others present; also the theories of feeding a farmer's experiments and recuperating exhausted exercises, etc.

We respect the importance of farmers taking more interest in such gatherings in the future.

HANS PETERSEN, Chairman.
H. H. STORER, Secretary.

Probate.

Two small orders were made by Probate Judge Rolf in the probate court this morning. The hearing in the petition for the removal of Otto Stallman as an administrator was continued for a couple of weeks.

New Trial Denied.

Attorney J. R. Murphy this afternoon made an argument on a motion to have judgment set aside and a new trial granted in the case of Salt Lake City against Elizabeth Tyler, instituted in the police court on Monday last, tried and therein convicted and sentenced to 30 days' imprisonment along with her husband. Attorney Murphy made numerous citations and a very able argument in support of the motion, but Judge Smith overruled the motion and Mrs. Tyler will serve her term.

Christian Endeavors.

ABUSEMENTS.

MEN AND WOMEN has issued a comprehensive notice at the Theatre, it the return and last last evening can be taken as an evidence. The company jumped fully a hundred miles over Cross of the night previous. The audience was polite, and the adjournment took necessarily earlier than before. The scenic effect magic, and Mr. Burton and Mr. Fearing are regretting that they did not lay their plan for a week's engagement instead of one or three performances.

HOYT'S CONFIDENCE TOWN, which is seemingly bitten about town, opens a three nights' engagement at the Theatre tomorrow evening.

THE HOME DRAMATIC CLUB, in Tyler, Lou Jones, Mrs. M. H. Hancock's juvenile pupils in pantomime and dancing specialties, will this week (for the last, alas!) in the Eighteenth ward hall, the gift for the benefit of Elder Wm. Grant. The admission is 25 and 50 cents.

AT THE GRAND.—Preparations for the opening of the Grand Opera House with the new stock company in Augusta Daly's drama of today, Fern Fern, are progressing excellently. The company are now all here and the rehearsals speak an admirable performance Friday evening. Miss Bahmer will enact the role of the Widdow, light-hearted Fern Fern, a part similar in many to which she has scored her greatest success. Harry Corson Clarke and Madge Carr Cook have in the Harvey and Jacob de Cordet, parts which will stand out brilliantly; Wright Huntington, Sidney Rye, Cecil Kingsdon, Hugh Waste, Lisle Leigh, and Fredric Kingley are also well fitted to the parts wherein they are cast. The scenery, accessories, properties and costumes will be all new and appropriate. The box office for the sale of reserved seats for the performances at this week opened today.

For Petit Larceny.

The case of Philip Jacobs, the Russian hebrew, who was arrested yesterday for petit larceny and plead not guilty, was continued until 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Jacobs is accused of stealing bathers from E. M. Tabler, who runs a store on State street. Discovery comes that he simply took the suit of bathers from a boy, who was playing with them outside the store, and not knowing who they were he wiped the bar on them. He says potcatch had him arrested for spite.

A Small Fire.

A small fire occurred about ten o'clock last night in F. C. Hanson's coffee shop at No. 18 west South Temple street. The alarm was sounded in Hose box 1:15, and the department promptly responded, but in fact no hose or fire was extinguished. The loss is estimated at about $15. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Charity Ball.

The society home will take charge of the supper which will be given tomorrow evening at the Commercial Dorthel building, in behalf of St. Mark's hospital. Listed to everyone of their honor affairs, the committee in charge of this worthy cause anticipate a large attendance, as the prices of admission for many tempted easily accessible. Mrs. G. S. Hodgin, the Victoria Row manager, will endeavor to look after the wants of everybody, and Chamberlin's orchestra orchestra will furnish the latest and choicest selections.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, FEB. 20, 1895.

A Necessary Wedding.

HYRUM J. JORGENSEN was brought down from the penitentiary last evening, on an order from Judge King, to appear before the grand jury as a witness. Jorgensen and Miss Anna M. Jorgensen, with of Deseret Evening News, were in not city to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of adultery, on July 1st, by Commissioner Zacharia of Mount Pleasant, and in default of bail Jorgensen was committed to the penitentiary. Mr. Jorgensen was allowed to go on his own recognizance. After the preliminary examination Hyrum Jorgensen received a letter from his wife. When he arrived in city last evening a surprise awaited him. Anna was waiting in the county court room and he was informed that everything was in readiness for a wedding. He also was willing and Judge Dusenberry tied the knot. The matrimonial solution was witnessed by Attorney Christensen, as U. S. Attorney Judd had agreed to dismiss the charge against the parties if they would marry. The woman has six children (the youngest said to be Hans Jorgensen's) separated on her and this was the court cause that induced Judge Judd to be lenient in the case. All the parties are from Mount Pleasant.

Court Business.

In the case of Annie Lester, a young girl brought in from Moab on an order from the justice of the peace, to be examined for commitment to the Reform school, an order was made for the parents to appear next Monday to show cause why she should not be committed to that institution.
