That the dead man was really "lame Bob" Eastman, the fugitive New York broker is now established beyond doubt. Louis R. Pedler, an artist on & Washington newspaper, identified the body. Pedler is a cousin of Vinnie Bradcombe, the New York actress, who, it turns out, is the wife of East-man, and to whom he addressed the letter in which he charged that a woman had killed Mra. Woodill. Pedler had known Eastman in New York and there was no hesitancy in his identification.

The story of the drunken row told by Eastman in his letter to his wife has caused speculation here, and ef-forts are being made today to locate members of a control day forts are being made today to locate members of a party of four or five people who are said to have left here on a launch the day after the sup-posed disappearance of Mrs. Woodill,

TARIFF NEARLY DOUBLES PRICE OF MEN'S CLOTHING

New York June 26.—Anticipating the effect of the present provisions of the Aldrich tariff bill, the prices of men's clothing have been sent sky-high within a week. Clothing dealers report that suits that could be bought a week ago for $20 are now being marked to $35. Staple worsteds and woolens have all taken a 25 per cent rise in the last few days. Coupled with the tariff anticipa-tion is the increased cost of scoured wool which a year ago cost 46 cents a pound and which today is quoted at 75 cents. Clothing sellers look upon the situation with much satisfaction, their position being much stronger than it has been in many years.
