THE SUICIDE CRAZE.

Another Victim of the Self-Destruction Mania, Found in a Ghastly Plight.

Shortly before 8 o'clock Saturday evening the colored porter of the Exchange Hotel, near the Union Pacific depot, made a horrifying discovery in room 21, of that building. The first was that of a dead man badly swollen and covered with blood.

R. F. Whittemore, the proprietor of the hotel, was notified, and, in company with a number of others, entered the apartment to ascertain, if possible, the cause of the fearful mortality. Investigation showed that the dead man was F. H. Donnelly, of Aspen, Colorado, a former employe of the Studebaker branch house at that place. In his breast, near the region of the heart, were four bullet holes, from which a sickening stench came with the oozing of the blood. At his side, near the hip, lay a small revolver with four empty chambers. The body was removed to S. D. Ewans' undertaking establishment at the direction of Coroner Harris, where an inquest was held later in the evening.

The first witness was a Mr. White. He testified: I am boarding at the Exchange hotel, was slightly acquainted with the deceased. He said he was once employed by the Studebakers, but drink got the best of him; he was now in the mine hole," was the way he expressed it; he said he had been in Stockton, Cal.; I told him he had better go back; he replied he had two good jobs there but threw them up. After we parted there I did not see him any more; he told me he had been drinking for a long time; he was terribly nervous, his hands trembling.

The following letter from a brother in Aspen, Col., was found on the body of the deceased:

ST. H. Donnelly:

"Dear Brother—Thought I would drop you a note. Willie and baby are real well and you must not worry for them, as I am only too pleased to have them with me. Baby Dunning is lovely and often talks of papa. I am real sorry, Pete, to hear of your ill luck. But don't get discouraged, and hope all will be O. K. in the near future. Don't cry over the past. You know we all have to have experience, which generally costs dearly. But you are young and can easily start anew. As you told me last summer, 'Give me an apron and a hammer and I can easily make a living.'

"We are sorry, and only wish we were fixed financially, that we could lend you a helping hand. Willie and baby are welcome, and I hope you will not worry for them, as we love them as much as she looks for a letter from you in every mail. I hope you settle in Colorado, and hope to hear of your being established and happy soon. With love and best wishes from Joe and I, Lovingly,

"SALLIE."

It is said that the deceased had $100 on Wednesday last, but as only $22 was found on his person, it is believed that the difference was squandered in drink.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death by pistol shots, inflicted with suicidal intent.

THE HOT SPRINGS RAILROAD.

A Difficulty Arises in Regard to Acquiring a Certain Strip of Land.

The trial of the action of the Great Salt Lake and Hot Springs Railway Co., plaintiff, vs. the Salt Lake Mill and Elevator Co., defendant, was begun before Judge Zane this morning.

The complaint alleges that plaintiff is a corporation duly organized by virtue of the laws of Utah Territory, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a railroad by motive power between this city and Bountiful, Davis county. That the line of plaintiff's railroad is so located as to extend upon and across the defendant's property and, therefore, the following described land is necessary for the public use of plaintiff, for the operation of its road: Commencing at a point on the west side of a county road 75 6-10 rods east and 49 9-10 rods south from the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of section 23 in township one, north range one west, Salt Lake meridian; thence south 77 degrees, west 242 feet; thence north 41 degrees, west 272 feet; thence in a westerly direction on the northern boundary line of said land of defendant, 31 6-10 feet; thence south 41 degrees, east 299 feet; thence north 77 degrees east 35 feet, being a strip of ground containing 1.6 rods in area. It is urged that plaintiff is unable to purchase the same of the defendant; wherefore plaintiff prays that, after the assessment and payment of the damages accruing to defendant, the strip of land in question may, by order of the court, be condemned to the plaintiff's use for a right of way for the construction of its steam railroad.

In their answer the defendant company denies that plaintiff is a corporation existing by virtue of the laws of the Territory, charges that plaintiff's purpose is to operate a street railway and acquire a right of way in order to sell it out to some corporation to be organized in the future, and with the object of speculating on the right of way thus condemned. The right of plaintiff to condemn any portion of the land in controversy is also denied, as well as the allegation that the taking of the land is for a public use, and that the public has any interest whatever in the proceeding. It is further averred that the condemnation is sought for a private and by a private corporation. Defendant has all along been ready and willing to grant to plaintiff, for a fair and reasonable consideration, the right to use and occupy so much of defendant's land as may be necessary for the proper and legal operation of this railway, but it is asserted that plaintiff has declined to pay for this privilege. Though plaintiff agreed to submit the matter to arbitration, it afterwards recedes therefrom. The sufficiency of the allegations of plaintiff to entitle it to the relief demanded is therefore questioned by defendant company.

Messrs. Rawlins and E. R. Critchlow are attorneys for the plaintiff; the defendants are represented by Messrs. Baldwin and Tarlock.

The case was still in progress when the court took the usual noon recess.

A STRANGE CASE.

An Unknown Man Drowned in a Slough.

At a late hour on Saturday afternoon an unknown man was found dead in slough, two miles south of the Ogden Hot Springs. The ghastly find was made by a party of section men, while at work on the Central Pacific track. Coroner Allen was notified of the discovery, and started promptly for the scene of death with a carriage in which to convey the remains to Ogden city office. After some difficulty the party was located and the body found lying in four feet of water, about a foot from the bank. A long board was taken from a fence near by, and with it the body was pulled ashore. The remains were wrapped in a rubber blanket, carried to the railroad track, placed in a coffin, and then conveyed to the waiting hair a mile distant.

The remains now lie at Richey undertaking parlors. Nothing was found on the body that is likely to lead to its identification.

The unfortunate man was about five feet six inches in height, he was smooth shaven, has dark brown hair and gray eyes, and was about thirty years of age. He wore a dark suit of clothes and a stiff hat.

There was no external evidence showing that the man had been foully dealt with. The body had not been in the water more than a few hours.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

A Change of Programme Because Judge Anderson is Indisposed.

Judge Anderson took his seat on the bench of the Third district court at 10 o'clock this morning and disposed of several formal matters. Afterwards his place was taken by Chief Justice Zane, who stated that he had expected to proceed with the trial of chancery cases today, but in consequence of the indisposition of Judge Anderson a change in the previous arrangement had been rendered necessary. He (Judge Zane) would probably take up the criminal calendar this afternoon, and all chancery business would stand over until June 15.

The following orders were made during the earlier portion of the morning's session:

S. E. Kinney vs. Charles Wilson. In this case the demurrer was sustained.

R. Devine vs. D. Burns et al.; demurrer overruled; twenty days allowed to answer complaint.

Crescent Mining Co. vs. A. B. White et al.; judgment for the intervenor.

J. H. Nichols vs. N. B. White et al.; same order.

William Gobler et al. vs. Joseph Morris et al. In this matter the restraining order is to be continued in force for sixty days, or until the defendant Nichols can be served with a summons and brought in. Leave was granted to amend the cross complaint by making Harriet E. H. Parsons a party defendant.

Sanders Sanderson vs. Madelina Koenig. This case was referred to J. H. Hurd for trial.

South Kansas Irrigation Co. vs. N. J. Pace; settled and dismissed.

Salt Lake City vs. Charlotte Edwards; by consent, the motion to appoint appraisers for right of way was continued till May 28th.

Salt Lake City vs. William Fuller et al.; same order.

The People vs. John Gibson and William Baron; grand larceny; case continued on the motion of the prosecution.

HELD FOR ADULTERY.

Sarah Bolton and Robert Moore, a colored couple, who were before the court on Monday on an indictment charging them with adultery, were again arraigned this morning, when the women pleaded guilty, but the man still persisted in his innocence. Upon the application of United States Assistant District Attorney Stephens the trial was set for Wednesday morning.

Before Judge Zane.

In the Third District Court on Saturday afternoon, Judge Zane presiding, Robert Moore and Sarah Bolton (colored) were arraigned on an indictment charging them with adultery. Not having any attorney and desiring one, his honor appointed Mr. Winters to defend. They took the statutory time to plead.

The test case was that of Forhan vs. M. J. Forhan and C. S. Varian. This action was brought by Mrs. Forhan against her husband to be held by C. S. Varian in trust for her and now claimed by Forhan. Previous to the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, the defendant Mrs. Forhan, at that time Mrs. Maxwell, loaned her husband $2000 in three different lots, to invest in real estate. He purchased certain lots in Ogden and in company with other dealers, and in one of the transactions Mr. Varian was named as trustee. Forhan afterwards paid back to his wife $2,000 in cash and the sale of the tract held by Mr. Varian $4,287.67 was realized. This amount both Mr. and Mrs. Forhan claim, and consequently Mr. Varian is unable to deliver it to either. Suit was then brought as stated. Mr. Brown represented the defendants and Mr. Dickson appeared for the plaintiff. Several witnesses were examined, and the court rendered a verdict in favor of the defendant. A twenty days' stay of proceedings was granted.

In the case of James G. Armstrong vs. C. W. Vesdon, the motion to strike out a demurrer was granted.

Samuel O. Ewing, administrator, vs. A. J. White. The motion for a new trial was submitted and taken under advisement.

First District Court.

In this court, at Ogden, on Saturday, before Judge Miner, the jury in the case of the People vs. Nick Smith returned a verdict of guilty of assault. Sentence was set for 2 o'clock p. m., on May 26th.

In the case of the People vs. Thomas McGahan et al., (burglary), the jury returned a verdict of guilty as to McGahan and not guilty as to Baker.

The People vs. Anna Johnson; order dismissing the case.

A. G. Mowery et al. vs. Joseph Clark; order for execution to issue on behalf of assignee of judgment.

A WAREHOUSE BURNED

The Loss is Estimated at $10,000.—No Insurance.

Shortly after 11 o'clock a. m. today a telephone message was received at the hook and ladder house on the department, announcing that Earl Bros.' mercantile house on Ninth East, between Fourth and Fifth South streets, was in flames. The brigade had just returned from its regular morning run, and everything was in readiness for action when the alarm was sounded. Considering the distance to traverse, the run was quickly made. Five minutes last of time was entailed and a large stream of water was soon playing on the flames, which were extinguished without great difficulty, but not until three-fourths of merchandise had been consumed.

The goods in the store proper were not much injured, the bulk being made up of merchandise packed in the warehouse.

The property was owned and the operations of the business accordingly feel their loss heavily.

The fire originated in the warehouse, in the rear of the premises. Exactly how it took hold, but it is believed to have been started by a number of small boys, who had been smoking cigarettes on the premises.

From West Virginia.

Elder Jonathan S. Page, Jr., of Payson, called at our office this morning, having just returned from a mission to West Virginia, in which State he has labored ever since his departure, on November 5th, 1889, excepting six weeks spent in New Jersey.

Elder Page reports that part of the mission he visited the last six months as being in a prospering condition. He held many meetings and was instrumental in doing much good. His mission was much impaired, however, by sickness, and, on that account he was released to return home somewhat earlier than he would otherwise have done.

Y. M. M. I. A. Meetings in Cassia.

Editor Deseret News:

Brother Milton H. Hardy has finished his tour through the Cassia Stake in the interest of mutual improvement and educational work. He was accompanied by the Stake superintendent of the Y. M. M. I. A., and held meetings as follows: Albion, May 18; Oakley, May 19, and at Elba May 20. He started for Salt Lake City via Kelton May 21, feeling well in body and excellent in spirits.

The meetings were generally well attended with anxious and attentive listeners. We certainly had a time of rejoicing and wish such visits were frequent, if they were we think we would not only be able to arrange and care for our visitors with less awkwardness, but also would advance much faster in fulfillment of our duties.

Elder Hardy as well as the others, while traversing the counties, had the pleasure of being found for an unwonted time by a western wind and dust storm, and being sprinkled the following day with snow and rain. Some of the results of these extreme weather contrasts are

Yours truly,

Saved By Muscle and Lungs.

J. H. Rack, of the retail grocery department of the Z. C. M. I., had rather an unpleasant experience on Friday night last. It appears that Mr. Rack is a member of the newly organized cricket club in this city. On Friday the Salt Lake club played a match with the Ogden club at that city. The Salt Lakers returned on the last train. While Mr. Rack was on his way home from the depot on the last train he was met by three men on First West, between Second and Third North. One of them pointed a revolver at him and ordered him to throw up his hands. Rack dropped a little hand satchel which he carried, and lifted his hands, but he planted one on the jugular of the highwayman, which laid the latter in the dust. He then turned to one of the others and fell him, but the third man called into Rack and laid him flat. Mr. Rack, whose lungs are in good condition, yelled with all his might. This brought two young men out from a house who heard the noise. The hold-ups then decamped.

It is owing to Mr. Rack's development of muscle, which may perhaps be called fat, and his good lungs, that he saved his life as well as his pocket book. He hangs, too, on receiving of credit, though he has never filled the place of a bank cashier.

The number of footpads and strangers of no fixed abode is increasing again in this city. It would be well for people out late in the evenings to be on the watch.

DEMOCRATIC CALL.

A Meeting of German Democrats to be Held Tonight.

We, the undersigned, believing that the "Liberal" party has worked out the purpose for which it was created, and that its longer continuance would tend to foster a feeling of dislike and aversion between the Mormons and non-Mormons, and would be detrimental to the best interests of our city and Territory, and that the time is now ripe for dividing on national party lines, and further believing in the great principle of the Democratic party and endorsing the platform adopted by the Central Democratic club of Salt Lake county, do hereby agree to form a German Democratic club.

All Germans who sympathize with this movement are cordially invited to attend our first meeting, to be held at Turner Hall, on May 25, 1891, at 8 o'clock, in Turner Hall, Third South and Main street.

TRANS-MISSISSIPPI CONGRESS.

Return of the Utah Delegation From Denver Yesterday.

A number of the Utah delegates to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Conference at Denver—the proceedings in connection with which came to a close on Friday, at midnight—returned home last evening over the Rio Grand Western railroad. The party included President of the Congress E. P. Ferry; Delegates A. B. Richardson, of Park City; W. W. Fudge, Ogden; A. E. Hyde, L. G. Hardy, Oscar Hardy, and T. G. Webber (Chairman of the Utah delegation), all of Salt Lake. Mr. J. D. Jones left the other members of the delegation at Pueblo, where he resides.

The delegation did excellent service in securing the election of a Utah man, Mr. Ferry, as President of the Trans-Mississippi Congress, he having defeated the other candidate, Governor Anthony, of Kansas; and as a rule, the utmost harmony prevailed throughout among the members of Utah's delegation, of which lively Mr. T. G. Webber was appointed chairman.

It may be stated that no sectional, religious or political issues were presented before the congress by the party from Utah.

The next congress will be held in October, at Omaha, and in February one will take place at New Orleans.
