The matter of Daniel Hamer vs. C. E. Brainard, involving $500, was argued and submitted.

Hurt While Sleighing.

Yesterday afternoon the wife and daughter of Captain Bailey met with an unfortunate mishap while out for a sleigh drive. When passing near Third South and Second East streets the horse took fright and went off at a break-neck pace. On reaching the Cliff House Mrs. Bailey, seeing the danger, caught hold of her daughter, and they jumped from the sleigh together. The former received a severe injury to the head and neck, and was attended by Dr. Lyons, at that gentleman's office, whenceshe was carried. Her wounds were dressed and she was soon afterwards removed home. Miss Bailey escaped with nothing more than a severe shaking.

Neatly Nabbed.

This afternoon about 1 o'clock Police Officers Donovan and Parker arrested two young men in front of the Walker House, on suspicion. They were taken to police headquarter and searched. A complete kit of burglar's tools was found in their possession. They gave their names as Charles Hill and Charles Cahl, aged 19 and 21 years respectively. Both are recent arrivals in this city. They said that they were stopping at the St. Elmo Hotel, occupying room 50. A News reporter visited the hotel in company with officer Donovan shortly after the arrest. Inquiry revealed the fact that there were no names on the hotel register to correspond with those the prisoners gave at the City Hall. They were placed in the city jail and will have a hearing tomorrow.

LAST NIGHT'S CITY COUNCIL.

"Illustrated American" Anti-"Mormon" Slanders To Be Refuted.

THE MAYOR'S FIRST MESSAGE

The Police Force Wants an Increase of Salary.

At a regular meeting of the City Council last night the following members were present:

Councillors Cohn, Anderson, Lynn, Hall, Pembroke, Pendleton, Armstrong, Noble, James, Kerrich and Parsons. Mayor Scott presided. After some preliminaries the following business was transacted:

PETITIONS.

Petition of Abraham Jeffs, asking the City Council to sell him a piece of property situated in lot 1, block 66. Committee on public grounds.

Petition of J. J. Van Horsen, asking the City Council to take action in a formal petition to which he asked for the sale to him of certain property in block 4, plat C. Committee on public grounds.

Petition of the Utah Fire Brewing Company asking to be allowed to connect a three inch pipe with the city water mains. Committee on waterworks.

Petition of Fred Trimmer protesting against the removing of graves in City Creek canyon. Granted.

Petition of the Rapid Transit Company asking for a remission of the tax of 1; office on each fare collected, up to December 31, on the ground that the road was scarcely paying expenses. Committee on finance.

REPORT OF THE CITY ATTORNEY.

In the matter of the petition of the Fifteenth Ecclesiastical Ward, asking a remission of taxes, amounting to $62.90, the city attorney recommended that the prayer of the petitioners be granted.

The same officer recommended the payment to the clerk of the Third District Court of the sum of $27 for costs incurred in committing Susan Green, Rosey Due, Jane Smith, Thomas Blandell, Samuel Brown and Emil Avenson to the Reform School.

The same officer also submitted a bond (in duplicate) to be executed by the City Council to Harry Barnes and Edward Byrne for the Warm Springs property. The report was adopted.

Petition of W. W. Orr, asking that he be appointed Police Magistrate was read.

City Attorney Merritt—The office referred to is not vacant, so that should settle the matter.

The petition was tabled on motion of Councilman Cohn.

FRED KESLER COMPLAINS.

The following communication from Fred. Kesler was read:

To the Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council:

Your petitioner respectfully represents to your honorable body that he is justice of the peace, duly elected and qualified, in and for the Fourth Ward of Salt Lake City, and as such justice of the peace he is a part of the judicial power of said city pursuant to Article 3 of the amended charter of said city, approved March 9, 1888, and that as such judicial officer it is his duty to act as a conservator of the peace, and to examine all cases arising by the violation of any ordinance or by law of said city, and to commit and cause to be committed to the jail, and under the United States "Poe Bill" made for or set off to Congress, by act of the Territory of Utah, approved June 23, 1874, to be entitled to the fees so set for bill in such cases, which fees are to be paid by the city of Salt Lake, and by reason of the acts of your honorable body somewhere taken, the fees and appointing a salary of $100 per year to be paid to H. S. Lacey another justice of the peace duly elected and qualified in and for the First Precinct of said city.

Your petitioner further represents that he has been wholly deprived of such fees in forty cases, none of fees filed before him as such justice of the peace since the 12th day of January, 1891.

Your petitioner thinks that by the acts of your honorable body in allowing said Fees to be paid to said H. S. Lacey, as such justice of the peace, your petitioner and all other justices of the peace in this city have been wrongfully deprived of all legal fees for services had and tried by them upon complaints made for violations of said city ordinances, and your petitioner respectfully insists that act in fixing said salary of $100 to one justice, to the exclusion of all other justices, is wholly unauthorized, illegal and without warrant of law. Wherefore your petitioner prays that the said ordinance fixing said salary be rescinded, the salary be discontinued, so that each and all justices may receive their legal fees.

Referred to the city attorney.

Police Justice Lacey—The statement that Mr. Kesler has been deprived of his fees for such trial is not true. He did not appear at the trial of the cases, but simply taken my dismissal and receipt and signed for the money. I am willing to give up the fees to Mr. Kesler if he wants to.

Mr. Kesler—Your Honor, would you like to hear the other side of the story?

Mayor Scott—You will be allowed to make your statement before the committee, Mr. Kesler.

CASLAKE'S CREEK CONDUIT.

The city engineer presented a profile of line and sections of masonry and concrete to be constructed thereon to convey water from Parley's Creek to this city. The engineer reported that the line was a close approximation to the location and was the foundation of his estimate of costs. The concrete sections were designed to carry 1,000 cubic feet in twenty-four hours and to be built of a mixture of concrete and brick masonry. He recommended that the work be adopted in time to be of service during the coming summer.

The engineer was ordered to make specifications.

MERRIE DOLLITTLE'S REPORT.

The committee on streets reported as follows: That the petition of E. Sells and others to have Twelfth East Street graded be granted; that the petition of the Carey-Lombard Company for permission to put in a switch from their yard be granted. In the matter of a sidewalk on Second South Street, the committee reported that a flag walk would be too expensive, and a cheaper walk would answer all requirements. They intended to report further on this subject later. The committee recommended that the petition of J. H. Mellen, for permission to cut in on Ninth West Street, be not granted; in regard to the condemnation of W. L. Pickard and others relative to the condition of Third South Street west, the committee reported that the interest emergency had satisfactorily explained the matter, and they recommended the petition be not granted. Adopted.

THE NEW PUBLIC BUILDING.

The committee on improvements submitted a notice to be served upon Architect Kleinting for the revision of the Armory plans for the city and county building and superintendent of the building. The contract provides that Mr. Kleinting shall be paid $2000 to revise the plans so as to secure a safe, durable and substantial building. In the judgment of the committee it is thought, if possible, the revised plans shall be sent to Prof. Ware for approval, the architect to pay Prof. Ware the expense of the examination, and the revision of the plans to be completed by April 10 next; the rest of the building is not to be touched; the then $200,000, exclusive of the tower, is now the lowest bid for constructing the building; if exceeds $200,000, then the architect is to change the plans so as to reduce the cost to the amount named; that the architect shall furnish a bond in the sum of $25,000; that the compensation to the architect be reduced 1½ per cent of the cost of the building, exclusive of the work already done; that the architect shall furnish the city and county with a complete set of plans.

After considerable discussion the contract was approved.

The city attorney also submitted a bond to be executed by the city to Henry Barnes and Edward Byrne for the Warm Springs property. Adopted.

SLANDEROUS ARTICLES TO BE REFUTED.

Councilman Pembroke—I wish to call the attention of the City Council to a series of articles that have recently appeared in the Illustrated American, entitled "Extermination of the Mormons," in which it is alleged that the "Mormons" want war. Such stuff is all bosh. The "Mormons" are peaceably inclined and have the building up of the city and county at heart, the same as other citizens have. The publication of these false falsehoods should be squelched.

Councilman Hall—I have read the articles referred to with a great deal of disgust and am of the opinion they will injure the city.

Councilman Pembroke then offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the impression obtained by reading the articles bearing upon the Mormon question published in the Illustrated American is likely to be detrimental to the eastern public sentiment in the month now of the commercial interests of this city; be it

"Resolved, that a committee of this Council be appointed to officially refute, by such means as may be deemed advisable, the misrepresentations in the issue of the Illustrated American, to the effect that Utah is about to make war upon the United States; and be it further resolved that the committee be requested to obtain the services of the Territorial officers and the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce in this refutation, and that the same be printed in the Illustrated American."

Councilmen Hall, Kerrich and Pembroke were appointed as committee to refute the charges referred to.

THE NEW WIRING ORDINANCE.

An ordinance providing for the levy and collection of a paving and curbing tax for First East Street came up. It provides that the tax may be paid in yearly installments, allowing ten years time to liquidate.

City Attorney Merritt said that it would be necessary to issue bonds, which must not be sold below par.

After some fruitless discussion the ordinance passed.

WANT THEIR SALARIES RAISED.

The committee on police reported in favor of increasing the salaries of the police force. The report was referred back to the committee on police.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The following appropriations were then made:

Walker Bros.	$ 40 00
Salt Lake Herald Co.	1,000 00
H. G. Smith Co.	21 10
Deseret News	184 00
Total	$1,245 10

THE MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

The reports of all of the city officers and the annual message of the Mayor were then submitted, after which the Council adjourned until Friday evening next.

From Star Valley.

(Correspondence Deseret News.)

THE AUROTA WARD of the first Lake Stake of Zion is situated in the northwest portion of Star Valley, on the "Old Landlie" trail, and contains fifty-three actual settlers, nearly needs of families, each of whom claims not less than fifty acres of land. The assessed valuation of our taxable property last year (at a low estimate) amounted to over $100,000, and the facilities for increase (property) are almost boundless. A few of our citizens have taken membership shares in the public ranges, as a component of their county, which is presumed. On the 17th and 18th of the present month a conference of the Y. M. M. I. A. Associations of Star and Salt River valleys was held in this ward. The Stake Presidency were present.

At the time appointed for the meetings the house was filled to its utmost seating capacity with representatives from the various wards. On Saturday afternoon lectures were delivered by Apostle V. Call and Hugh Morgan, Esq., President of the Young Men's Association, and on labor on "The Liberal Professions."

On Sunday the time was taken up in discussions by the following brethren, namely, William Hymas, John Bagley, and John Osmond. They laid before the people the truths of the Gospel with such power that the Saints were made glad and fell with regard for traveling some distances to participate in the spiritual conference of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Associations of these valleys.

Assistant Secretary.

WEARY OF WAITING!

The Fate of the "Variety" License Hangs in the Balance.

NO RULING ON IT YET GIVEN.

An Appeal in the Case of the Ogden Street Railroad.

Another day has come and nearly gone, and still the general public remains in the dark as to the outcome of the deliberations of the Supreme Court Judges in reference to the "Variety" Theatre liquor license. As during the two preceding days, there was again this morning, upon the assembling of the court, quite a number of prominent members of the bar, among those more particularly interested in the impending and all-important ruling being City Attorney Merritt and United States District Attorney Varian, Judge Powerscourt his associate in the Franklin Avenue Tragedy case (Attorney Dickson) were on this occasion conspicuous by their absence. When the Supreme Judges took their places on the bench—Chief Justice Zane and Associate Justice Minor each having a roll of papers in his hand, strongly suggestive of a written decision—expectation was on tiptoe, and it seemed to be the prevailing belief that the fate of the "Variety" license would be speedily made known. But disappointment was once more in store. Corn Rents went through the usual formality of reading the Court record of the previous day's doings, the Judges attached their signatures thereto, and then Judge Zane called the next case on Wednesday's docket. This settled all anxiety about the looked-for decision for one more day, and the spectators in the court-room quickly filed off.

OGDEN STREET RAILROAD DISPUTE.

H. B. Henderson, A. S. Harrison and Joseph Brinker, plaintiffs and respondents, vs. the Ogden City Railway Company, a corporation, Jarvis Conklin Mortgage Trust Company, defendants and appellants.

Judge Miner did not adjudicate in this case.

The appeal was from an order granting a temporary injunction made upon the hearing of an order to show cause why an injunction should not issue. The hearing was based upon the complaint and answer, and the testimony of witnesses sworn on the part of the plaintiff, defendants offering no testimony.

The complaint alleges that the defendant railroad company is a corporation organized under the laws of Utah, and that the defendant Jarvis Conklin Mortgage Trust Company is a corporation organized under the laws of Massachusetts; that the railway company is the owner of a street railway on Twenty-fifth Street, Washington Avenue, and certain streets in the city of Ogden, operated by electric and horse power; that on the 15th of September, 1890, the city of Ogden, by ordinance, gave to the plaintiffs a franchise to construct and operate a single or double track electric street railway on all or any of the streets of the city, upon certain terms and conditions, one of the latter being that they give a bond in the penal sum of $25,000, conditioned that they should, in good faith, commence the construction of the railway in ninety days thereafter. On or about the 1st of November, 1890, plaintiffs say they in good faith began the work, and expended thereon the sum of about $12,000, were now prosecuting the laying of the line on Twenty-fifth Street, Washington Avenue, and other streets, and had put down and completed about one and one-half miles of roadbed on Washington and Jefferson Avenues and Twenty-fifth Street, and had graded track over a considerable portion of the same. Plaintiffs had also broken ground for such track north of Ogden River, a distance of some two miles. Defendants claimed an exclusive franchise for street railways on said streets by reason of an ordinance of the City Council passed on August 15, 1889, but plaintiffs urge that the acts of defendants are solely a preservation of any right, legal or equitable, which the defendants claim to have, but are unable to "frame and assert" the plaintiffs and prevent them from pursuing their work. They set forth that Dobbs, Dickson and others, defendants herein, threaten to, and would unless restrained, do great and irreparable injury and wrong upon plaintiffs, and that the damage thereto would not be accurately estimated by pecuniary standards; the City Railway Company is insolvent and that the defendant Jarvis-Conklin Mortgage Trust Company is the mortgagee of said railway company, and that said company, hence the complaint prays for permanent and temporary injunction and for general relief.

The defendants' answer to the complaint admits that the Ogden City Railway Company is the owner of the street railway on Twenty-fifth Street, Washington Avenue, and other thoroughfares, but denies that the city authorities granted to plaintiffs a franchise or privilege to construct and operate a single or double track electric street railway over all or any of the streets of said city. Defendants also deny the power of the city to make any such grant upon any street. They admit that in "said pretended ordinance" it was provided that defendants' rights—if any there are—should be acquired under such ordinance, subject to their filing a bond in the sum of $25,000 to be delivered to Ogden City, mentioned as alleged. They deny that the ground of complaint upon which the construction of the track was commenced was the property of the plaintiffs, or that they had any right thereto. They also deny that the defendants' acts were not in good faith, or that they had done aught for the purpose of harassing or annoying plaintiffs. They deny, further, that plaintiffs have not anything "except the low or mean motive or reason of their own folly," or that defendants have committed any trespass upon their lines.

Messrs. Kimball and Allison, H. P. Henderson and Ogden Hiles are attorneys for the respondents, and L. R. Rhodes and T. J. Hudson for the appellants.

The arguments of counsel were in progress when our report closed.

THE ILL-FATED MINE.

Numerous Families Plunged into the Depths of Grief and Despair.

BODY OF AN EX-UNITED STATES MARSHAL FOUND.

A Ten-Year-Old Resolution Eliminated from the Records of the House of Commons.

TRANSCRIBED FOR THE NEWS.

THE ANVIL DISASTER.

The Little Rising Camp in Sorrow and Joy.

YOUNGWOOD, Pa., Jan. 28.—One hundred and seven bodies have been taken from the ill-fated mine of Frick and Company at Mammoth up to 10 o'clock this morning. It is estimated that the remains are at least seventeen more. The victims of yesterday's explosion are still in the pit, but it is thought all will be out in a few hours. Nobody sleps at Mammoth but tight. In every home in the little mining hamlet was mourning. Little ominatory houses, scantily furnished, were illuminated with a tallow candle, and mothers, wives, sisters, and sweethearts sobbed in silence. After the exciting yesterday, the news of the awful fate of scores of miners at work in the sixth vein made the little mining hamlet and miners' homes. Corners carried the dreadful news hither and thither. The families rushed from the comforts of home into the depths of grief and despair. The scenes at these miners' cottages can really be imagined. Within incredibly short time the entrance to the shaft swarmed with an eager, anxious crowd, men, women, children, some of whom could only with great difficulty be kept at a safe distance. As the bodies of the victims, mangled by the terrible force of the explosion or burned almost out of human semblance, were brought up from the yawning depths, the crowd of watchers parted to want to the pit's mouth for a glimpse of recognition. Frantic women and children fainted in fear of finding their loved ones among the dead. Tears coursed down the bronzed and bearded cheeks and hearts of men who knew by hands that had served the pick for many years. The rescuing party proceeded with their grim task and the dead were carried out in rapid succession. Fifty coffins arrived from Pittsburg this morning and another half hundred will reach here tonight. An additional force of undertakers were sent for this morning. The cause of the explosion is not yet determined. The entrance is on the ground and a thorough investigation will be made.

THE CAUSE OF THE DISASTER.

The roll call of all men is in progress and by this the exact number of missing will be known. The rescuing party is working with energy and the crews in the shaft are doing fast almost on. The officials of the Frick Company said this morning: "It may never be known here or why the explosion occurred. The accumulation of gas was probably the cause, but it may never be known to exist in any quantity before, in fact, it may be said the Mammoth vein has been free from any damp. There is a theory that a pocket of natural gas was reached and that the operation of the ventilating fans now operating may remove some of it, and it is not necessary that every one in a mine shall be killed when an explosion occurs. The explosive may stay in one particular section and may not permeate the entire mine, unless the volume is so great as to blow it to every part of the pit. In this case the gas is confined to a portion of the miners who were in the other localities escaped."

Some of the history of American coal mining has there been such

with such comparable annihilation of all within its reach. The Mammoth mines have always been regarded as being particularly free from gas. Hundreds of miles of gas pipe have provided for the miners by the company, but they were never used, as they were regarded unnecessary. In fact, it is said the men were somewhat little inclined to keep in their lights. The mine now put the night shift to work and found nothing to arouse his suspicion.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—At the opening this morning the stock market was active, strong and from ½ to 3 per cent above yesterday's close. The strength and activity was excited in Villards, Union Pacific, St. Paul and Sugar. After 11 o'clock the upward movement was more pronounced and at noon the market was firm to strong, at few lost prices of the morning.

Stake Conference.

The Quarterly Conference of the Box Elder Stake of Zion convened in the Tabernacle at Brigham City on Sunday, January 25th. At the forenoon service interesting and instructive remarks were made by President Lorenzo Snow, Elders G. Morgan, Edwin C. Dunn, G. W. Hobbs, W. L. Walker, J. M. Jensen and Chas. Kelly.

During the afternoon the time was occupied by Elders Dunstan Tolleson and G. Kirkham, of Salt Lake City, and President Lorenzo Snow. Their words of counsel were appreciated by all.

On Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, a large congregation assembled. An interesting and practical discussion was given by President Seymour B. Young, of Salt Lake City, followed by an address by Elder A. Modena.

The afternoon was occupied principally by President E. Cawson, who expressed his pleasure with the general condition of affairs in the Stake. It is evident that the Saints have had difficulties to settle. The result show the earnest diligence on the part of the Saints in paying their tithes and offerings. Over $1,000 in Stake Store added a few words of instruction.

A good spirit prevailed during conference and the Saints left strengthened in the cause of truth.
