COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

Candidates Selected at the Convention in the Tabernacle.

Mrs. Pardee for the Senate and Mrs. Wells for the House—Other Selections—State and Judicial Delegates, Etc.

It was getting well on toward daylight this morning when the Salt Lake county Republican convention adjourned. A chief cause for this lateness was the delay made yesterday as stated in the NEWS. An adjournment till today would have occasioned great inconvenience, as the Tabernacle was not obtainable.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business recommended the following officers, who were endorsed:

Chairman, C. S. Varian; vice-chairmen, Mrs. Emmeline B. Wells, Mrs. Samuel Parry, Mrs. Mary B. Hamilton, Mrs. A. V. Taylor, Mrs. Martha Campbell, Leonard G. Hardy, Elias Morris, F. L. Cushing, W. S. McCornick, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Conklin, Edward F. Colesby, Mrs. E. Ellis and J. H. Bacon; secretary, Louis Hyman; assistant secretary, Lulie R. Pardee; reading clerk, Felix Guthrie; assistant clerks, Moses Thatcher and Perry McRae. Mrs. Wells was made an assistant secretary.

The appointment of delegates to the State and judicial conventions was fixed as follows, the same committee to act:

First Precinct, 25; Second precinct, 35; Third precinct, 15; Fourth precinct, 16; Fifth precinct, 25; second outside the city, 40; Total, 157.

After several causes, balloting was proceeded with, resulting in the choice of the following candidates:

For State Senator—George M. Cannon, of Sugar, and H. R. Booth, of the Third precinct; Mrs. Lulie Richards, of the First precinct; Geo. Miller, of the Fourth precinct, and George Sutherland, of the Second precinct.

For the State House of Representatives—E. B. Critchlow, of the Fifth precinct; H. M. Cushing and T. D. Lewis, of the Second; R. W. Morris, of the Fourth; W. C. Spencer, of the Third; George L. Nye, of the Fifth; J. F. Sneddeker, of Mill Creek; A. V. Taylor, of the First; W. W. Wilson, of Sandy, and Mrs. E. R. Wells, of Farmers precinct.

The convention decides that if the women nominees should be decided by the courts to be ineligible then the male candidates receiving the highest number of votes among those so elected to be placed by the county committee upon the ticket. These are E. B. Jones, of the Fifth precinct, for State Senator, and Tom Ferguson, of Farmers, for the lower house.

Delegates to the State and judicial conventions were named as follows:
