PEAR AND CHERRY SLUG.

One of the Most Pernicious Insects Now Threatening Our Orchards.

Stops the Growth of the Trees and if not Checked Will Destroy Them—Remedy is Thorough Spraying.

Mr. C. A. Hickenlooper, the fruit tree inspector, has received a report from the inspector of Weber county, as to the operations to be done in damage to Utah orchards unless work checked.

This pear slug is doing a good deal of damage in Utah at the present time on pear and cherry trees, and I feel sure that it is working in the vicinity of your town, quince and wild hay.

Work we take into consideration the comparative short time that it has been here and the wonderful increase in its ranks, it is not easy to find every one who is interested in this growing pest, but it is wage a war against this pest.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PEST.

For the benefit of those who may not be familiar with this insect I will say that it is produced from an egg on the upper side of the leaf in a small black fly, resembling the common house fly, only that it is jet black and is very sluggish in its movements. The slug first appears in June, when you find the leaves having only the bare ribs left of veins. The leaves immediately begin to die and in a very short time the tree looks as though a fire had swept through it. As the leaves are the lungs of the tree it is not surprising that in a short time growth is completely stopped.

THE REMEDY.

As this pest works on the upper side of leaf and there safe from Paris, it is very easily reached by spraying thoroughly with the following solution:

Mix one pound of Paris green and one pound of flour with sufficient water to dissolve it, add the water through cloth to prevent the flour forming lumps, dissolve with 200 gallons of water, stick, one pounds of fresh lime, dissolve in cold water, and add the same to the mixture, stir frequently while spraying. The caustic properties of the lime make it effective when it comes in contact with the tender skin of the pest.

I consider it one of the most meritorious if treated properly, but it is also will do a great deal of damage if left in a short time than any other insect with which we are familiar.

Ask while fighting the slug don't forget the codling moth which is working on your fruit apples. Use the same solution for both as for slug. By following the above instructions your late fruit will be very good, and the second or security will bring a good price.

First Tree Inspector for Weber Co.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

BURLINGTON, WYOMING.

Facilities in the Big Horn Basin for Home Making—A Prosperous Settlement.

Special Correspondence.

Burlington, Wyo., Aug. 5.—Perhaps some of the readers of the "News" will be interested to know that there is a settlement of the Latter-day Saints located in Big Horn Basin. The Basin is one hundred and fifty miles long by one hundred miles wide. We have just had the pleasure of a visit from Apostle Abraham H. Cannon, accompanied by Joseph W. McMurrin of the First Council of Seventies, who held meetings in the Burlington meeting house Sunday and Monday, July 23th and 24th. They completed the organization of the a report of which will be sent you by the apostles, L. L. Pender.

Burlington is situated three or four miles south of the Deer Ball river, upon a canal taken out by our people. This was the first canal in the Basin to be taken out by Saints. Two other canals are now in the Basin, and the five canals that our people have taken out, bringing water to what is called the Burlington tract, have transformed the appearance of the country. The Saints reared the other settlers along the streams to marvel at our progress.

With the water of the Deer Ball river as a canal, all opportunities, there are two Mormon settlements, Lovell and Byron, Stinking Water Creek, either of them about the size of Grass Creek in Utah, Utah county, and Bonney's Ford, Utah, thousands of acres of as fine land as can be found in the West, just waiting for the coming of the Saints. Water, water, water, you can be found on either of these streams! In fact, there are valleys at Burlington, which is at a higher elevation than either of the two towns mentioned above, which can be watered and plowed by the big horse, mud and other species of fish in the irrigating water. We also have a very fine mineral springs in the United States, namely the Big Horn Hot Springs, which are in the Big Horn River near the mouth of Gray Creek, and the Cody Hot Springs, in Stinking Water Creek, the southern Basin. These are some of Nature, are near hills, on the boundaries of Stinking Water Creek, and the Big Horn Hot Springs (Cody) are in sight from the Big Horn River.

This is a very fine country, the banner county of Wyoming so far as agricultural products are concerned, the cities in Sheridan county are growing, there is more water for irrigating purposes than in any other part of the State. The altitude ranges from 3,000 to 5,000 feet, and the climate is very mild, the winters are very mild. Cattle and horses do well here on the ranges, and the cattle and horses from Canada or West river. A Gentiles of the Gray Ball, where the elevation of horses is very much greater than cattle, and it is quite too often of the poor horse! Cattle have wintered on this river, and winter more I have been here, six years. We very seldom have snow enough to keep the sleighing in order. Last winter was the exception, it did not come then until February.

The Saints are doing well, the people are very backward, although they are cutting grain upon the Big Horn, and some have made a little money out the second crop of hay.

Thanks to the editor of the "News" and to all who read the well book of the Big Horn, about this other work of where the Deer Ball empties into the Big Horn. It is twenty-two miles, a little north of west, from Hulk to Burlington, the town of Otto is five about half way between, and is on the Gray Ball river. Bridges Mont, is not yet established point as present, which is about the mine south of Burlington and so north of Stinking Water.

The "News" is a welcome visitor.

Any information the readers of the "News" desire in regard to this country will be cheerfully given by O. F. Woodruff, of this place.

UNIMPEACHABLE EVIDENCE.

A Minister of the Gospel For Thirty-eight Years, and Sixty Years a Sufferer From Catarrh, Endorses the Treatment That Cures.

THE REV. A. GOCKLEY.

715 S. Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, California. Read his statement, weigh his testimony, "Go ye and do likewise."

Rev. A. Gockley, who resides at 715 North Fair Oaks Avenue, Pasadena, Cal., offers grateful testimony to Drs. Shores' skill. Rev. Mr. Gockley is a minister of the United Evangelical Church, and has been preaching the gospel for thirty-eight years. He was the pastor of the Bloomington Church, at Harrison and Hoover Avenue, at Redondo and Wisconsin streets, Twenty-fifth and Union Avenue, Omaha, for very many years. Mr. Gockley says: "I have had Catarrh of the head and have suffered from it very bitterly. Deafness and a discharge of the ear for many years from catarrh on account of which I have lost my hearing almost entirely. I have been quite hard of hearing. I began treatment with the Shores, and as a result of his remarkable treatment my Catarrh trouble has gone and the discharge from the ear which has troubled me since childhood, is about stopped. There has been such a marked improvement in my hearing that everybody who knows me has noticed it. I desire to thoroughly endorse Drs. Shores' treatment and have recommended it to many friends. Drs. Shores have kept their word with me."

THE CATARRHAL CURSE.

Catarrh is so much a curse here in Salt Lake and vicinity and throughout the entire country of Florida. It is the air, dry as dust and stifling everywhere. Everyone is afraid of it, everybody is interested in it, and it is just as interesting to be cured from it as it is to be free from it. There are thousands of people today who have been miraculously cured of Catarrh in the Dakotas, as well as every northern or south ern state. Some years have elapsed since their cure, but in every instance they have received some lasting benefit, generally speaking, of curing, instead of multiply suffering and disease. In most instances the difficulty is increased by the fact that the catarrhal diseases their misery at the engaging the cause of them.

The fact is a majority of common chronic diseases, cough, fever or bronchial trouble, lung trouble, stomach trouble, etc., are traceable to a catarrhal origin and source. Every part of the mucous membrane—the nose, throat, eyes, ears, head, lungs, stomach, liver, bowels, bladder, kidneys—are subject to disease and trouble by catarrh. Most physicians have not the time to devote much to the study, or to the practical knowledge and skill to treat that is necessary to cure it. Drs. Shores have made a thorough study of catarrh in all its forms and have treated thousands of cases in the past seven years in this community, and the unanimous verdict of their patients is that DRS. SHORES CAN AND DO CURE CATARRH. If you want you do not want, an medicine free, for the trouble, and you can consult Drs. Shores free, whether you take treatment or not.
