SICHER ON TRIAL.

A Jury Empanneled and the Case For the Prosecution Is Opened.

THE TRIAL WILL LAST SOME DAYS.

Prosecuting Attorney Judd Hard On the Jurors—Pleas of Defendants —Judge Merritt's Division.

Judge Barich entered upon his week's work on Saturday by announcing his decision in the case of Fred C. Lyngberg, who was recently fined $50 and costs by Commissioner Pratt for having opium in his possession. The defendant appealed to the United States court, and on the hearing above two weeks ago the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Mr. Lyngberg's attorneys, on Saturday last, argued a motion in arrest of judgment, basing their application on alleged unconstitutionality of the law, and it was upon this that the court now passed. After setting forth his view of the matter in some detail, Judge Barich overruled the motion. While he did not, he said, desire to cast the slightest reflection upon the commissioner, he certainly thought that the allowance should have been made for the evidence which the defendant gave in locating the person from whom he purchased the fish, and hence this court regretted the penalty imposed as excessive. It was sometimes, however, a difficult matter to arrive at just what the punishment should be in certain cases. He thought that in this instance a fine of $10 and costs would meet the case, and to that amount the fine would now be reduced.

Attorney Keiss asked for and obtained a stay of fifteen days in which to file statement on motion for a new trial.

When court resumed at 2 o'clock the defendant took his seat immediately beside his counsel, Sicher is an inoffensive-looking fellow, apparently about thirty years of age, speaks broken English with difficulty, and does not appear to be much concerned over the serious position in which he is placed. Judging by the comparatively small attendance of spectators in court this afternoon, the case is not now exciting any considerable amount of public interest.

Deputy Clerk Loomis having read the indictment, charging murder in the first degree,

District Attorney Judd proceeded to make his opening address to the jury on the part of the prosecution. He said he expected to show that the deceased, who was known as "Joe" Muraso, and his brother, a shoemaker, who lives in this city, went about up to the place near where the killing occurred prospecting. This was not many days before the murder of Giuseppi Muraso. He was furnished with a gun-stake and given a paper notice to post upon the claim. He, however, failed to affix the notice there and upon the knowledge of this reached the Muraso they went up and did it themselves. On or about the Friday before the killing the accused demanded from the brothers an interest in the claim, but this was refused, the Muraso saying that he had no fight therein. The defendant was in a West Temple street saloon after that, and probably owing under the influence of liquor, used threats towards the Muraso. Counsel spoke of the visit of the deceased and another Italian named Figlioio, to the claim on the following Sunday morning, and said the defendant was also seen in the immediate vicinity of the claim. After Muraso and Figlioio had eaten breakfast on the ground Figlioio descended the hole by means of a rope, and in order to get out some of the rock for the purpose of having it tested. While Figlioio was out of sight Sicher advanced toward the claim, shoved into it Colosseqi and shot at him three times. When Figlioio heard the shots he jumped out of the whole and saw Sicher running down the hill as fast as he could travel. Colosseqi staggered a short distance and fell. He lived rather less than two hours after the shooting, but before he died made a statement which pointed to Sicher as the man who caused his death.

The accused reserved their statement for the present.

Dr. John S. Witcher was the first witness. He testified to having been at the penitentiary at the time of the tragedy and to going to the spot where the deceased men lay. There was a bullet wound in the back of the head and two other wounds in the region of the ribs and spine. Death resulted from both internal and external hemorrhage, as the result of the shot-lead.

To Attorney Stephens witness said when he removed the spot on found the deceased lying about 107 steps from the claim.

Dr. C. O. Plummer, who was present at the postmortem examination upon the body of the deceased, testified to the nature of the wounds received by Muraso.

The hearing was in progress when the News reporter left.

CALLED UP TO PLEAD.

Several defendants who were arraigned on Saturday were this morning brought into court to plead. They were as follows:

Willis Coltrans, a youth, plead not guilty to a charge of burglarizing the baggage room at the Templeton hotel, on September 17th. J. H. Murphy is his attorney.

Lena Carter, the "generally" daughter, plead not guilty to a charge of fornication.

So did Hugh McKernan and Wm. Leatham, as well as to a charge of robbing a Chinaman. The facts in these cases were stated in Saturday's NEWS.

Nellie Davis, the young colored woman, plead not guilty to a charge of stealing $21, the money of Mark Tobias, Attorney J. W. Cherry was appointed to defend.

J. C. Williams plead not guilty to a charge of burglary at the storeroom of Morris R. Evans. Attorney J. H. Hurd will defend.

In the case of Wm. M. Henderson, the youth who forcibly entered the residence of J. R. Walden and stole a pair of boots, the prosecution now consented to accept a plea of guilty to petit larceny, "but of course," interjected Judge Howat, "I suppose the Court will give him the maximum penalty allowed for that offense." The defendant was ordered to come up for sentence tomorrow morning, but District Attorney Judd suggested that the expense of bringing him down again might be avoided by the passing of sentence now. Already, he observed, the costs to the territory in criminal matters had been very heavy.

Judge Barich immediately gave the defendant six months in the county jail—the heaviest penalty allowed by law for petit larceny.

W. S. Peagle was arraigned on a charge of cheating $1.75, the money of A. H. Page, in whose service he was acting as agent. He was directed to come up to plead tomorrow morning. The offense is alleged to have been committed on August 31st.

Before Judge Merritt.

In the case of Warren Barnhart vs Canal Fairy on or or was made allowing the defendant to enter exceptions to the ruling of the court on the 27th inst.

In the suit of Ingram vs James a decree of foreclosure was entered.

The U. S. Marshal made a return of fifteen petit jurors summoned as special venire. Three of them, viz., E. P. Newell, Angus M. Cannon Jr., and M. Morris were excused for good cause. The remaining twelve were Isaac B. Hardcastle, Jos. F. Pomeroy, Thos. Vernard, Thos. Quist, John Gaisbull, S. J. Overhold, George W. Watson, H. A. Fyfer, J. M. Turner, L. Cohen, M. Nacco, and Jos. D. Spencer. The reason for issuance of this special venire was that all the jurors on the regular panel were required in Judge Barich's court to draw from on the trial of Modesto Sicher.

OVER A NOTE.

The first case called for trial was that of Frank Haugh et al vs. Simon W. Sheldon et al. Attorney W. C. Hall appeared for the plaintiff; Judge Henderson for the defendants. It was a suit to recover $1,500 on a promissory note. The plaintiffs are in partnership under the firm name of Haugh & Paxton.

The jury found for the plaintiff for the amount claimed and interest, bringing the whole up to $2,077.50.

CONSIDERATION PROBLEMATIC.

The only other case on today's call was that of the Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway company vs Wells & Shaw condemnation. Attorney Critchlow for the plaintiffs, Attorney L. Grant Young for the defendants. This is a condemnation proceeding, wherein the plaintiff company seeks to have a decree of the court adjudging a certain strip of land in the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 21, township 1 north, range 1 west, condemned for its use, for the construction and operation of its railroad between this city and Farmington, Davis county, Utah, after the assessment and payment of damages accruing to defendants thereby.

THE SICHER MURDER CASE.

Contrary to general expectation, the trial of the young Austrian, Modesto Sicher, on a charge of willfully murdering Giuseppi Muraso, an Italian, in Petty's canyon, on September 23rd of the present year, began in Judge Barich's court this morning at the conclusion of general business.

It will be remembered that on Saturday last Attorney Frank H. Stephens made application for a continuance owing to his inability to find a couple of important witnesses whom he intended to call to testify in the accused's behalf; but as sentence was the court had no unnecessary delay should ensue, that he observed jeeling upon the motion until today, and it was understood that in the meantime the defendant's attorneys should use every possible effort to reach the absent witnesses.

It having been announced just before seven a.m. today that both sides were ready, the empaneling of a jury was taken in hand very shortly afterwards.

The accused being impecunious, Judge Barich a few weeks ago appointed Attorney John Lee Taylor to defend him, but that gentleman having withdrawn because of the refusal of the court to grant an extension of time, Attorney Stephens (a former U. S. assistant district attorney for Utah) was chosen to take Mr. Taylor's place. Associated with him in the management of the defense is Attorney Benner X. Smith.

The prosecution up to the time a jury had been secured—12:30—was represented by District Attorney Judd and Assistant District Attorney Howat, to the latter of whom was assigned the task of examination. This done with, Assistant Richards took his place as Judge Judd's associate.

The jury, as finally selected, stands as follows: James Eagar, J. H. Miller, A. R. Carter, J. A. Smith, J. S. Duncan, Chas. H. Spencer, W. H. Evans, R. T. Burton Jr., First Ward, Davis Thomas, Thos. E. Harris and L. Cohen. Two of these gentlemen served as jurors upon the trial of Charles Thiele.

Before court adjourned for the noon recess Judge Barich pledged the jurors not to discuss the subject matter of the trial among themselves and stated that they might be furnished with copies of the local newspapers each day, but he called upon the jury in keeping would, however, first see that anything relating to this investigation was clipped out.

But District Attorney Judd promptly informed that he proposed to have all newspapers kept entirely from the jury during the progress of the trial, and the court, adopting the suggestion, so ordered.

Land Office.

The following filing was made in the local land office today:

John W. Price, of Miller, Salt Lake county, homestead entry of the east half of the northwest quarter, section 30, township 1 south, range 1 west, containing 80 acres.

Political Meetings.

Tonight in the Eighteenth ward hall, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Judge Henderson and Hon. F. S. Richards will speak to the people of the Fourth precinct. Mrs. John T. Caine is expected to preside.

Will Move After Electing.

The heads of the various departments of the city government are not in as great a city to get to to their new quarters as are the officers of the county. The former do not expect to move until after election.

Gold in barrels across the Atlantic "vessels" no matter how tightly it may be packed. It is usually sent in steel kegs and encased in as light as possible, but there is a great deal of money lost by attrition upon the voyage, and in the course of years this loss to the commercial world amounts to a large sum.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Oct. 28, 1894.

First District Court.

When court resumed room on Saturday afternoon, Attorney Wedgwood, of counsel for plaintiff in the case of Annie Butterworth vs John Bennett et al, stated that there was no doubt but the punishment had been drawn under a misapprehension of the facts, and that it would be impossible to get the facts in under the pleadings. He, therefore, would interpose no objections to the case being dismissed without prejudice. The court ordered the case dismissed and entered up the judgment.

This morning the following business was transacted:

In the case of Isaac Evans vs the Nebraska Fire Stock & Dairy Co., defendants' counsel interposed a demurrer to the amended complaint on the ground that plaintiff was barred by the statute of limitations from recovery for services contracted for January 1, 1892. No payment had been made, and the suit was filed September 25, 1894. The parties took the matter under advisement.

A jury was called in the case of C. J. Fields vs Peter Reed. Plaintiff sought to recover a horse and buggy, or damages, and did not appear, and a verdict for plaintiff in the amount of $105.55 was returned.

Samuel Westheimer & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., obtained a judgment against Wm. Cooley & Co., of Springfield, for $95.15.

The task now is come up was the case of Isaac Wolff vs J. R. Mitchell. Plaintiff sues for $1,000 for the alleged conversion of certain personal property in Provo, Utah, in 1892.

OTHER MATTERS.

Evidence in the divorce case of Hattie Walton vs. Joseph J. Walton was heard in part, and continued to November 8th. The parties live in Cleveland, Ohio, respectively.

A. D. Hollinger, of Vernal, was admitted to the bar.

Demurrer in the case of the United States vs. Bridget Alfred, unlawful cohabitation, was continued to November 5th.

Notes and Personal.

Judge Henderson will speak on Democracy at the opera house tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley's 15-month-old son Arnold died at 12:30 o'clock this morning. The infant has been suffering for some time from spinal trouble.

Robert Taylor, aged 21, and Anie Snow, aged 18, both of Provo, and Wm. Coolidge, aged 23, of West Jordan, and Sophia Johnson, aged 21, of Provo, have taken out marriage licenses.

A Republican rally was held Saturday night. After the business meeting a goodly number of the faithful, and a large audience gathered in the opera house, and where speeches were made by Messrs. George F. Gudgen and Judge Henderson.

The Utah County Teachers' association held an interesting meeting last Saturday. There was a good attendance and important educational questions were profitably discussed. At the next meeting, November 10th, Dr. J. E. Talmage will lecture before the association.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. McKeen left their home in Provo bench to attend the Republican rally in this city. When they returned they found their house destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at about $3,000. Some of the furniture has been saved by the neighbors who were busily doing it. There was $1,000 insurance on the house and furniture carried by the Continental Insurance company.

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substances. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mamas have expressed unto me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the time is not far distant when mothers will consider the health interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the concoctions of quack nostrums that are destroying their loved ones, by feeding opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other baneful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
1057 Pacific St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our experience in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have several months supplying Castoria, we find its merits produce, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
