

LUSCIOUS FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Imposing Array of the Products
Of the Soil at the State Fair.

BEST QUALITY YET SHOWN.

Object Lesson in What Utah Can Produce Under Irrigation and on Dry Farms Generally.

The irrigated, semi-arid and even the desert lands of Utah have this year produced as fine a collection of fruits and vegetables as ever graced the boards of a state fair, and the imposing array is on exhibit in the agricultural building at the inland Empire exposition. Farmers who have attended the state fairs for years say that this exhibit is not quite as large as some of those at fairs in past years, but in considering the matter of quality and diverse interest, it surpasses any similar exhibit in the history of the state.

The system of judging has been radically changed. Under the new arrangements, every exhibitor picks out half dozen specimens of his best display and these are placed on a pedestal which is put on a big table. Thus the juries are able to make closer comparison between the entries as they can see better the fruit over as the exhibits stand side by side instead of being compelled to walk around the building, taking notes on the competition as in former years. This new system greatly expedites the judging, and is considered a great improvement.

William R. Wright of Centerville shows one of the finest and most attractive exhibits, including all kinds of farm products, grapes, peaches and apples.

APPLES FROM GRANGER.

L. Hemenway of Granger exhibit various fruits, including apples, pears and plums. His apples are as fine as ever tickled palate, the following varieties being especially inviting: Blush Delicious, Golden Alexander, Winesap, Morden's Russet, Spitzberg, Talcum Sweet, Gano, Ben Davis, Pearmain and York Imperial. Hemenway's plums include the German, Hungarian, Flemmingburg, Gold Drop, Petites and Silvers. His Yellow Bell Flowers are dreams of beauty and flavor.

In the south end of the building, Blanding county has a splendid exhibit in a covered booth, including all kinds of farm products, grapes, peaches and apples.

GRANDEUR OF GRANGER.

L. Hemenway of Granger exhibit various fruits, including apples, pears and plums. His apples are as fine as ever tickled palate, the following varieties being especially inviting: Blush Delicious, Golden Alexander, Winesap, Morden's Russet, Spitzberg, Talcum Sweet, Gano, Ben Davis, Pearmain and York Imperial. Hemenway's plums include the German, Hungarian, Flemmingburg, Gold Drop, Petites and Silvers. His Yellow Bell Flowers are dreams of beauty and flavor.

Most of the farmers have combined their exhibits in association or county displays, and there are few individual exhibits. Most of the farmers of Utah county are represented by nine exhibits under the name of the Utah County Farmers' Association. Grapes are piled about its exhibit, which consists mainly of the finest apples and peaches.

One of the most interesting exhibits, which indicates how the young idea of Utah is being taught to plant and grow the various crops where none grew before, is the unique display made by Albert Wagstaff, 16 years of age, whose home is in Salt Lake City. This lad during the last summer has grown in his own garden some of the finest and largest vegetables which are seen in the agricultural building. He shows about 25 specimens and their products of a boy's industry, applied on his little home garden compare quite favorably with the exhibits of the great farmers. Albert Wagstaff is more than an ordinary youngster, and it is probable that the world will hear more of him in the future. A lad who can grow vegetables of such superior quality that they make the old farmers sit up and take notice is worth the watching.

BOXELDER AND CACHE.

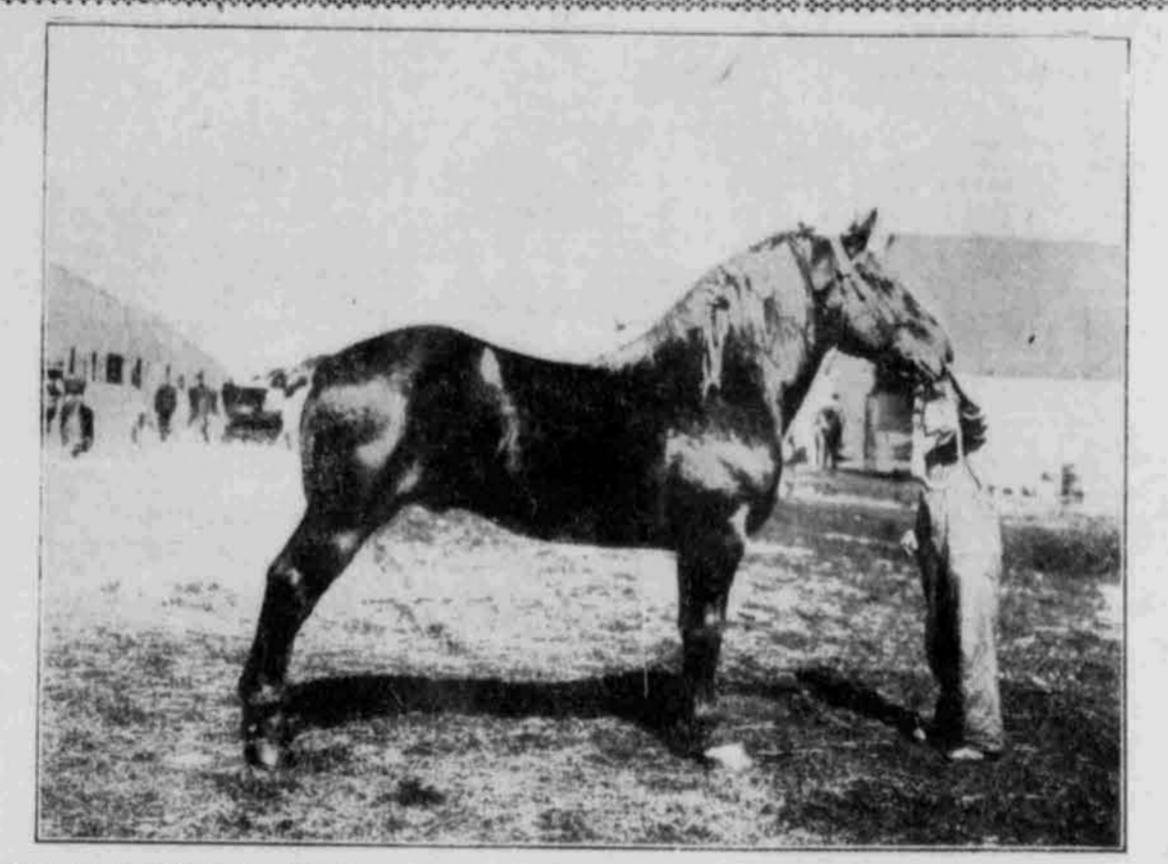

An exhibit of magnificent peaches is shown by the farmers of the Brigham district.

The Cache Fruit Growers' association has a grand display of Jonathan apples.

Experienced agriculturists say that the great state fairs of Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and other rich eastern farming states have never produced an exhibit like this that could beat six enormous squashes, weighing 1,770 pounds, shown by D. C. Briggs of Boxelder. These squashes make one of the sensations of the whole exposition. Mr. Briggs also displays superb corn, cabbage, carrots, onions, tomatoes, egg plant and other vegetables.

The Spafford-Livingston Investment company has an elegant and extensive exhibit of apples, plums, peaches, all kinds of vegetables, and various other agricultural products, grown on irrigated lands in the Gunnison valley of Utah. It is a meritorious and well-arranged display.

Grapes—
delicious, healthful—
give the most valuable ingredient, the active principle, to ROYAL Baking Powder
Insures wholesome and delicious food for every day in every home
NO ALUM

"GRANDIN," WINNER OF SWEEPSTAKES FIRST PRIZE OVER ALL AT THE STATE FAIR. THREE-YEAR-OLD PERCHERON, WEIGHT 1900 LBS.

ranged display and should attract numerous home-seekers to the Gunnison valley, where none grow before.

The farmers of Utah county are represented by nine exhibits under the name of the Utah County Farmers' Association. Grapes are piled about its exhibit, which consists mainly of the finest apples and peaches.

F. Spencer, Jr., of Provo, has a splendid display of apples, including Davis, Gano, Jonathan, and Rhode Island Greening.

One of the best collections of vegetables in the building is that shown by Louis Fayrer of Calder's station, in this county. His melons, squash, beets, peppers, pumpkins, cabbages and other truck are enough to make the spectator very hungry if he lingers long about the exhibit.

GROWN IN SALT LAKE.

N. P. Holm, who is what might be termed a "city farmer" in his raising of 145 acres of land in Salt Lake city, shows a beautiful display of the feeding varieties of mangold-wurzel, Golden Turnip, and Golden Globe, besides onions, white flint corn, sugar beets, blood beets, pumpkins, Hubbard squash, tomatoes, radishes and other truck.

On the east side of the agricultural building, George A. of Bountiful has an exhibit which includes every imaginable kind of vegetable that grows in this part of the country, all of high class. Maibey's display would be creditable one to represent the farming industry of the State of Utah, if it were chosen for such a purpose.

The William Roylance company shows Jonathan apples packed ready to ship, and the display was gotten up as a practical lesson to Utah orchardists, so that they may see just how apples should be packed for eastern shipments. J. Henay, a well known expert in that line from Grand Junction, who now lives with the William Roylance company here, did the packing, and it is a pretty piece of work.

The farmers in the Nephi district collaborated in getting up an exhibit of the truck grown in that section. Their exhibits of potatoes, beans, melons and wheat are among the best in the building, and have won the admiration of farmers from other parts of the state.

Among the side features of unusual interest is a big exhibit put up by the dairymen of Salt Lake City and environs. Demonstrations of different grades of butter are made before the spectators.

Another feature that attracts much attention is a magnificent display of fine dried fruits of every variety from St. George.

The Spaulding varies the monotony of strictly agricultural subjects by displaying meritorious collections of butterflies.

CENTER OF ATTRACTION.

Just outside of the agricultural building, George A. of Bountiful has an exhibit which includes every imaginable kind of vegetable that grows in this part of the country, all of high class. Maibey's display would be creditable one to represent the farming industry of the State of Utah, if it were chosen for such a purpose.

The William Roylance company shows Jonathan apples packed ready to ship, and the display was gotten up as a practical lesson to Utah orchardists, so that they may see just how apples should be packed for east-

Premium 2—Jonathan apples, best 30—Franklin Spencer, Jr., first; L. Hemenway, second; William F. Ferron, first; Cache Valley Fruit Growers' association, second; L. Hemenway, third; Delos apples—Otto Poulson, Provo, first; Baldwin apples—L. Hemenway, Granger, first; Northern No. 2 apples—Bear River Valley Fruit Growers' association, first; Newton Pippin apples—L. Hemenway, first.

Premium 3—Largest apple, any variety—Franklin Spencer, Jr., Provo, first; J. H. Behnau, second.

Premium 4—Best pack of apples—Cache Valley Fruit Growers' association, Logan, first; George E. Cook, Provo, second; J. R. Stubbs, Provo, third.

Premium 5—A—Winesapse, L. Hemenway, first; Extra Sweet, Hooper, second; Bear River Valley Fruit Growers' association, third.

Premium 6—B—Peaches—George A. Lowe, Best plate of five, C. A. Jones, first; Heath peaches—Best plate of five, C. A. Jones, second; no first given.

Premium 7—A—Elberta peaches, single plate of five—D. C. Baker, Provo, first; C. A. Jones, North Ogden, second; N. J. Valentine, agent, Brigham City, third.

Premium 7—D—White Flame peaches—Best third, C. A. Jones, first.

Premium 8—largest peach, any variety—N. J. Valentine, agent, second; no first given.

Premium 10—best pack of peaches, one pound—Provo, first; N. J. Valentine, agent, second.

Premium 11—best 10 boxes Riberia peaches, C. A. Jones, Valentine, agent, Brigham City, first.

Premium 12—B—Honey de Anjou pears, best plate five, R. W. Breerton, Provo, first; L. Hinman, second; Lawrence pear, best plate five, Joseph E. Rhode Island, first; William H. Morris, first; Franklyn Spencer, Jr., second; Northwestern Greenings—L. Hemenway, first; Flemish Beauty pears, J. H. Behnau, first; L. Hemenway, Granger, second; C. A. Jones, third; P. Barry pears, L. Hemenway, second; no first given; Joseph E. Rhode Island, first.

Premium 13—best 20 Bartlett pears, L. Hemenway, first; Franklyn Spencer, Jr., second; Northwestern Greenings—L. Hemenway, first; Flemish Beauty pears, J. H. Behnau, first; L. Hemenway, Granger, second; C. A. Jones, third; P. Barry pears, L. Hemenway, second; no first given; Joseph E. Rhode Island, first.

Premium 14—best heavy after dinner? Tongue coated? Bitter taste? Complexion salves? Liver needs waking up? Does Rogues care bilious at

Premium 15—largest pear, any variety, 1

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The largest social affair of yesterday was the reception rendered the visitors attending the State Federation of Women's clubs, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Keith. The rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and flowers, the reception hall in the leaves and the top of the berries of the wild strawberries mingled with autumn leaves, and the drawing room in yellow chrysanthemums, while American beauty roses and red dahlias were in the dining room. A strong quartet stationed on the upper landing furnished delightful music and a number of charming vocal soloes were given by Mrs. C. C. Snyder. About 300 guests were present at the evening. An sisterhoods in the houses were Mrs. Byron Cummings of Salt Lake, Mrs. A. E. Cory of Ogden, Mrs. A. H. Talmage of Provo, Mrs. C. H. McMahon of Salt Lake, Mrs. A. R. Wooster of Park City, Miss Catherine Dougall of Springville, Mrs. Marc E. Allen of Park City, Mrs. Gould Biskley of Salt Lake, Mrs. Leonard Bailey of Salt Lake, Mrs. H. M. Barnes of Ogden, Mrs. E. E. Crawford of Mantle, Mrs. Charles Hatch of Heber city, Mrs. B. P. Porter of Ogden, Mrs. William Knodd of Springville, Mrs. E. O. Leatherwood of Salt Lake, Mrs. E. D. Miller of Salt Lake, Mrs. A. J. Gorham of Salt Lake and Mrs. H. Peabody of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Ed P. Kimball was hostess yesterday at a delightful shower party given in honor of Miss Naomi Van Dyke an October bride, the room being decorated with cupids and strings of red hearts. The dining room was especially pretty with a basket of flowers suspended from the chandelier, and streamers of ribbon suspended from a ring attached to it and brought to the four corners of the table. The table was present.

Last night Miss Van Dyke was surprised at her home on north State street where a number of her friends gathered and spent a delightful evening.

Miss Vesta Hecht will be guest of honor at a card party on Thursday Oct. 21st, to be given by the Misses Viola and Mignon Denhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohn have returned from an eastern trip.

Mrs. Joseph E. Burbidge entertained at a "Froowow" Monday last in honor of her brother Charles J. Parry, who left Wednesday for England. A number of musical selections were rendered after which light refreshments were served. The guest numbered twenty-five and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Freeman Bassett entertained yesterday at her home Miss Gertrude Campbell, the parlors being in sunflowers and nasturtiums, and pink and white cosmos used in the dining room, the table having a centerpiece of the flowers and streamers of pink and white ribbon extending from the chandelier to the corners. Prizes were won by Miss Campbell and Mrs. Morris Forbes.

The Misses Claudia and Rose Morris entertained a few friends informally at their home yesterday afternoon.

Miss Minette Baer gave an informal party yesterday for Miss Irene Morrison, one of the month's brides.

Mrs. Will Browne entertained at a tea yesterday, the rooms being decorated in pink dahlia and autumn leaves and bridge being the amusement, with four tables played.

Mrs. George Reed leaves next week for a visit with friends in St. Louis.

Miss Edith Werner gives a dinner this evening in honor of Miss Mamie Wheatey of Pioche.

Miss Jessie Hutchinson manual training instructor at the Grant school has returned from a few days absence. The excellent collection of manual training articles now on exhibition at the state fair was executed under the direction of Miss Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman McBride left last evening for another year's stay in Chicago. While away Mr. McBride will pursue his professional studies.

Premium 22, best collection of quinces, Joseph T. Atkins, first; Joseph E. Booth, second.

Premium 23, best collection of figs, Joseph T. Atkins, first.

Premium 24, best display of fruits of all kinds, L. Hemenway, Granger, first.

Premium 25, best display of fruits of all kinds, need not be grown by exhibitor, Ray V. Winter, Provo, first.

Premium 26, best quality and greatest variety of sweet cherries in glass bottles, W. O. Knudson, first; Amelia C. Price, 1910 Tent East, second.

Premium 27, best jars, pectins, jam, preserves, Minnie B. Ridder, 54 west South Temple, first; William O. Knudson, second; Amelia C. Pierce, third.

Premium 28, best five jars of apricots, William O. Knudson, first; Amelia C. Pierce, second.

Premium 29, best quality and variety of small fruits in jars, Minnie B. Ridder, first; Amelia C. Pierce, second; William O. Knudson, third.

Premium 30, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 31, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 32, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 33, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 34, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 35, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 36, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 37, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 38, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 39, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 40, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 41, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 42, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 43, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 44, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 45, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 46, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 47, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 48, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 49, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 50, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 51, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 52, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 53, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.

Premium 54, best dried fruits, Minnie B. Ridder, first; William O. Knudson, second; Joseph T. Atkins, third.