New Directory For Cache-Manager Cooper of R. L. Polk & Co., is busy getting out the new directory for Cache valley and Legan city. It will he out next week:

Old Ties Uncarthed-In clearing up the Shert Line station raids this week, laborers uncarthed at the depth of three feet, iten hald in 1869 when the igh Central was first built from fair state of preservation.

B. H. Roberts to Speak-Hon, B. B. H. Roberts to Speak—Hon. B.
H. Roberts will speak tomorrow at 6 p. m., in the Twenty-first ward meetinghouse, on "The Age of Faith—the Twentieth Century," under the auspices of the M. I. A. Owing to the reputation of Mr. Roberts as speaker, there ought to be a large attendance,
for the talk is sure to be of interest.

Hoo Hoos to Concatenate-A has been issued for the annual Con-catenation of "Hoo Hoos," by "Chie Tom Cat", B. Y. Smith of this city Tom Cat' - E. 'Y. Smith of this city, to be held in Salt Lake Oct. 4, next. The Order of "Hoo Hoos" is reculiar to the lumber trade, and this meeting will be attended by retail lumber dealers from all over the state, A banquet at one of the hotels concludes the convention.

Car Men Coming-The Massachusetts delegation, 50 strong, to the annual convention at Denver of the Street Railway association, will journey west after adjournment, arriving in this city, Oct. 10. The Utah Light & Railway company will act as host of the occasion, escorting the Yankees from the state of sacred codfish about in special cars, and out to with an organ recital at the

Takes the Jail Cure—J. Smith who as caught leaving the room of Mrs. Stipley at the Eik hotel with several stolen articles in his pleaded guilty before Judge Bowman pesterdey afternoon to a charge of petty larceny and was sentenced to 60 days in the city jall. Smith ex-pressed the opinion that a jail sen-tence would do him good, as it might help him to get a firmer seat on the water wagon.

Till-Tapper Caught-J. Cronin cared more fer a glimpee into a cash regis ter than a sight of the president, bu ter than a sight of the president, but unfortunately for him Detective Harry Curran wasn't watching the president either. While the president's party was on its way through the city the proprietor and occupants of the ice cream parior at 557 west Second South street stepped to the sidewalk to see the parade, Just then Cronin Silpped into the store and Cronin slipped into the store and began rifling the cash register. Detective Curran who had been watching Cronin went in after him and caught him in the act of taking the contents of the money drawer.

MISMATED WIVES ASK FOR FREEDOM

Mrs. Hartman Says Husband Refused to Furnish Her With Clothing.

Mrs. Emma Hartman seeks a divorce from Frederick D. Hartman, in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third dis trict court in which she charges him with extreme cruelty and threatening to kill her. For the last four years, she says, he has refused to buy her clothing or furnish her medical attention, or a nurse when her last child was born. Hartman has also attempted to take the children out of the state, she declares, and she asks for their custody, suitable alimony and attor-

Hartman has $100 in the bank, it is sald, and Mrs. Hartman has secured a restraining order prohibiting him from drawing it out of the bank. They were married in Salt Lake City Aug.
