LEADVILLE TROUBLE.

The Governor Asked to Declare Martial Law at Once.

THE CITIZENS GREATLY ALARMED.

Funeral of Jerry O'Keefe—Saloons Allowed to Open Again—Militia on Guard.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 22.—The city council held a special session today, at which a committee of citizens appeared and asked that all vagrants and suspicious characters be driven from the city. The council postponed action until the regular session this evening, when it was decided not to take such action, but instead to ask the governor to declare martial law at once, which was officially done tonight.

The funeral of Jerry O'Keefe, the murdered Bremen, will occur tomorrow in an imposing mode at the city's expense. It is expected that the longest procession in the history of Leadville will follow the remains to the cemetery.

The council decided to allow the saloons to reopen tomorrow morning.

There is grave fear on all sides that unless martial law is at once declared serious acts of violence will occur. It is known that more than 500 new model Winchesters are in possession of the riots, as well as large supplies of dynamite, and the cooler heads here are gravely troubled over this fact. Every unusual sound creates alarm, and with the majority it is not a question of probability, but a most intense anxiety to know at what point or points the undoubtedly contemplated trouble will occur.

Gen. Brooks is on the alert and has his troops well placed and capable of quick concentration, but this has little effect in staying apprehension.

President Ammons of the Miners' Union was disappeared. Secretary Dwyer, whose wife says he has not been at home since last Saturday, was in the city yesterday.

AT BALMORAL.

The Czar and Czarina the Guests of the Queen.

BALLATER, Sept. 22.—The queen's special train bearing the czar and czarina and the members of the English royal family arrived here at 7:45 o'clock this evening. After the formal reception by the municipal authorities, the czar and czarina entered an open state carriage and, escorted by the Seots Greys, drove to Balmoral.

As the imperial guests started on their way the first bonfire was lighted in the mountain peak. Arrived at the entrance of the castle grounds at Balmoral, the escorts of the castle and the Ballater and Crathie Volunteers led the procession of carriages with flaming torches. Three other bonfires on the adjoining peaks illuminated the mountain side with a glare of light.

The queen and Princess Beatrice received their imperial guests at the door of the castle, and the warmest greetings were exchanged, the happiest sensations sounding a shrill welcome and the torches carried by the servants were thrust high in the air, accompanied by loud cheering of all the adelandals.

IMPORTANT DISPATCHES.

Sent From London to Constantinople by a Special Messenger.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A queen's messenger starts for Constantinople from this city tonight with important dispatches. It is believed that they are the result of the reports of Mr. Michael Herbert, who acted as British charge d'affaires in Constantinople in the absence of Lord Salisbury at the British ambassador.

Mr. Herbert, who is now in London, had a long conference with Lord Salisbury last night.

The Chronicle this morning prints a long letter from Mr. Gladstone, in which he eloquently appeals to the European powers to assist in the Armenian, advocating a convention similar to that expected in Egypt and Bulgaria offices, that either France or Russia will hinder the cause of Armenia against the great powers who for more than a year has triumphed over the diplomacy of the six powers. Tony in truth have been prominent in his last. There is no parallel in history to the humiliation they have so patiently borne.

BRYAN IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Mr. Bryan was greeted in Philadelphia tonight by a crowd which, according to the police and other authorities, exceeded any outpouring of the people on a similar occasion in the history of the city. He spoke at the Academy of Music, which has a seating capacity of about 3,000. Every available inch in the house was occupied two hours before Mr. Bryan arrived, and experts estimated the audience at nearly 5,000. Gathered in the street outside of the academy were fully 25,000 people, who stood patiently until 10:30 hoping to see or hear the candidate. The crush was something awful. Many of those who succeeded in getting inside the academy had their clothing almost torn from them. Many cases of more or less injury were reported, one man with a broken arm being taken to the hospital. Hundreds of police were powerless to keep the crowds in check.

Mr. Bryan made his headquarters at the Lafayette hotel, two blocks above the academy, on Broad street. In front of the place over 8,000 people gathered, desirous of getting at least a glimpse of the distinguished visitor, since it was not possible for Mr. Bryan to make his way down Broad street to the academy in his carriage, he was conducted through the basement and kitchen of the hotel and out the rear door to a side street, which he walked to the academy. He managed to make his way to the stage entrance and got inside after an experience with the crowd that he will long remember. When he appeared on the stage, his reception was tumultuous, the cheering continuing several minutes. He said in part:

The gold standard papers ask why I came to Pennsylvania. I have nothing to conceal. I will tell you why I come. I came first to secure if possible the electoral vote of the state. If you decry that, if you will not give me that vote, if you are defeated in this campaign, then I came upon another mission, and that is to tell the people of Pennsylvania that the agitation for free coinage will never cease in this country until the gold standard is driven back to England.

They say the cross is dying out. I care not what they call the silver cause; you may apply to it such epithets as you will, but I know the silver cause will not die, because truth never dies. (Applause).

You ask me why I know that this cause is so true? I can give you many good reasons; but one reason is sufficient, that every enemy to good government is against free silver. You ask how a cause so you can know an individual by the company it keeps.

One of the papers said that I looked dignity. I would rather have it said that I looked dignity than that I looked cowardly. I would rather have the sympathy of the people who are the result of the repeal of Mr. Michael Herbert, who acted as British charge d'affaires in Constantinople in the absence of Lord Salisbury at the British ambassador.

Mr. Herbert, who is now in London, had a long conference with Lord Salisbury last night.

The Chronicle this morning prints a long letter from Mr. Gladstone, in which he eloquently appeals to the European powers to assist in the Armenian, advocating a convention similar to that expected in Egypt and Bulgaria offices, that either France or Russia will hinder the cause of Armenia against the great powers who for more than a year has triumphed over the diplomacy of the six powers. Tony in truth have been prominent in his last. There is no parallel in history to the humiliation they have so patiently borne.

THE TRACHER FIGHT.

Senator Hill Appears and Receives a Reprimand.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The Democratic state executive committee held a long and heated meeting at the Hoffman house last night (Tuesday). A sensation was created by the appearance of Senator Hill, who arrived from Albany late, wearing a pony. In the contested case the Hill men were seated on a vote of 18 to 13. It was very nearly 11 o'clock when the chairman Joel Boyd Thacher, the nominee for governor, was precipitated by the reading of his letter addressed to Charles Emmerich and stating his position. The reading of the document was listened to very attentively, and then John Sheehan immediately engaged in a wrangle upon the question of the acceptance of the letter to resign his nomination. In an instant there was a tumult, a dozen members striving to speak at once. Mr. Sheehan declared that Mr. Thacher could have given his views upon the financial question before the convention, but he intended to be honest. He asked Hill from the floor. For forty minutes he held the attention of his audience, skillfully avoiding any reference to his own views upon the enforcement of the ticket or platform of the Chicago convention, but basing his whole argument upon the ground that a candidate for governor should be a strong man upon state issues, and that there was no need of forcing national issues into the state campaign.

State Senator Grady replied, bitterly excoriating Mr. Thacher. The resolution was read again and Senator Hill again spoke at length, attacking the Chicago platform.

Then Mr. Hill went a little farther. His voice was husky and he evidently was exposed with his effort, but he still addressed the platform.

"There is altogether too much Population in the platform. Every member of the committee is entitled to an opinion upon the platform, but the party knows this. Do you want to whip them out in the meadow? You would whip Thacher out? If you do you will be beaten. Don't do it. If we go down, let us go down with our colors flying and our leaders at our head."

It was after midnight when he concluded with an attack on the free coinage clause, and Senator Grady began his rejoinder. Senator Hill in all made six speeches. There were a number of amendments proposed. They were all withdrawn and a substitute was adopted. It followed:

"Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to notify the candidates upon the state ticket of their nomination, and that such committee report back to the committee at a meeting to be held on Monday evening, September 28th, the result of its action."

This is construed as a move to this over matters until after the Brooklyn conference of the gold men on Thursday. It is believed Mr. Thacher will continue in the ticket.

DESTRUCTION IN JAPAN.

Conflagration, Storms, Floods and Earthquakes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—The city of Kobe, Japan, was wiped out by a disastrous conflagration on August 28, and floods, storms and earthquakes caused the loss of thousands of lives and the destruction of millions of dollars' worth of property in Northern Japan.

The steamer Doric, from the Orient, brings news of a series of misfortunes that have befallen the Mikado's realm that are unprecedented in its history. In Gifu prefecture 4,000 people were blown down, and about 10,000 lost their lives.

The great flood was preceded by a severe earthquake. Then followed such a downpour as has never before been experienced on the island. The European residents were panic stricken and sought shelter on the highlands.

The Mississippi overflowed its banks at midnight of the 28th all, and the waters inundated Kanoki and Bilb, sweeping away 200 houses and drowning 200 people at Kate. After twelve hours' work the broken embankments were repaired by sandbags. To make the fate of Kobe worse, a fire broke out late in the evening and fanned by the high wind spread over the entire city. One thousand nine hundred blocks, including 2,000 houses and twelve godowns, were destroyed totally.

On September 1st, in Rikugo district a terrible series of earthquakes shook the country. Nine towns were killed there and more than forty at Hakiyo, Sinoya, Tagasaki, Yorkosaki, Y-kosawa, Nagasaki, Sakuma and Fujoi, where the disaster was especially great. The hills at Sinoya cracked. Fires broke out here and there. Water broke out in many places and rumblings continue.

At Obosai eleven persons were killed.

At Rokugo the people killed number more than twenty, and houses overturned about 1,000.

A very great at Hizuma capsized and twenty Japanese and whites lost their lives.

[More Italian Skirmishes in the Levant.

ROME, Sept. 22.—The Tribuna says that the whole of Italy's active squadron now possibly be dispatched to the east in addition to the flying squadron already ordered to the Levant.

OVERCOAT SEASON IS HERE!

You are not going to push that overcoat through another season, are you? No need of it when you can come here and get one so cheap—our goods this season excel anything we have ever offered in former years—and the prices are much lower. Just to start the overcoat season—we will offer as a leader, Men's heavy blue kiock Beaver Overcoats, extra wide velvet collar, double stitched throughout, good farmers satin lining, worth $12.00, at
