ADJACENT CITIES.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JULY 11, 1893.

NEWS Bureau at 2054 Washington Ave., where arrangements for subscription or advertising can be made.

The News is delivered to agents at such and so on sale at the Stands, on all trains and at all hotels.

Other Failures.

Yesterday was a veritable "black Friday" (coming on Monday this time) in Ogden. The announcement of the failure of the Commercial National bank to open its doors, on account "of the defalcation of the cashier," was followed by a limited number of other and smaller suspensions. Rumor had it that five houses had gone to the wall but this was found to be incorrect as only three mercantile firms and the bank closed.

Bill Arrested.

Oscar E. Hill, the defaulting cashier of the Commercial National bank was last night arrested by Deputy Marshal Eaum, on the charge of embezzlement preferred by J. C. Armstrong president of the bank. In the absence of bonds of $20,000, fixed by Commissioner Gideon, Hill was held by Deputy Eaum. The defalcation is variously estimated at from $45,000 to $75,000. The real amount will not be known until the bank hears from all its correspondents, as the books do not give reliable information having been badly "doctored" by the wily cashier.

All Serene.

The other banks of the city are not affected by the collapse of the Commercial and everything is calm and serene as could be wished.

Assignment Items.

The assets of W. Harcombe & Co. are given by assignee Mateon as about $140,000, while the liabilities will not exceed $75,000. The preferred creditors are:

George Scripps	$[illegible]
Mina Harcombe	[illegible]
James Mitchell	[illegible]
Chauncey Rich	[illegible]
Jno. Somerville & Son	[illegible]

Local creditors will be paid in full and possibly eastern ones will not lose much.

Last night at 7:30 Messrs. Mateon and Barnes, wholesale fruit and produce dealers, put out a small card bearing the following inscription: "F. P. Bryan, assignee." Slow collections was said to be the cause of the assignment. The assets are placed at from $35,000 to $38,000, while the liabilities will not reach beyond one-half that amount.

It Was a Fire.

The fire department was called out last night to a small blaze in the Richelieu saloon, but the good work of the boys soon extinguished it with but little loss to the owners of the building and contents.

Adams on Trial.

The examination of Robert Adams commenced yesterday before Commissioner Hulenski on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Margaret Ree on the evening of July 4th. But little was brought forth for or against the defendant. An adjournment was taken until this evening at 7:30, when it is expected the preliminary hearing will be ended.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JULY 11, 1893.

CITY COUNCIL.

Salaries of Municipal Officers Fixed for the Year.

A session of the City Council was held last night and the following business transacted:

The mayor appointed and the council confirmed John Snyder, H. G. W. nightwatchman, as special policeman; no city salary.

A salary ordinance was submitted by Mr. Farrer of the county commission on ordinances. Officers salaries were established as follows:

Mayor, $300 per annum.

Commissioner, $1 per counsel session and thirty cents per hour for committee work.

Recorder, $900 per annum.

Treasurer, $150 per annum.

Marshal, $900 per annum.

Attorney, $400 per annum.

Justice of the peace, $400 per annum.

Watermaster, $60 per month, and street supervisor, $60 per month, provided that where the two offices are combined the salary shall be $70 per month.

Pondkeeper, $10 per month.

Superintendent of waterworks $65 per month.

The sexton, surveyor, sealer of weights and measures, building inspector, scavenger and dog tax collector receive fees.

A Water Suit.

An irrigation case which will probably occupy several days, was commenced yesterday before Judge Smith. The case is the North Bench (Lehi) Irrigation company vs the Alpine Irrigation company. The plaintiff company claims that it has been since 1877 and is now entitled to one-thirteenth of the water of Dry Creek during the months of April, May and June, and one-fourth of the water at all other times of the year, and a decree in accordance with this claim is asked for.

The defendant company claims that it has been since 1880 and is entitled to all the water of Dry Creek during the months of July, August and September and one-half of the water during the other part of the year, the Lehi Irrigating company being entitled to the remaining half, and prays for a decree in accordance therewith.

A large number of witnesses are in attendance.

Notes and Personals.

The dry goods store of Hathenbruce & Co. was closed up yesterday by Deputy Marshal Fowler on a number of attachments aggregating $1,000. Mr. Hathenbruce was out of the city with his store on wheels at the time. He returns today and it is possible that he may amicably adjust the matter with the creditors.

The Third ward Sunday school, with parents and friends, go to Prospect park on Thursday, and the Second ward Sunday school teachers go to Castilla on the same day.

A marriage license was yesterday issued to Charles M. Nelson of Pleasant Grove and Elizabeth A. Lowe of Alpine.

Mrs. Booth of Alpine, mother of Hon. John E. Booth of this city, is lying near death's door. It is not expected that life will continue another day.
