THE LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE.

The Legality of the Proceedings at Jacksonville to be Argued Before the Supreme Court.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 29.—The law and order league has decided to move actively for the principals, sides and agents in the Corbett-Mitchell fight.

The local agent of the league says they had the injunction granted by Judge Hall was an evasion of the statute.

They also have a copy of the statute which they will use in the supreme court.

The league will do so. The injunction was granted to prevent the league from holding a public meeting at the time of the exhibition on such grounds as to prevent the public from seeing the exhibition.

The league is determined to hold an exhibition on such grounds as to prevent the public from seeing the exhibition.
