FAMILY RECORDS.

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page acommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particlars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, time, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD,' with spaces for names, dates, birth death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

These Records are well printed and ruled on good ledger paper, substantially bound in full sheep, English roan, or Bock. We can furnish them of any size, from on to five quires, or larger, but probably five quires is as large as will be desired. We can also furnish the various forms in a record, proportioned to each other to order.

SOUL SAVING.

BY HATTIE TING GRISWOLD.

I am sick of the preacher's only strain,
Save your soul, save your soul, save your soul!
I am tired of hearing forever and aye,
This same old song from the pulpit ro'l.

It seems to me like a selfish cry,
This telling a man that the only thing
Of any importance here below,
Is saving himself from a future sting.

Far nobler, better, it seems to me
To tell a man to save some other,
To send him up and down through the world
Seeking and saving his fallen brother.

To put him off from the beaten track
Out into the hedges of sin and shame,
To teach and to tell to the captives there
The beauty and glory of Virtue's name.

To rescue the starving one from death,
To rescue the sinning one from crime,
To preach the gospel of Present Help
To the needy ones on the shores of time.

To seek out those whom the world forgets,
To plant a flower on a nameless grave,
To warm the erring one at the heart,
And strengthen it with a purpose brave.

To do to the little ones of God
The things the world does to the great,
To walk the world with a purpose grand,
And with eye on the final good to wait.

If a man does this I dare affirm
That he can afford to forego all care
About gaining heaven, and give his whole time
To the work of getting his neighbors there.

Watches Worth About $5 A Peck.

A gentleman of Quitman, Ga., lately received a notice headed "Prizes Drawn in the Forty-seventh Series of the Royal Havana Lottery." It was dated "Havana, Cuba," and read:

"Mr.——: You are hereby notified that your ticket in the Forty-seventh Series of the Royal Havana Lottery has drawn a gold watch and chain valued at $160. The commission due our agents, Messrs. Russell & Co., for transacting our business in the United States is ten per cent. on all prizes drawn, which makes the amount due on your prize $16, which you can pay to the express agent after you have examined the goods. On receipt of this notice write to Messrs. Russell & Co., 37 Bond Street, New York, and let them know by what express you wish the watch and chain shipped.

E. K. ESPETITELLTO, Actuary."

The Quitman gentleman never had a ticket in the Havana lottery, and, consequently, was at a loss to account for the receipt of this notice from the gentleman with the extraordinary name. With commendable zeal in the cause of truth, he sent the notice to the Sun for investigation, and, accordingly, a reporter for the Sun called at 37 Bond Street. On the plate-glass windows was painted, "Russell & Co., Manufacturers of Kingston Gold Watches and Jewelry." Within was a young man, with a foreign cast of countenance and a roving eye. He stood behind two large show cases laden with gaudy jewelry. He was talking earnestly to a countryman, and showing him watches and chains. Finally, the countryman received a neat box containing a watch and chain, and laid down $15. At the same time he took out a paper that was headed "Louisiana Lottery." After writing a receipt the countryman departed, a badly cheated man.

It was the reporter's turn next. He said, "A friend of mine in the south wished to inquire about a watch which this notice calls for."

The foreign young man took the notice and glanced sharply at the reporter, and presumably took in his gullelessness at a glance. He did not examine any books to ascertain whether the notice was regular, but immediately opened the show case and took out a watch.

"Is this worth $160?" was the reporter's inquiry.

"That is what the Havana Lottery Company estimate it at, but it is really worth only $60."

"Then your commission would be only $6."

"Oh, no; we receive ten per cent. of their estimate."

"Is this case gold?"

"No, it is Kingston metal, heavily plated."

The case is marked Ulys e Pelet, Locle, which seems peculiar if the case was, as the clerk said, made in this country. The reporter examined other watches, but was not suited. The watches are of a kind that can readily be bought for $6, and the chains for $1.25.—New York Sun.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

CentenniaL

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN

ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873 SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876,

and have thus been awarded highest honors at

Every World's Exposition!

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL; elegant new cases in great variety. Prices very lowest consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash on installments, or rented until rent pays. Every Organ warranted to give entire satisfaction to every reasonable purchaser or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ☞ ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.
