LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—There was a good house last evening, on the occasion of Miss Blanchard's benefit. The play, "Nannie or the Dutch Orphan's," with the exception of a little dragging, went off very satisfactorily. The beneficiare displayed great versatility of talent in the impersonation of the title role. Her lighting changes took immensely, eliciting a great deal of applause. Mr. Rankin, as "Jacob," gave evidence of considerable variety in his powers of imitation being remarkably good. Mr. Power's "George Schroeder" was a very natural and creditable imitation. The rest of the characters in the piece were well played by the company. The saw mill scene was a fine piece of mechanical effect. The same bill will be repeated to-night.

"CONSTITUTIONALIST" is trying hard to work up a war between Salt Lake City; and the strongest proof of the fact we have yet seen, is the willingness of its dodgers of a certain "special" to now disfigure and disgrace the walls of parts of the city.

If there Utah has been a very barren land for professionals of this class; in fact, though a few attempts have been made by those who live here, they have soon moved to "greener fields and pastures new." It is to be hoped, however, now, seeing that the "golden age" has dawned in Utah Territory that such harpies may thrive here. Where there carrion is there the vultures will be!

WHERE HAS IT BEEN?—We, this morning, received a letter, signed Isaac Harrison, dated West Jordan Ward, March 3d, and here's the 18th. West Jordan is eight or ten miles from this city, and the postal arrangements here are so excellent (?) that this letter has been as long coming that distance as it ought to have been travelling three thousand miles. Reconstruction was never more needed in the South than it is in Utah, so far as the mail service is concerned. The letter being so late, the publication of the information it contains is inadmissable.

THE NEW TELEGRAPH.—The following telegram was received yesterday afternoon, too late for publication:

CENTRAL CITY, Little Cottonwood Mines, March 17.

Deseret News.—Saint Patrick's Day, at noon. We have just opened a telegraph office here in A. Daft's store. The snow is not more than seven feet on the level, but any number of feet in the drifts. The distance to the nearest mines in Big Cottonwood is one and a half miles; to the lake three miles; to the nearest mines in American Fork, between three and four miles. John Clay, a very sick miner from American Fork, has just passed down on a sledge, drawn by six men. The people seem pleased with the extension of the telegraph facilities. Smelter's hotels and other improvements are going up in many places. Storms have been almost incessant, so as to stop hauling ores for days at a time. The brush most of the way is deep. Snows and continued storms have rendered the putting up of the line almost impossible; everything had to be done by men on foot, some using snow shoes. Snow slides are frequent and others are imminent.

The tariff from Salt Lake to Central City is fifty cents per message of ten words, and twenty cents for additional five words or fraction.

A. M. MUSSER.

REMEMBER OLD ROBERT.—Old Robert Carter, the veteran news-carrier and seller, is 74 years old to-day, and is extraordinarily active and vivacious for a man of his years. Robert is a punctual carrier, and, we have reason to believe, an honest as well as a polite and obliging dealer, hence we recommend him to the continued consideration of his patrons and the public generally. His place of business is on Second and Fifth South Streets.

CHICKEN CREEK.—Elder Edward Stevenson writes from Chicken Creek, on the 10th instant, that he and Elder Porter had preached in most of the settlements from St. George, and had found a good spirit prevailing among the people generally. Before leaving Dixie, he says: "We visited Santa Clara, where we found some of the best soil in all these settlements. We were shown land that has produced twenty crops in the past ten years, ten successive crops of wheat followed by ten crops of good corn. The land does much better than to lie idle and produce the second crop of weeds.

Returning from Santa Clara to St. George, five miles, we crossed a bed of old cinders of lava, varying some from a quarter of a mile in width and about twenty-five feet deep, and about eight miles in length, extending from the Santa Clara river, to a canon four miles, and thence up the canon four miles to Diamond Valley, where are several old spent volcanoes.

We saw some almond trees in bloom and apricots nearly out up the Rio Virgen river at Rockville, in February; lucerne, which is the prevailing hay drop, often being cut five times each season, quite green.

This river is astonishing in many respects, the water, often, during a heavy rain, changes its color in twenty minutes from a deep red to black, yellow or milky white, as the river passes over the high mountain and variously colored peaks that are so prevalent on this part of the small, but turbulent stream.

Elders Stevenson and Porter arrived in this city on Thursday evening, well and hearty. Their trip has lasted three days short of two months, during which they have preached one hundred and forty times, and traveled (in an open buggy) a thousand miles. They have visited the south and extreme eastern portion of the Territory; have been treated invariably with kindness and respect, and desire, through the News, to express their acknowledgements for the same.

CALLED.—We have received calls from, and had pleasant interviews with, several prominent gentlemen from various parts of the country, who are now in this city. Among them, Major Henry, Judge Spratt, and the Rev. E. N. Sautelle, D. D.. The last named gentleman brought a letter of introduction from a friend in San Francisco. He has been a great traveler in various parts of the world, and is making a very short stay in Salt Lake City, prior to the resumption of his journey East, on Monday, his destination being Saratoga, New York.

Major Henry is a great grand-son of the famous orator, of Revolutionary times, Patrick Henry; he is interested in mining operations in Utah, and intends to reside here for the present.

Judge Spratt called upon us accompanied by Dr. Fowler. He is from Montana, and has had a protracted residence and practice in that Territory; is well versed in mining laws, and in these exciting mining times, thinks there is a good field for the exercise of his profession in Salt Lake City. The Judge is a genial gentleman, and feels kindly towards the people of Salt Lake under the recollection of kindness and hospitality received at their hands during a period of affliction which detained him several weeks in this city, some seven or eight years ago.

MONTANA.—The Montana Herald of the 11th says: "Geo. Steel and Jo. Hill, in from Benton, report buffalo in large numbers north and west of the Missouri. They were several times compelled to stop their teams to allow immense herds of bison to clear the road in their advance. The people of Benton and Sun River, and the military post at Fort Shaw, are abundantly supplied with buffalo meat, and consequently the beef is in poor demand in all the lower community."

The same paper says: "Yesterday, at the Assay office of Chas. Rumley, we saw a very handsome gold bar, the result of the last ten days' run of the Blacker & Keating mill, Radersburg. The bar was 730 fine, and of the coin value of $0,668.27."

N. ABERTSON, Chief is a letter for you at the W. U. T. office. Call and get it.
