WONDERFUL MILES MADE BY TROTTERS

General Watts and Trampfast Established Some Remarkable Records.

A USEFUL TYPE OF HORSE.

Breeding Along Scientific Lines Has Brought About Great Development Speedy 2-Year-Olds.

The performances of the baby trotters will make the season of 1907 to be long remembered, and General Watts and Trampfast will be names that will go down in sight his was merely along with stars of the past. When General Watts, a 3-year-old, won the first heat of the Kentucky stakes in 2:08¾, at Lexington during the recent meeting he trotted the most wonderful mile of the year and one of the greatest miles in history. No other 3-year-old ever equaled this time, and the previous 3-year-old record, 2:09¾, held by the filly Fantasy, had stood for fourteen years until equaled by Kentucky Todd at Columbus a few weeks before General Watts made his mark. No other trotting stallion of any age has this year won a heat in as fast time as 2:09¾, and only a few stallions of any age have ever beaten this time in a race. That a 3-year-old should outdo aged horses in a trotting contest is much more remarkable than it would be were the contest for runners, for trotting is an artificial gait, requiring a great amount of training to acquire perfection.

BRED ON PRECOCIOUS LINES.

Breeding along scientific lines has brought about this early development. General Watts is a son of Axtell(1), 3-year-old record 2:18¾, he by Axtell, 3-year-old record 2:12, and the champion 3-year-old of his day. General Watts' dam is Carpet, 2:29, by Prodigal, 2:16, he by Pancoast, 2:20¾, he by Woodford Mambrino, 2:21¾. His second dam was by Wilton, 2:19¾, he by George Wilkes, 2:22. His third dam was by Hambletonian Mambrino, 2:34¾.

SPEEDY 3-YEAR-OLDS.

Trampfast's mile in 2:12¾ at Lexington, is the best on record for a 3-year-old in a race, beating every other performance of colt or filly save the 2:10¾ by Arion, in a trial against time late in the season over the Stockton kite-shaped track in 1891. The previous 3-year-old race record was held by Jane, he having won the second heat of a race at Readville, Mass., 2:11¾. Trampfast, the new champion 3-year-old, like General Watts, is bred on precocious lines. His sire, The Tramp, is a 13-year-old son of Jay Bird and a full brother of Jay Hawker, record 2:14 at 3 years, his dam being Serento by General Benfinel, 2:27½.

Band and broke up play after play almost as soon as they got started.

"The Cubs gained confidence after winning the game Wednesday, and especially did this apply to their work on the bases. And as the Cubs grew confident, the Tigers became depressed. It made it look as if Detroit was outclassed. There is no chance of hollering 'hard luck,' either. Four straight games shows that the Cubs had the best team.

"Slover's pitching was bad. He had no speed when he went into the box, and had little of anything else. It was awful. The Cubs had no trouble finding him, and they got after him hard. Killian was then put in, and he was much better. But it was too late. The Cubs had got their start, once clung to it. Mullin did well, but was unable to stop the dash of the Cubs. Their confidence won the day in both games. They went after him as if they knew that he could be beaten. And they succeeded in defeating him.

"Both teams batted fairly well, but the hits of the Cubs were better bunched. And, aided with superior base running, this was enough to win. The big batters of the Tigers did not hit as well as expected. They seemed to be held in check by the Cub pitchers. And in regard to these pitchers it must be said that they did some great playing.

"I saw Overall, Pfister and Reulbach pitch and they are all deserving of praise. All three held the Tigers from bunching to any extent, and fielded their positions well.

"And Johnny Kling was right there with the goods. The way he nipped off base stealers was magnificent. They seemed to be paralyzed with his method. He did just what the Tigers were not expecting.

"Schulte's throwing from right field was a big feature. It has not been often that Cobb has been caught at second while going from first on a safe hit. The speed of Cobb was caught in a double play.

"Johnny Evers' hitting was a powerful factor in the series, and he improved during the latter games in his fielding. All of the rest of the men, both Tigers and Cubs, did their best. The Cubs apparently had the best of the inside knowledge of the game while on the bases, and made the most of it. As I have said before, they were also greatly helped by the poor work of Detroit catchers."

ON THE RACE TRACK.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—At Emeryville today the weather was fair and the track fast. Sam Hildreth again saw one of his horses break a California record. It was a keen struggle throughout and when Mark Anthony refused Veil assumed the lead, but the daughter of Diablo had to be ridden off to beat Jenets. The latter closed like a shot. GERALDINE FARRAR

Denies She Made Statements Derogatory to American Music.

New York, Nov. 13.—Miss Geraldine Farrar, who returned to America today on the steamer Oceanic, denied vehemently that she made the statements derogatory to the American music loving public credited to her by a Berlin newspaper and cabled to this country.

Enrico Caruso, who is again to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, also arrived on the Oceanic from Liverpool.

Antonio Scotti, the baritone, and Madame Kirkby-Lunn, both of whom will sing at the Metropolitan this season, were also passengers on the Oceanic, as was Suzanne Adams, the singer who will appear in vaudeville.

CENTRAL AMERICAN PEACE CONFERENCE.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Final preliminary arrangements were made today by the Central American peace conference delegates for their meeting, which begins here tomorrow. These include the agreement of a set of rules and regulations for the government of the conference during its deliberations, and the selection of permanent officers.

As a courtesy to the United States and to Mexico, whose members at the conference are to act in an advisory capacity, it was decided to elect Secretary of State Root and Ignacio Mariscal, the minister of foreign affairs of Mexico, honorary presidents of the body.

Louis Anderson of Costa Rica will be the choice of the delegates for permanent president of the conference, and Salvador Rodriguez of Salvador and J. M. Machis of Nicaragua for permanent secretaries.

J. C. WILSON ARRESTED.

Charged With Using the Mails to Defraud.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 13.—J. C. Wilson, president of the Interstate Fiscal Agency company, agents for the Kansas City Life Insurance company in Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska, was arrested today on a United States warrant, sworn out by a postoffice inspector, charging Wilson with using the mails to defraud. The government officials allege that over $200,000 has been collected by the Kansas City Life Insurance company's Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska agents since last January. The formal charge against Wilson as president of the Interstate Fiscal Agency company is that he misrepresented facts to get business. Forty per cent per annum profits were asserted to be earned.

Wilson was taken before a United States commissioner, pleaded not guilty, and was released on $5,000 bail.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

Rep. Ransdell Wants $50,000,000 Annually for Them.

Lake Providence, La., Nov. 13.—An address urging harmony of all sections of the United States to the end of securing $50,000,000 annually from Congress for river and harbor improvements was issued today by Congressman J. E. Ransdell, president of the national rivers and harbors congress. Mr. Ransdell said:

"All projects in the Union now under contemplation, and which have been approved by the engineer's department, involve a cost of less than $500,000,000. At the rate of $50,000,000 a year all of them could be provided for in 10 years. It is questionable whether more than $5,000,000 a year can be expended wisely and that should be divided among a number of projects. I understand that a feeling of discord has been generated among waterway people. We who have good projects can safely rely upon their merits if a broad, liberal waterway policy is adopted."

POETS ARE DIFFERENT.

Some People Believe They Are All Alike—They Are Not.

There is a sort of idea in the public mind that the poet is what scientists call a "fixed genius"—that every poet is the exact counterpart of every other poet. There is probably no class of men in the world—if class it can be called—whose members differ more widely in personality.

Pope, for instance, was a miser. Dryden and Shelley seemed to have no use for money, and threw it about in the most insane fashion. Shakespeare was a keen man of business. His contemporaries, Marlowe and Massinger, did not leave enough to have their bodies decently buried.

Coming down to modern times, Tennyson was artistically the most delicate and fastidious of men. A misplaced comma, an epithet which was not the perfection of expression, gave him nights of insomnia. Yet he was, perhaps, the most utterly careless man of his generation regarding his personal appearance. Had he not been carefully watched by his devoted wife, he would have been quite content to wear a suit of clothes until it dropped off him bit by bit in obedience to the law of gravitation.

But, after all, poesy is a peculiar gift, and those who possess it are not to be judged by the standard of ordinary individuals.—Los Angeles Times.
