DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, - - March 14, 1894.

FRAGMENTS.

THE Territorial treasurer will assume the duties of his new office tomorrow, at which time Mr. Hamann will vacate in his favor.

THE Pioneer Democratic society last night followed in the wake of the [illegible] club by joining the federation of Democratic clubs. The [illegible] and Scandinavian societies come next.

THERE was a collision between a coal wagon and E. G. Hines's [illegible] delivery conveyance in an alley leading out to Second South street west of the Commercial block today. The latter vehicle came out of the [illegible] with one wheel wrenched off.

FORTY-THREE women of the town were arrested by the police last night and taken to the city hall, where they were assessed for their wrong doing. The [illegible] were mulcted in the sum of $[illegible] each while the inmates were only required to put up a forfeit of $[illegible] each. A number were without money and were compelled to pass the night in jail.

DUMPING PAUPERS HERE.

That Is the Unchristianlike Business Engaged in by Other Cities.

There was a little incident at Selectman Bamberger's office this morning which has had many counterparts in Salt Lake the last few weeks, and which proves beyond a question of doubt that this city is being unjustly dealt with by western commonwealths and communities. It also appears that certain railroads are taking part in that distribution in a manner indicating a well laid plan for the perpetration of the injustice.

The details of the case which came to light today are as follow: An old man, feeble and penniless, who stated that he was 71 years of age, called at Mr. Bamberger's office early this morning and applied for aid. In response to questions he said that he came from California; that he was given free transportation from that state to Ogden. On arriving at the latter city he stepped into the Union depot and was given a slip of paper by a man whom he supposed was the ticket agent. This he exhibited and on it appeared the words, "Knapp, March 11, [illegible] p. m."

When it is understood that the name of the general superintendent of the R. P., the road over which the old man reached Ogden, is Knapp, and that in presenting the scrap of paper instructions were also given the aged moneyless passenger to board the Rio Grande Western for this city where vast numbers of unemployed were being cared for by charitable organizations at the expense of the public, show the same to the conductor and come right along, it looks like there was an erroneous nigger in the wood pile somewhere that should be uncovered.

The old man obeyed instructions implicitly, he says, and last night got on the passenger train headed for this city. He says he presented the piece of paper with Mr. Knapp's name to the conductor. The latter accepted it without question as though he had got accustomed to that sort of thing and as if he knew all about it.

Great credit is due the good people of Salt Lake City in the philanthropic work they have done in giving food and employment to hundreds of unfortunate men and the news of their charitable deeds has been flashed all over the country. That being the case large numbers of [illegible] have headed this way. On their arrival, unwelcome and unasked as they were, the relief committee have not felt like allowing them to starve and scores of them have daily been fed at the soup house. It was strongly hoped that the end of that condition was near at hand, but with railroads [illegible] paupers here by carload lots there is much danger ahead.

It was the arrival of such a [illegible] from the [illegible] that is said to have prompted Mayor [illegible] of Ogden to issue the proclamation which appeared in last evening's News warning unemployed men to keep away from the [illegible] city for the reason that the charitable organizations had exhausted their resources. Salt Lake officials and citizens [illegible] no fault with that, but they do object to [illegible] their arms and [illegible] there is a [illegible] to [illegible] transients and paupers that Ogden or any other city may see fit to ship here. It is now thought that the entire California crew that arrived in Ogden last week are citizens of Salt Lake [illegible].

Another Failure.

Maria Haigh is seeking a divorce, in the Third district court, from Arthur Haigh, on the grounds of cruelty and failure to provide. The parties intermarried in 1877 and there are four children, whose ages range from four to sixteen years. The defendant is by trade a mason.

Wonderland.

A variety of amusement is offered by the Wonderland management for the week, and made up of capable artists of each branch of the vaudeville profession. In the theatorium the performance is opened by a sweet voiced cantatrice in the latest ballads of the day followed by Little Hetty, the midget song and dance artist, next the very funny and clever Dutch sketch team, then Eulalia, the personation of all that is graceful, artistic and talented, and finally the acrobatic performance of the team Arnold and Caswell, which by the way is new. Miss Caswell does a difficult acrobatic act in skirts. The whole performance from beginning to end is interesting, and you can put in an hour's time in enjoyment. A very strong program is announced for the week commencing Thursday, March 15, a special feature being the engagement of Prof. Hart and Miss Bessie, introducing the most extraordinary experiments in magic and their startling illusion entitled "Substitution."

Ignored by the Grand Jury.

In reference to the charge of larceny against Willie Cultrin and John Cultrin, the two boys who were alleged to have picked a lady's pocket some time ago in a local drug store, the grand jury having ignored the same the prosecution this morning, in Judge Merritt's court, moved for the defendants' release from custody, which was ordered.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Full Text of Two Vetoes Sent to the Council by the Mayor.

SOME APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

The City Fathers Reconsider their Action Regarding the Copper Flint Bonds—Other Matters.

All of the members of the City Council were present at last night's meeting. President [illegible] occupied the chair, and a large amount of business was transacted.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

Petitions and communications were received and referred to appropriate committees, as follows:

L. C. Trent and others asked that East Capitol street be graded.

G. J. Hutt and others offered $100 per year for the lease of the Standard gravel pits on the North Bench.

Mrs. Sarah Sullivan sent in a petition stating that she slipped, fell and injured herself while walking on First South street on February 21st, and asked that she be compensated.

John H. Smith and others protested against their [illegible] of the waters of [illegible]'s creek being allowed to run into the reservoir of the city [illegible], and asked that the water be divided at the head of the Kennedy ditch.

The Woman's Home asked that the $[illegible] per month appropriated them by the former Council be continued by the present Council.

E. D. [illegible] asked that $[illegible], paid by him on sewer extension, be refunded, as the improvement had not been made.

William Lampton and others asked that First North street, between Seventh and Ninth West streets, and Eighth West street, between North Temple and Second North streets be graded.

Recorder Bachman reported that he had published the notice of intention to sprinkle districts Nos. 1, 2 and 3, and had received protests from numerous persons, which were not sufficient, however, to defeat the intention.

The [illegible] company and others protested against the manner in which the contract for furnishing the joint city and county building with electric fixtures had been let.

The Salt Lake & Los Angeles Railway company asked for a franchise on South Temple street from the west side of Sixth West to the east side of Fourth West street and across the sidewalk on the south side of South Temple street into block 50, plat A, where the company desires to build a depot. Laid on the table temporarily.

VETO OF THE [illegible] ORDINANCE.

The following veto message from the Mayor was read:

I hereby return, disapproved, the bill entitled "An ordinance to regulate, license, restrain and prohibit [illegible], butchers and dealers in [illegible]," passed March [illegible], 1894, for the following reasons:

The third section provides that "any person or persons who shall sell or dispose of any fresh meats, beef, veal, pork, lamb or mutton, within said city, except as in the ordinance provided, shall be subject to the fine hereinafter mentioned."

The first section of this bill in effect, though not in express language, prohibits the sale of meat in the city by any person except such as may procure licenses. This is the only [illegible] contained in the bill on the subject of the sale of meat.

These sections, taken together, subject any person who shall sell meat which is the result of his own raising, without license, to the penalty of the fifth section. A farmer who could sell without license a dressed pig which he has raised on his own farm, to anyone in the city, would if the purchaser should be engaged in the business, under section of the act, as selling meat [illegible] the ordinance and be subjected to a fine.

I do not think such a result was intended. I therefore suggest that the bill be so amended as to permit any one to sell meat which he himself has produced; but provision should be made for its inspection before being sold.

I also suggest that there be inserted in the eighth line of section 7, $[illegible] in place of $[illegible], and $[illegible] in place of $[illegible] and between lines eight and nine the following:

"For sales over $[illegible] and less than $[illegible], per month, $[illegible]."

I suggest this amendment in justice to the small wholesale dealers.

Again, I am informed that the Legislature, near the close of its recent session, passed a law on the subject of meat inspection which covers to some extent, the purpose of the bill under consideration. I therefore suggest before the bill is allowed to become an ordinance, that it should be considered with the law referred to and passed by it.

On the question, "Shall the ordinance pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor thereto," the vote was sustained by the following vote:

Ayes—Clawson, McCartney, Watson, Newell, O'Meara, Pennington and Young—7.

Noes—Bache, Cheesman, Cohn, Cowie, Daly, Hardy, Lynn, Morris and Young—9.

APPROPRIATION LIST VETO.

The following veto message of the appropriation list passed by the Council was also read:

To the President and City Council:

Gentlemen:—I herewith return, disapproved, the appropriation list passed by the Council on March [illegible], 1894, for the following reasons:

Two [illegible] are there in favor of Parker & Dugan for $[illegible] this item is for certain work done under a contract with the city and county. Since the joint city and county committee recommended its allowance, it has received a written notification from Parker & Dugan that they will not proceed further in the execution of said contract. Negotiations for the settlement of the matter are now being carried on. Besides if this payment be not carried out, it will result in damage to the city and county. Therefore, this payment at the present time should not be made, and I therefore request that this item be stricken from the list.

The item of $[illegible] in favor of the Colorado [illegible] Paving company, I cannot approve, because its allowance is in violation of law and the contract between the city and said company. This contract cannot be legally modified except by the concurrence of the board of public works, the City Council and the Mayor, all of whose concurrence were required to make the contract. The payment of this item would be a modification of said contract and against law, because the parties each, whose, by law and the contract itself, the duty devolves of determining whether the work was done according to the contract, have not [illegible] I approve all the other items.

The list was passed over the Mayor's veto by the following vote:

Ayes—Bache, Cheesman, Cohn, Cowie, Daly, Hardy, McCartney, Morris, Newell, O'Meara and Pennington—11.

Noes—Clawson, Lynn, Watson and Young—4.

WORK AND REGISTRATION.

R. E. Carter et al asked that the registration offices now being maintained by Herman Bamberger and the Citizens' Relief committee be consolidated with the agency established and controlled by the [illegible] Men's association. They further asked that no contract be let hereafter for any public work, but that the same be done by days' work, and the registration of laborers by J. E. Rawlings be accepted as a basis of right of employment. And further that the men be paid not less than $2 per day. Committee on public works.

The committee on sprinkling recommended that they be furnished by the auditor with the amount of sprinkling tax collected for the years 1890, 1891, 1892 and 1893, and the assessment for the same years; also, that the special tax collector be requested to furnish them with the amount of frontage owned by the city, county and Territory in the sprinkling district. Adopted.

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

Robert Tipton, park keeper, whose successor was named at the last meeting of the City Council, sent in his resignation to take effect April 1. Committee on public grounds and municipal laws associated.

TO ABANDON THE CATCH BASINS.

The city engineer recommended the abandonment of the present system of catch basins in the paved districts and that the use of gullies be adopted in lieu thereof. City engineer and board of public works.

FOR INVESTIGATION.

On motion of Clawson the recorder was instructed to communicate with Territorial Secretary Richards, with a view to again securing the use of the Territorial furniture.

BONDS RECALL RECONSIDERED.

On motion of Morris the action of the Council at the last meeting revoking the agency accorded to the Citizens' Copper Flint Bonds committee, was reconsidered, on a vote of 12 to 3. The negative members were Clawson, Watson and Young.

MERCHANTS' LICENSE.

On motion of O'Meara the committee on license and municipal laws were instructed to draw up an ordinance abolishing the merchants' license.

SPRINKLING.

The recorder was instructed to advertise for sprinkling bids in the three daily newspapers of the city.

SEWER PIPE.

On motion of Pennington the committee on sewers, board of public works and city engineer were instructed to report an estimate of the cost of laying a ten inch sewer pipe between the [illegible] on First South street and Ninth North street.

Adjourned for one week.

It Will Go by Default.

Default of the defendant was entered in Chief Justice Merritt's court this morning in the divorce suit of Hulda Slappgist vs August Slappgist.

The parties intermarried at Stockholm, Sweden, on Christmas day, 1888, and came to Utah in October, 1891. For upwards of two and a half years prior to the filing of the suit, it is alleged that the defendant failed to provide for his wife, and during that period has been absent in his own country. Plaintiff desires to have her maiden name, Hulda Lamstrom, restored to her.

The next move will be in the direction of a decree.

I like my wife to use Pozzoni's Complexion Powder because it improves her looks and is as fragrant as violets.

Convention of Bi-Metallic League of America at Des Moines March 21st.

For the above occasion the Rio Grande Western railway has announced a rate of one standard fare for the round trip to Des Moines from all points in Utah. Rate from Salt Lake will be $[illegible]. Tickets will be sold March [illegible] limited for return to April 21st. Remember that the R. G. W. has two fast trains to the east daily.

Good News.

Don't lose heart if hard times have struck you can still get there if you take the Rio Grande Western Railway. It runs everywhere. Rates always the lowest. Because the R. G. W. line is protected by the mountains through which it passes it is troubled less from snow than any other western road.
