JENSON'S TRAVELS.

Saturday, June 26, 1897.—After lying at anchor for about four hours we were enabled to pass through our locks at midnight, and at 6:30 a. m. anchor one foot of Halfa, after sailing 8 miles from Dongola and 45 miles by our time from Tani. Halfa, situated at the foot of the north slope of Mount Carmel, appears most picturesque and pleasant of the city, as one approaches it from the sea side. At 1:15 a. m. I landed and walked about half a mile to the German colony, where I called on Christ Hoff, and visited the family of Adolph Hoff, formerly James Hoff and his wife, with whom the Saints from Zion, when visiting Haifa, have made their home of late. Sam I also met Adolph Gottlieb Geyer, who has been in Utah from others he came with a missionary. Brother Geyer, in consequence of temporal duties connected with his property in Haifa. He has lost his wife several years ago. Sister Caroline Hoff and Sister Catherine F. Kugel are the only two other Saints in Haifa, numbering five members altogether, of the twenty-three persons baptized in Palestine since the mission was first opened up in 1889. Of the six who have emigrated to Zion, four have died, two are now living at Salt Lake City, and one at Haifa, namely Jacob Hoff and wife, with whom the Saints from Zion, when visiting Haifa, have made their home of late. Sam I also met Adolph Gottlieb Geyer, who has been in Utah from others he came with a missionary. Brother Geyer, in consequence of temporal duties connected with his property in Haifa. He has lost his wife several years ago. Sister Caroline Hoff and Sister Catherine F. Kugel are the only two other Saints in Haifa, numbering five members altogether. Of the twenty-three persons baptized in Palestine since the mission was first opened up in 1889. Of the six who have emigrated to Zion, four have died, two are now living at Salt Lake City