The Consideration of Cost

often prevents thoughtful housekeepers from adopting improvements which they very well know would add to their comfort and save their strength. No such obstacle, however, stands in the way of the use of the modern cleaner, which is a blessing to any home. It helps keep house by keeping the house cleaner. It costs only one-half penny-worth of the kind, but it is also by far the cheapest—large packages not only 25 cents. Get a package to-day. Be sure it is the genuine. Look for the dirkey twins—the trade mark of the sole manufacturers—

GOLD DUST
WASHING POWDER

Horrible Burning to Death of a Woman in Arizona.

DEATH OF A GOOD INDIAN CHIEF.

A Child by Lightning in Kansas—Story in Loaded Trees—Six Years a Paralytic.

During 1895 the beach mines in Curry county, Ore., produced 22[illegible] ounces of gold dust.

The purchase price of the Pierce gold mine near Tucson, Arizona, $125,000, has been paid, on the ownership passes to an English syndicate. A ten-hundred-stamp mill is to be erected at once.

H. T. Andrews of Los Angeles, Cal., thrashed E. N. Brown, a newspaper agent who had answered Mrs. Andrews' by his persistency. Mrs. Andrews is judge of the L. A. Andrews $1 and compelled him to do.

Twenty-three of the principal strawberry growers of Humboldt county, Cal., have formed a permanent association, purpose being to increase the acreage of strawberry vines, which, in a few months, will produce 200,000 pounds of fruit, valued at $16,000.

Professor J. H. Wetherbee of the University of Oregon, in gathering a collection of snakes and lizards for the institution, has received a two-headed toad. The extra leg is joined to the left shoulder in front of the other leg, in a perfectly formed leg.

Ah Kyne, alias Yom Duy, a Chinese woman, was shot and killed at Oro Ann, Cal., Friday by some unknown assassin. She was found in her house bound and gagged, by a customer when the door of her little laundry house in the Chinese quarter was broken in.

The secretary of justice and public instruction has prepared a bill to be laid before Congress for the creation of a bureau of public instruction, whose head, who will be a cabinet officer, will be an honor independent of other departments, although subject to the supervision and orders of the secretary of justice.

Senator John Beard of Alameda county, Cal., ten years ago planted an acre of forest trees. Last season he sold all the trees thereon, measuring a quarter of an inch, to a sawmill firm for strip timber, and made $100 by the transaction, besides cutting 10 cords of wood for use.

Six years ago, Stella, the 5-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brosmiler, of Boise, Idaho, fell out of a swing and was paralyzed. For six years she has been in bed, unable to speak or hear, and was also to recognize anyone in all that time. Wednesday she was perfectly right, but when asleep her limbs were supple as rubber. On Friday, May 15, she died, and the funeral occurred yesterday, Sunday.

Omaha Bee, May 15: Sheep receipts for the week will be the heaviest on record for this market. The five days' supply foots up 21,[illegible] head, while the heaviest previous supply was for the seven days ending October 3, 1891, when 20,236 were received. October 1894 was also the heaviest month for sheep, the receipts being 45,425, but the indications are that a new record will be made this month and over 50,000 received.

The Two Republics of the City of Mexico reports that A. E. Mitchen, a mining man, has just effected the transfer to a syndicate of Colorado and Kansas City capitalists of a half interest in the Jesus Maria mine in the state of Durango for $1,000,000. The conditions of the sale, in addition to the handsome cash consideration which he is largely to receive in cash, is that improvements to the amount of $1,500,000 are to be made forthwith in the property of his association.

Two boys, Charlie Cowdrey and Johnny Cox, while driving coal on the Cowdrey ranch, six miles north of Walden, Wyoming, met with quite an accident Monday. The mine caved in while they were at work, leaving Cox secluded unhurt. Charlie Cowdrey was caught by several tons of coal and covered to a depth of two feet. The boy's father and two men commenced digging immediately, and cleared the debris within a few minutes. His leg was found to be bent between the knee and ankle. He was also badly bruised about the body, but nothing serious.

St. John, Kansas, News: Harry, son of John Thomas (colored) of Richland township, while away from home during the shower Sunday forenoon, was killed by lightning. The boy had gone over on the creek bottom near W. W. Harrison's ranch to play with Charley Lund who was herding cattle for Mr. Harrison, and when the shower came up he went to Dougherty's for shelter, leaving young Lund with the cattle. While leaning against the door the granary was struck by lightning. The boy, when found by two of Mr. Harrison's little girls, was laying in the doorway just where he had fallen backward when struck. The lightning had torn nearly all of the clothes off and singed his hair badly; a wonderful lightning could be plainly seen among the boy's back.

Old man Edmo, better known as Arizona, a local man of the Shoshone, died at his home, under the bluffs west of the city, Tuesday morning, full of years and honors, as honors go among the red men. Edmo was over 90 years old. He was well known in Utah in the early days, but was known there altogether as Arizona. He was baptized into the Mormon church many years ago and was a warm friend of Brigham Young and has always lived a consistent Latter-day Saint. He had seven wives, two of whom survive him, and many children. Edmo was a cousin of Washakie, the chief of the Sh-shones on the Wind River reservation, and to Ten Day, chief of the Lemhi Shoshones. He was buried Wednesday on Bannock creek, the remains being interred in a handsome casket and according to the rites of the Mormon church. Edmo has always stood well both among the Indians and with the whites, and his death causes genuine mourning among the tribes of his people.

Mr. Katherine Lacy was burned to death Friday morning in a horrible manner at Florence, Arizona, and when found she was still alive, although her form was almost unrecognizable so badly was she burned. A neighbor while on his way to work passed the house occupied by Mrs. Lacy and saw flames issuing from a window. He went to assistance and after hard work the flames were extinguished, but not until the fire fighters were almost exhausted by smoke and gas. Upon the floor by the prostrate form of Mrs. Lacy, who was moaning feebly, her clothes had to be cut off piecemeal. She lived one hour and a half after being found, but never regained consciousness. How fire in the gas stove, on which a pot containing potatoes and water had been left to cook, had set the house ablaze is a complete mystery. There was no one in the house at the time, positively, for the door was locked and the window curtains drawn. In attempting to extinguish the fire her clothing had caught. She had her wits about her, and instead of trying to save the clothing from her she tossed it out of the window, so that the men who came to her assistance found it.

Liberty, Equality and Fraternity.

Liberty is of no value in itself, for it is valuable only as a means to equality, and equality itself is valuable only as it is a means to fraternity, which is the end. Equality will enlarge itself to the bounds of humanity as fast as people learn that to themselves they are the only foes and comfort and pleasure that are unknown, and fraternity will come as a result of the enlightenment.—W. D. Howells in Century.
