GENERAL GOMEZ GIVES HIS AID.

Commander-in-Chief of Cuba Army Will Co-operate

AND DISBAND HIS ARMY.

Mr. Porter's Mission to the Island Bears Fruit to the Satisfaction of Those Interested.

HOMBOLDT, Province of Santa Clara, Cuba, Feb. 1, via Havana, Feb. 2.—The success of Mr. Porter's mission greatly simplifies the returning of the military Cubans to the pursuits of peace. In view of Gen. Gomez's opposition and his attitude of hostility towards the United States, Mr. Porter came here clothed with absolute authority and the tender of $1,000,000 was practically a verbal ultimatum. Had it not been accepted no more proposals would have been made. Mr. Porter made plain the purpose of the government and was gratified at the ready response of Gen. Gomez. The conference took place at the house here occupied by the Cuban general as his headquarters since coming to town. In brief, the compact is as follows:

First—That the Cuban officers at each province shall assist the American officers in disbursing the funds.

Second—That these officers shall at once meet at some convenient point and devise when and where the authorities are to be made and to carry out other details.

Third—That the sum paid to each man shall not be regarded as part payment of salary or wages due for service rendered, but to facilitate the disbandment of the army and as a relief of suffering and as an aid in getting the people to work.

Fourth—The Cubans shall surrender the arms to the Cuban assembly or to its representatives.

Fifth—The committee on distribution shall use its best endeavors to distribute it among the population so that all may receive what is due.

Sixth—That the $3,000,000 shall be placed subject to the order of the division commander of Cuba, as the matter shall in immediate.

When Mr. Porter arrived here last week he was accompanied by Senor Gonzalez Quesada, the special commissioner from the Cuban junta at Washington; Captain Hall, of General Brooke's staff, and a correspondent of the Associated Press, who had come from Havana to his camp this morning, but he returned accompanied by his staff and fifty horsemen on different kinds of errands.

Gen. Gomez was seen by Senor Quesada this afternoon and after an hour's conference Mr. Porter, accompanied by Senor Quesada, Capt. Campbell and Lieutenant Lizzet, the Cuban junta at Washington; Captain Hall, of General Brooke's staff, and a correspondent of the Associated Press, rode out to Gen. Gomez's house in
