LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—This evening will be presented at the Theatre the brilliant five act comedy of London Assurance, in which Mrs. Bates will enact the part of "Lady Gay Spanker," Mr. Bates "Sir Harcourt Courtley," Miss Adams "Grace Harkaway," Carrie Carter "Pert," Mr. Graham "Dazzle," Mr. Margetts "Meddle," Mr. Harris "Dolly Spanker," Mr. Thorne "Max Harkaway," Mr. Marden "Charles Courtley." A tempting programme.

PORTAGE.—Wm. H. Anderson writes from Portage, April 29th, that the settlers there were having excellent growing weather, with refreshing rains, and that the general health was good.

A DELIGHTFUL rain last night.

AN ARTIST.—There is a young gentleman now in this city, named Charles H. Macpherson, who is an artist of excellent talent. Having seen some specimens of his work, executed here, we are able to speak understandingly in regard to his abilities. Although he has been in this city since last fall, being of rather unpretentious disposition, he is almost unknown here so far as his abilities as an artist are concerned. Mr. Macpherson is only twenty-four years of age. He studied his profession for a number of years in the Kensington (London) government School of Art, and he carries with him a silver medal, which was awarded him by that institution for excellence in figure drawing, which is the highest stage of the art. In 1870, being highly recommended, he entered the Royal Academy of Art, in London, where he remained two years and completed his studies.

Mr. M. recently painted two portraits, one for Mr. W. Evans, painter, and one for Mr. Joshua Midgely, the latter being not quite finished. The portrait of Mr. Evans can be seen at the latter's paint shop, near the City Hall, where any one who desires can view it. He has also nearly completed a water-color sketch of this city, taken from a standpoint a short distance north-west of Mr. H. B. Clawson's residence. This view is clearly defined, every building within its scope being plainly recognizable. It also takes in a large range of the surrounding snow-capped mountains, and the whole picture, though on a small scale, combines boldness of outline with delicacy of coloring, which shows the hand of the true artist. The portraits he paints, so far as we have been able to judge, are strikingly life-like. Those who wish the professional services of Mr. Macpherson can hear of him either at the paint shop of Mr. W. Evans or that of Mr. Joshua Midgley on Second South street.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—The team of the deceased E. Corless, when it ran off on Monday night, came westward along South Temple Street at a terrific speed. When passing the temple block the animals got on the sidewalk. George H. Rice, Esq., general pass and ticket agent of the U.P.R.R., his wife and another lady were walking along the side walk when the runaway came rattling along, but owing to the darkness they could not tell what it was. Just as the horses came up Mr. Rice pushed the ladies towards the road and threw out one of his hands, which touched the animals as they rushed past. Had the party stepped toward the wall instead of in the other direction nothing could have prevented them from being run over and severely hurt if not killed. As it was the ladies were very much frightened.

INFORMATION WANTED.—If Brother Samuel Hunt, who left the London conference about four years since, will communicate with Elder R. F. Neslon he will hear of something to his advantage. Address R. F. Neslon, Box 124, Salt Lake City.

I. O. R. M.—A complimentary, of exceedingly handsome appearance, is before us, to the Grand Celebration Ball of the Washakie Tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men, at Richards' Hall, on St. Tammany's day, May 13th.

SOUND DOCTRINE.—Elizabeth Heward writes from Draper, April 21, that the inhabitants of of this Territory are able to manufacture everything they need, if they would unitedly endeavor to do it, and she concludes her note as follows—"I am ashamed when I see the daughters of Zion dressed after the most silly fashions of the world, when the Lord has commanded us to let the beauty of our clothing be the workmanship of our own hands." All of which is very good doctrine, and Elizabeth might have hinted that some of the sons of Zion spend means quite as foolishly as any of the daughters do.

THE members of the High Council are requested to meet to-morrow morning at the City Hall at 10 a. m.

CORRESPONDENCE.—The communication of our esteemed correspondent, N., is deemed scarcely suitable for the columns of the News, and moreover having been also crowded out for two or three days by a press of other matter the subject of the communication has become somewhat too old for a daily paper.

TWO SIDES TOO MUCH.—Before us lies a lengthy communication from the country, written on both sides of the paper. Now, if correspondents knew how that sort of thing vexes the souls of the compositors, the provocation would not be offered so often as it is. Moral—write only on one side of manuscript intended for publication. It is far better to put twice as much on one side than to write on both.

PERIODICALS.—Mr James Dwyer hands us the following: Harper's Weekly, for May 11th, accompanying which are life-like pictures of London scenes, by Gustave Dore and Blanchard Jerrold. It also contains some caricatures hitting the prominent political questions of the day. The Budget of Fun, for June, is filled with characteristic sketches and brimful of wit and humor. Frank Leslie's, for May 11th, is running over with good things. The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette is an invaluable periodical to those interested in the progress of public companies of all kinds. The Builder and Manufacturer, a great aid to mechanics and engineers in general.

SUPPLIES FOR BULLIONVILLE.—Mr. John H. Worley, of Bullionville, has just purchased and shipped 48,000 lbs. of assorted merchandise for Bullionville. Eighteen barrels of J. F. Cutter's Bourbon forms a sample of the assortment. Our dealers might supply a few more barrels of other brands, that might be warranted to kill quicker.

THE SCHOOL EXCURSION.—The following programme of arrangements for the regulation of those who purpose joining the excursion on Friday has been handed to us for publication:

1. Head of column will form on South Temple street, facing railroad. The First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth ward organizations, designated as column first, under the direction of Marshal Professor Morgan, will form on the south side of the street; Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth and Twentieth ward organizations, designated as column second, under the direction of Marshal Professor Monch, will form on the north side of the street.

2. Ward organizations will report promptly at 7:30 a.m., to their respective marshals, on South Temple street, as designated above.

3. The principal of each organization will see that all baskets are properly labeled with the owner's name and ward; and that a committee of five be appointed to see that they are delivered to the marshal's aide at the provision car; also that a sufficient number of cups be distributed throughout their respective companies.

4. Each ward organization is requested to designate itself by a standard, having the number of the ward plainly painted thereon.

5. The principals of the various organizations are requested to furnish the marshal of the day a correct list of male and female students, and also of adults and complimentary tickets. Particular attention must be paid that the written report corresponds with the actual number of excursionists.

6. A car will be reserved for those who have received special invitations to join the excursion.

KARL G. MAESER,
Marshal of the Day.
