The wife of James Fechser of this city has just presented him with triplets, three girls, at Heber, where the family are at present staying. The mother and the trio are doing well, and the father is delighted.

Mrs. Lydia D. Alder will address the Saints of the Second ward tomorrow night on her visit to the Isles of Samoa and Paimos. In addition there will be a special musical program. The meeting begins at 6:30 and the public is invited.

J. B. Keeney, an old time stage driver well known in the west, and who once drove a stage between Salt Lake and the Dalles, died at Walla Walla, on the 11th inst. Keeney was in his fifty-fourth year, and was a native of Crawfordsville, Ind.

Elder David O. McKay of the Weber stake Sunday school superintendency will deliver an address on "The Spirit of Sunday School Work" at the Sunday School Union meeting of Ensign stake in the Twenty-first ward chapel Monday night. The public is invited.

Miss Emily Richards, a pupil of Mrs. A. Wetzell, will sing "The Guiding Star" at the Phillips Congregational church Sunday evening. The composer of the piece is Mr. Dewey Richards of Salt Lake City, who is at present studying in the east, and attracting notice by his musical compositions.

Yesterday afternoon's watery downfall amounted to .40 of an inch. During the thunderstorm, lightning struck the home of L. E. Simon on the county road near Fifteenth South street, the bolt knocking a sad iron from the hands of Mrs. May Brown, who was ironing at the time, and striking Mrs. Simon on the neck. Both women were considerably shocked but not seriously hurt.

Hazel Butler and Pauline Mallory, aged 12, were thrown from a pony which they were riding last evening, on east South Temple street, and which ran away with them. The children were picked up by Bishop Scanlon and carried into a neighboring house, where it was found that they were badly bruised but not otherwise injured. They were sent to their homes on I and First street respectively.

The next monthly meeting of the Association of the Nauvoo Legion will be held Monday evening, July 17, at 8 o'clock, in the Bishop's office, Tithing yard. If all the members who have not settled their mortuary fund will kindly do so, the secretary and treasurer will feel grateful, as it will enable them to be ready in case of an emergency.—Wm. W. Brown, secretary A. N. L.

Patents for Utah lands have been issued to the following named persons, forwarded to them by registered mail, and returned unclaimed, and are now in the office of the secretary of state, where they may be obtained by the owners: John Jenkins, Weber county; Western Home Building company, Denver, Colo.; John Anderson, Salt Lake county; C. H. Wilkins, Salt Lake county; William D. Goodwin, Cache county.

Miss Corinne M. Bailey, a noted New Orleans singer, whose concert recital will be given on the 25th inst., in Barratt hall, has been singing the past season in California. She has met with marked success on the coast, and after appearing in Salt Lake will go to Tennessee to sing. Francis L. Woodmansee, the accomplished young pianist of this city, will assist at the recital, as will also Arthur Pedersen, the violinist.

At the Salt Palace today, especially this evening, the Young Men's Republican club of Salt Lake are holding forth. The program was scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock and continue until time for the last cars come. A handsome list of prizes has been provided, there will be a public wedding in the evening, and dancing will be indulged in by those who wish to try it.

Acting Mayor Hewlett yesterday received word that the total sum of $507,773.22 had been placed to the credit of Salt Lake City with the United States Mortgage and Trust company of New York, as part of the purchase price of the special water and sewer bond issue. Arrangements will be made as soon as possible to have the account transferred to a local bank, where the money will draw interest at the rate of 3 per cent while on deposit.

Seldom it is that a private citizen receives from the people of his home town such an ovation as that accorded to John H. Patterson, at Dayton, O., on his return from a year's travel around the world. Mr. Patterson is president of the National Cash Register company, which has done so much for the people of Dayton, and its citizens in honor of his return home, planned a reception the like of which has perhaps never been given to a private citizen. The papers of Dayton issued "Patterson extras," and the town was gaily bedecked in crimson and gold, with flags and bunting in great profusion. The celebration was held July 3, and was one of the most enthusiastic in the history of that city.

Rev. Dr. Paden returned last evening from a five weeks' vacation in the east. He attended the 25th year reunion of his class at Princeton university, and was also the guest of Robt. C. Ogden of New York, chairman of the $10,000,000 fund recently given by John D. Rockefeller as an educational endowment fund. Dr. Paden visited also with his father's family in Pennsylvania. He reports eastern weather as humid and hot, and with a heavy rainfall.

A. H. Chambers, a graduate of the school of mines of the University of Utah, was yesterday afternoon selected by the Utah Lewis and Clark fair commission, to be assistant manager of the mineral exhibit. Mr. Chambers is from Ogden, and is a son of A. D. Chambers, county treasurer of Weber county. Fred J. Kiesel of Ogden appeared before the commission and urgde an increase in the appropriation to help defray the expense of taking the Ogden choir to the fair during Utah week, but it was decided that the funds in hand would not allow the expenditure of more money in this direction.

Monday July 17th the Eagles of Salt Lake will entertain members of the order from Ogden, Bingham, Mercur and Eureka, at Saltair. The Eagles will parade through the streets at 12:15, the line of march extending from the Grand theater south to Third South, west to Main, north to South Temple street, south after countermarching to Second South street and then east to the point of beginning. At 1 o'clock a special will carry the order to the lake, and after that hourly trains will bring the afternoon crowd. A large list of prizes is prepared for the occasion, including awards for the biggest bowling record, winners of a baseball game, winners of a tug of war contest, eagle with largest family, and for winners of running events.

The Latter-day Saints' university has just issued a business college circular of unusual attractiveness. It contains a summary of the work of the commercial school, which comprises the Salt Lake and the Latter-day Saints' college combined in one institution. The pamphlet makes a striking presentation of the aims, methods and results of business training, and perhaps excels, in this respect, any previous issue of the institution. The write-up is crisp and business-like. The illustrations are choice and comprehensive, including the pictures of a number of representative students. It is the purpose of the university to distribute these circulars wherever they are likely to fall into the hands of young men and women who are ambitious to improve their circumstances by qualifying themselves for business work.

The descendants of the late Thomas and Mary Spiers held their annual family reunion last evening, in Liberty hall, instead of at Liberty Park, the storm having interfered with their original intentions as to the location of the celebration. There were 74 members of the family present who enjoyed the feast of things eatable with a musical and literary program. The program included a historical sketch of Thomas Speirs, by Adam Speirs; a recitation, "The Pioneers," Mary P. Silver; "Reminiscences," A. J. Pendleton; a paper, "The Grandchildren," Mrs. Alice Speirs Goddard; a song, Viola Browning; a paper, "San Francisco to Salt Lake City," Clyde Ward; "The Sons-in-law," Frank Browning; recitation, Charlotte McLean; "The Daughters-in-law," Mrs. Nannie Speirs; recitation, Clara Pendleton; "Intermarriages," E. A. Gregory; "The Great-Grandchildren," Nora Pendleton; instrumental solo, Le Von Browning; vocal solo, Mrs. Bessie Speirs Browning.

BICYCLES REPAIRED AND FOR sale. F. C. Sanford, 221 State St.

The want ads help you to manage your affairs—and even though your affairs be very simple they will usually manage YOU if you don't get a helping hand from the "wants."

If the finder is honest, a want ad will bring back to you whatever you have lost—and nine out of every ten people are honest in such circumstances.
