THE DISTRICT COURT.

A Street Car Held Up by Three Men Last December.

THE TRIAL OF THE ACCUSED TODAY

Argument of Young Collins—Civil Jury Cases on Hearing Before Judge Merrill.

An additional open venire having been issued into requisition, a sufficient number of jurors were secured to complete the panel by the U. S. marshal at the opening this morning.

THE CHARGE AGAINST FIVE.

Harry A. Lee, Thomas Stevens, H. H. Lee and J. W. Bassett, now jointly under indictment in the district court for having burglarized the tailor shop of John Dabes, on West second south street, on December 22nd, 1894, and that that was been set for the first trial.

All the prisoners but Stevens appeared plea of not guilty, and the morning Allen and Bassett withdrew their previous plea and now plead guilty. They were carried to Sheriff Anderson and Monday morning Attorney J. M. Marshall in their behalf before.

A STREET CAR HOLD-UP.

The case of Henry Amicon, Wm. Pierce and E. E. Lee, indicted on a charge of robbery on the evening of December 3rd, 1894, was the first on said for trial. Pierce withdrew his former plea, Lee pleaded a conditional guilty, Mr. Lee will be sentenced on Monday.

The case of Amicon and Lee was then proceeded with after the noon recess (p. m.). Dr. Ed. Allen, Chief Alvey and Officer Lewis testified to the arrest of the defendants and the recovery of a revolver and other property belonging to the Fifth Ward and Agricultural Park car on a passing Commercial John E. Lindemann at about 8:30 in the evening, a silver watch (which was not taken away from), a pocket knife and a handkerchief. It transpired about 10 o'clock in the night in question, when the car was stopped at the western terminus of the line, just prior to its return to the city. While the motorman, W. J. Hickman, and conductor Sale stood talking inside the car one of the defendants, said to be Lee, suddenly opened one of the doors and entered, presented a revolver at them and ordered, "Throw up your hands, you son of a——" but they refused to do so. Simultaneously the other two defendants entered the car by the other door, and assisted their companion in searching Lindemann and relieving him of his property. The face of each of the defendants was partially concealed by a black handkerchief, and each man carried a revolver. Having taken from the conductor his money and effects mentioned, and also the motorman's watch, the robbers decamped. Hickman's watch was found in the possession of one of the robbers.

Both the motorman and conductor were positive in the identity of the three men, they having been a full night on at the time; but the entire proceeding, it would appear, did not last more than three or four minutes. The motorman and conductor were closely cross-examined as to the identity of the men, both adhering to their original statement.

The defendants Amicon and Pierce were arrested by Police Officer Fitzgerald, on the afternoon of December 3rd, in a lot on the Market Beach railroad, and each had a watch in his possession—one was that taken from the motorman—also a revolver. For the other watch a claimant has not yet been found. The pocket knife and handkerchief were found on Amicon.

Detective Hussle locked after the "third party," Lee, and arrested him on December 27th or 28th, in the Colorado House. He had the day before that in his only few alleged in the city. When searched at the police station a revolver only was found upon him.

This afternoon the defense opened and the accused went upon the witness stand.

EVIDENCE PRESENTED.

The appeal case of J. H. Risser from Justice Harvey's court, where the sum of $5 was fined $50 for assaulting Frank E. McGuire, late yesterday afternoon in Judge Merrill's court was overruled on motion of Assistant U. S. Attorney Howat. The case of William Collins, tried on Tuesday and yesterday in Judge Merrill's court for the manslaughter of J. G. Wadsworth, at Park City, went to the jury shortly before the adjournment yesterday afternoon. UTAH CROP PROSPECTS.

Farm Work Interrupted by a Storm and Cold Rain.

Weekly Weather Bulletin of the Utah Weather Service for Week Ending April 8, 1895.

With this issue the weekly weather crop bulletin of the U. S. weather bureau is resumed for the season of 1895.

The season opened earlier than usual and with conditions far more to the front in Utah, Cache and Box Elder counties, than for years past. In fact we do not remember when, although the reports as low as to its degree have been from year to year, during the month of February from the northwestern section of the Territory. The rain of most from cold and unseasonable weather. During the cold period in January and February the snow in the mountains of the Territory, the greater part of the winter fuel. The snow fell during the winter was slightly above the average in amount.

During the past week the temperature average below the normal. Farm work which had been progressing in all sections was interrupted by a storm period which passed over the Territory from the 4th to the 8th, accompanied by rain and snow, and followed by a northerly cold wave, which has checked the growth of vegetation and the other damage to fruit trees and early garden in the southern half of the Territory. Considerable plowing and seeding has been done already in all sections, and in the western larger farm operations will be in full blast during the coming week.

REMARKS BY COUNTIES.

Box Elder County—Box Elder. The fall grain has wintered well and the prospect is promising. Warm weather in March caused the vegetation which is now being checked by night frost.

Brewerville. The first part of the week was all that could be desired for farming operations, the days were warm and pleasant and no frost at night, but on the 5th it turned very cold with wind from the north, continuing that way until the 8th. The nights since the 5th have been very cold but the weather is moderating now and it is warm and pleasant. There has been considerable plowing and seeding done this week.

Cache County—Denson. The weather for the past week has been fine for the farmers who are they putting in grain. Night frosts are having a beneficial effect on fall grain and young fruit. Very little seeding done; weather unfavorable.

Smith. Hard frost Friday and Saturday. Small amount of grain put in so far.

Lewiston. The season is all gone and I am afraid that we have lost in going too early in sowing wheat, which is looking very bad, better than I expected. Just commenced plowing on some of the dry farms, heavy rain fell the past week.

Davis County—The storms of the past week have been of great benefit to the farmers. Has it not been followed by a cold dry wind, which the resulting frost would have been more greater. Ground is very dry and is not in good condition for grain or seeds. Fruit destroyed by frost.

Layton. Most of the past week has been exceedingly cold. Snow on the 1st, since has started to grow, spring grain nearly all put in and looks well.

Bonneville County—Ogden. No plowing or spring crop sown yet, ground is wet. Heavy northwest winds and very cold. Prospects for abundance of water good.

Idaho County—Not very little spring work done as yet, but from every appearance it will be very forward and late. No vegetation of account anywhere to be seen.

Milford County—Cove. Crops are being put in generally, but from appearance that we are visited by a storm every week or two. Lucern fields and winter grains are showing their appearance.

Sugar. Now for weather extract on the 2nd 10 to 20 inch snow, and on 3rd 10 to 20 inch snow, and on 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd,
