PAGEANT OF PROGRESS.

(Continued from page one.)

receive the loser a less cordial and kindly of a sing of horseshoe.

The wild western scenes will be a feature of the exposition of each.

Mr. Sarah Bernhardt is expected last today. Auguste Rodin—"The lady should report to 1435 East Seventh South.

Mrs. John A. Groesbeck of Pueblo reports the loss of a gold clock, a visiting card with white silk the ball of twine yesterday afternoon.

A. Ute spoke that wished the Pioneers enjoy the valley this year. Kay was in the parade today. Nine to nine to give a science observation of which the sun, even to the minutes of Pioneer Brigham Young and the fact that he was behind a cerpendicular. When he arose to mount his bed.

Salt Lake's Chinamen are not anxious to have their Rock-Splitting dragon in the Monday parade. It have offered to bear most of the expense if the commission will supply a car in which to bring it here as British transportation for less miles from Rock Springs.

Some evil-minded person tampered with the heritage of the wagon carrying the flag representing the state industry, the result being a scrambled the early one recorded in the parade.

There were seventeen bands in today's parade, which will be the standard of the five. More music for exSaturday is necessary, and it is believed the commission will press the service for it every drum corps in the city.

The Ogden band was loaned to the Bryan campaign committee today but it will return in time for tomorrow's parade.

The commission will meet at 9 o'clock in the morning. Business of the utmost importance requires a full attendance.

"Dot" Foot, as the shotgun messenger of the Pioneer march, was happy in today's parade. He has permission to use as many bank entrances as he wishes in the Monday parade and will make the most of it. The Mayor heard the permit today.

The following newspapermen registered at headquarters yesterday: S. M. Hatfield, eastern correspondent; J. R. Wendel, Oakland Daily Times, Francisco; F. N. Ely, World, Louisville, Colorado; G. W. Perry, Boomerang, Bawlins, Wyo.; J. B. King, Tribune, Alberta, Colorado.

There will be a crowded house at the New Grand this evening, when the European High Class Vaudeville company appears. Walter all members are clever, Conway and Leland, the comedians, will excite the most interest. They give a novel exhibition on a bicycle and will be one of the features of the bicycle division of tomorrow night's parade.

"Utah" was out of sight in the elevated sign-board.

All the nations will be represented in tomorrow's parade by young lady representatives. The prettiest girls in Salt Lake have been selected for the representation.

The K. of P. band made a handsome appearance.

The illuminated parade takes place from now 8 p.m.

Miss Emma Lent, "Utah," was presented by Mr. Burton C. Mortimer, the leading florist, with an original floral design at the Tabernacle last night. It is thought to be the most elaborate piece ever made in Salt Lake. It represents a lyre with a cut and suspended shield and is set in a bed of roses and carnations, covering a space of four and five feet. It stands 14 feet high. It is now on exhibition in Calloway Bros. and Thomas' drug stores. Miss Lent wore it on East Temple street.

Utah and her twenty-five personifications of beauty, femininity, and mostly coiled bands of honor, when they passed in their gorgeous floats, would have made the Athenian of the olden days jump with joy.

A man was rushing down street this afternoon inquiring if he (sic) if they had seen Love. What Love? he was asked. "Justice," was the answer, as the wag got a 2:40 gait on himself again.

Hon. Lorin Farr, sole survivor of Utah's first territorial legislature, was given in a carriage and was cheered all along the route.

Captain Eslinger and a few of the "boys" looked fine.

Hon. Samuel W. Richards, the 1 survivor of the first city council was was in the parade.

The Z. C. M. I. float was an excellent design, as was also the Utah Sugar company's.

It has been a great day for Salt Lake.

Every man, woman and child did honor today to the noble pioneers.

The great band and vocal contests takes place at the Tabernacle tonight.

NEWS OF THE NORTH.

Interesting Local Notes in and About Cache Valley.

FRANKLIN, Idaho, July 19th, 1897.

To the Editor:

The Oneida Stake of Zion is one of magnificent distances, and it is necessary to hold the quarterly conference at different points so that all can have an opportunity once a year to attend. On Sunday, July 25th, the conference will be held at Malad Central in Malad valley about forty miles from here.

It is wonderful how these Stakes of Zion have increased and the work of God has lengthened. Not many years ago all the settlements of this country was Bear River Valley Stake of Zion, which extended even to Cardston, Cowley, Orkney, Raymond and Taylor in the other Stakes have been taken off of Cache and new Stakes from Jordanelle on Provo, on the west to Moroni on Main. You in Bear River Stake are more than 100 miles from the point of Cache to the north.

The people up here live on their farms or ranches, as they are called here. In taking the grain or in hauling with them carrying their stage, they carry the way in two years. Yet, notwithstanding the people are well to do. Some people have gone the west to Oregon and California, but many of them have come back to Idaho. Some have gone the east to Montana, as speculators or to buy land and sell it to settlers. Some have gone to Mexico, and some have gone to Canada. Some have gone to Montana, and some have gone to Canada. Some have gone to Montana, and some have gone to Canada. Some have gone to Montana