DEMISE OF MRS. WATKINS.

Yesterday morning at 12:30 the home of E. J. Watkins, the well known Western Union telegraph operator, was brought to great grief by the sudden death of his beloved wife, Alice Blair Watkins, one of Ogden's most estimable young ladies. For several weeks past she has been in a critical condition, but that her spirit should be called hence so suddenly was very unexpected, and came as a very trying ordeal to her loved ones and host of friends. The deceased was born in Ogden Twenty-seven years ago and has spent her life in this city; she leaves a husband, three children and many relatives and friends to mourn her untimely death.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Driver will be pained to learn that their little 12-months-old baby boy, George Freeman, was called to the great beyond yesterday morning, cause of death being whooping cough.

The funeral services will be held at the family residence, No. 447 Twenty-first street, Friday, at 2 p. m.

The remains may be viewed at the residence on date of funeral from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Friends invited.

N. A. Tanner has been set apart as bishop's second counselor of the First ward.

TWO INCIPIENT FIRES.

The fire department was called out to two alarms last evening. The first blaze was in the rear of Walters' music store on Twenty-fourth street, where only a piano box was burned.

The second call was to the cellar of Belnap's grocery store on Washington avenue, where some paper had caught on fire. Both conflagrations were extinguished without any damage being done.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

The Fifth ward will give another of their pleasurable balls Friday evening in the ward educational institute, to which all who have previously attended the dances, are cordially invited.

The last raffle of the Fifth ward fair took place last evening. PARAGOONAH.

Death of a Veteran and Pioneer, John Topham.

Special Correspondence.

Paragoonah, Iron Co., Nov. 12.—John Topham, one of our respected citizens, Nauvoo veteran, and pioneer to Iron county, born in Eatonsocon, Bedfordshire, Aug. 21, 1825, died in Paragoonah Nov. 8, 1900, of dropsy, after a lingering illness of three years. He was an honest, industrious and upright man, and died in the full faith of the Gospel. His six sons carried him to the Paragoonah meeting house, where services were held Nov. 10th. A large number of relatives and friends assembled to pay their last tribute of love and respect to the good and faithful veteran. The services were conducted by Bishop S. S. Barton; a solemn prayer was offered by Ed J. Palmer; suitable songs were sung by the choir. The speakers were Wm. Barton, Wm. H. Holyoak, Richard A. Robinson, Thomas Durham of Parowan, Heber T. Hanks, John Eyre, Bp. Chas. Adams, Wm. C. McGregor, Geo. A. Topham and Bishop Stephen S. Barton, all of whom eulogized the good qualities and character of the deceased. A long cortege of vehicles followed the remains to the Parowan cemetery, where Wm. C. McGregor offered the dedicatory prayer.

PRICE.

Sad Death of a Respected Citizen, William J. Warren.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Carbon county, Nov. 13.—Today witnessed the second funeral in our town inside of five days. On the 9th inst. the four-year-old son of Erastus and Sophronia Petersen was buried, having died very suddenly of membranous croup the day before.

Today the funeral of William J. Warren, of this place was held. He met his death close by his ranch at Nine Mile, about thirty-six miles from here. He was out hunting some sheep that had strayed, that he was looking after, and in crossing along a narrow trail along the edge of the cliff, in some way unexplained, lost his balance and was precipitated below, about fifteen feet, breaking his neck, and crushing in his skull, and otherwise bruising his body. The accident occurred on the 10th and he was not found until Monday morning the 12th by Erastus Anderson and three of his sons who had been hunting for him since the morning of the 11th.

The funeral services were conducted in the town hall. Bishop E. S. Horsley presiding, the speakers were E. W. McIntyre, L. M. Olson, J. H. Pace and Bishop Horsley. All spoke of the many good qualities he possessed especially of his friendship for the poor. At one time he was a well-to-do merchant at Spanish Fork, Utah. He leaves a wife and six children, several grand-children and many friends to mourn his loss. He was born on the 11th of March, 1829, at Penfield, Niagara county, N. Y.

Miner Killed—Returns of Election in Sweetwater County.

Special Correspondence.

Rock Springs, Wyo., Nov. 13.—No official account of election in Sweetwater county yet, unofficial it was a close, hard fight. The Democrats elected the clerk, assessor, attorney, road supervisor, one commissioner and sheriff; the Republicans elected the entire legislative ticket by a very small majority, also county treasurer, two commissioners, superintendent of schools, coroner and surveyor.

MINER KILLED.

An Italian miner was killed in No. 1 mine today by a fall of coal. He leaves a wife and five small children to mourn his untimely end.

THIN CHILD

If a child is thin, let him take a little of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

Some children like it too well; begin with a little. A half- or quarter-teaspoonful is enough at first, if the stomach is weak; but increase, as you find the stomach will bear.

The effect is: the little one takes on strength; gets hungry; eats and is happy; gets fat—he ought to be fat—and gets healthy.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.

Saponifier.

Pennsylvania Saponifier is the original and old reliable Concentrated Lye for family soap making and general household uses. Beware of counterfeits. The success of this article has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. None genuine unless Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Co., Philadelphia, is stamped on the lid.

Ask your grocer for it and take no other.
