OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JAN. 15, 1896.

Junction City Items.

Ogden is infested with a tough crowd of transients who are keeping the police very busy; also Police Justice Helmsley.

The report of the charitable societies is very flattering to the ladies of charitable ladies who have so nobly devoted themselves to the work of relieving the poor and distressed.

The Methodist church was crowded by the fashionable ladies of Ogden on the occasion of the wedding of Joe Beckford and Miss Hilton, yesterday. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Three overcoats were stolen last evening from the hallway of the Presbyterian church while a business meeting was in session. The thieves have not been found yet.

Joseph Cara and Frank Farley were arrested yesterday for chicken stealing.

The Contest Cases.

In the Utah county election contest case before Special Commissioner Dudley the contestants have practically closed their side of the case. A large number of witnesses were examined who testified that a number of Democratic citizens were permitted to cast their ballots who were not residents of the places where they voted, and also that some Republican ballots had been thrown out which were on account of having been placed in the wrong boxes. In addition to this the election at Mapleton precinct was held at the residence of Mr. Adam Johnson while it was advertised by notice to take place in the meeting house.

The witnesses for the contestees, so far as examined, have testified that the voters complained of as non-residents were residents and had only been away to work. Also that a number of Democratic votes placed in wrong boxes had been thrown out under the same circumstances as the Republican votes complained of.

Notes.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Fowler has returned from Paris, Idaho, where he has been attending the funeral of his sister.

Representatives Stout, Larsen and Lemmon are in Provo attending the election contest.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH - - JAN. 15, 1896.

First District Court.

The First district court of the State of Utah held its first formal session this morning, with Judge C. H. Hart on the bench, the county clerk as executive clerk of the court and M. D. Hawkins of Ogden as court reporter. Dates for the holding of court in the three counties comprising the district were set as follows: Cache county, the third Wednesday in January and the first Mondays in April, July and October. In Box Elder county, the third Monday in January and second Monday in April, July and October. In Rich county the first Mondays in March, June, September and December. On Mondays the law and motion calendar and probate cases—not contested—will be heard. As soon as necessary legislation has been passed, which is expected to occur during this week, a jury will be summoned and the trial of cases to proceed with. In the meantime cases on the law and motion calendar are being disposed of. The one occupying the attention of the court this morning is entitled V. Rapp vs A. H. Richards, and was transferred from the Fourth district court.

Notes.

Ezra Hicks, of Benson ward, was milking a cow on Monday morning when the animal kicked and knocked him under another cow, which in turn kicked him severely. He came out of the melee with his left arm broken in several places, and a number of bruises.

Brigham Larson and J. H. Kimball have made the trip through the mountains from Bear Lake on snow-shoes. They have been working at the Rich-Cache mines.

The young lady of Paradise who attempted suicide last Friday has recovered from the effects of her sickness.

Elder John W. Taylor and others are holding religious meetings in this valley.
