CORRESPONDENCE.

In Church—The Navy—Soldiers for Office—Extra Session—Dinner Drink—Improvements—Employe Reductions.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
May 3, 1877.

Editor Deseret News:

At the Foundry Church, last Sunday, where the President's family attend, the discourse was an estimate of Christ by his contemporaries; and during the sermon the preacher gave utterance to an expression that has been used so frequently in political circles since the inauguration of Hayes that it at once suggested the Southern disturbances to the minds of the listeners and raised quite a titter through the audience, somewhat to the discomfiture of the unconscious clergyman. He was speaking of the Jews and their belief in Christ and their temporal savior who was to overthrow their thraldom and, as the elder expressed it, to restore to each tribe local self-government. Everybody craned their necks to get sight of the President and see how he took it.

There is much interest manifested in the question of the inefficiency of our naval force. The troubles in the east bring it particularly to mind, and, certainly, considering the age and position of the United States, with a population of 45,000,000, and one of the world's richest countries, the condition of its navy is scandalous. It stands on a level with the fourth rate powers of the world, and in case of hostilities we have no resource but the inventiveness and energy of the country, and such extemporized defences are but poor ones with which to meet an emergency in comparison with the naval forces of England, Germany, or even of Spain. We need at least eight war vessels, exceeding in strength anything now in our navy. It is quite generally believed that Congress will make some movement in reference to this matter, in the coming extra session.

A representation of soldiers, consisting of a committee of non-office holding soldiers of the late war, called upon the President recently to learn his views relative to the appointment of soldiers to government offices. He expressed himself as fully in concurrence with the law of Congress, which provides that, other things being equal, the soldier shall in every case have the preference in the matter of appointment.

The cabinet has been busy discussing the subject of the business to be attended to in the extra session of Congress, there being manifested a growing disposition to deviate from the first intention to recommend none but absolutely necessary measures. New subjects are now of daily suggestion, and there is a probability that the extra session will find business enough to occupy several months' time. There is anticipated, among other things, a proposition for some civil service measure and a seeking for its passage.

Since the President and Mrs Hayes gave the state dinner in honor of the Grand Dukes, gossip and newspapers all over the country have been full of comment and conjecture concerning "Mrs. Hayes and the wine question." All shades of opinion have been expressed, pro and con, many arguing that to omit offering wine to visitors who are accustomed to taking it would be a breach of hospitality, &c., until the last commentator fires his spiteful little cannon this wise—"We are not aware that wine drinking is an essential attribute of American hospitality. Why should a conscientiously-adopted custom of the White House be departed from because of the customs of the guests at home? The President would scarcely be asked to furnish blubber and oil for a delegation of Esquimaux, or a well-fed missionary for an African chief, or a harem for the social Turk." Sure enough!

Various improvements are being made about the city as the warm weather comes on, conspicuous among them being the Bartholdi fountain, which attracted so much attention at the Centennial and was purchased by our government for the United States Botanical Gardens. The basin is now ready and the architect charged with that work is about proceeding to Philadelphia to make arrangements for the transportation hither of the magnificent fountain and it will be in position by the first of June. It will be a great acquisition to the city; the location is an excellent one and well worth visiting. Another city ornament that will soon be in position is the great navy movement, the foundation of which has been in process of preparation for the last six months. It is to be on the west side of the Capitol grounds at the head of Pennsylvania Avenue.

Another reduction in the force of the Treasury Department has been made this week. The whole number discharged from there within the last month is upward of six hundred. There is a great amount of suffering among those who have been dismissed, and although the cutting down of the force was a matter of absolute necessity, somebody is responsible for the distress occasioned by it—"it might have been prevented." The discharges have all been made from the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and the pay received by clerks in that bureau is barely sufficient to pay their living expenses; therefore when they were dismissed they found themselves with no employment, no money, and no prospect of finding business; for there is very little business in Washington, aside from that furnished by the government. It is said that as far as was possible those were discharged who were least efficient; least needy, and who had the smallest number of persons dependent upon their earnings. With all that, however, there is much distress; numbers are sick with discouragement and disappointment. One lady within my knowledge has already become an object of charity. However ill a wind may be, it is said to always blow good to somebody, and the saying proves true in this matter of the dismissal of Treasury employees. The majority were ladies, and so glad are they of any employment that many of them have entered the homes of affluent citizens of the district in the capacity of domestic help, and are proving themselves efficient, faithful, and agreeable; much preferable to the shiftless, careless, half-taught help that is too often all that can be obtained. A school for the training and instruction of household employees has been quite recently instituted in New York, which promises great things for housekeepers, and might be imitated with decided advantage by all large American cities. No home can exist without a mistress, and no mistress can keep a home properly without a thorough knowledge of all the labor necessary to household administration. A home is a little kingdom, and its ruler must be well versed in all things concerning it to reign successfully.

M. M. W.

When Othello says to the father of his "gurl," "She loved me for the dangers I had passed, and I loved her that she did pity them," he said a very neat thing, but the modern version—"She loved me blackbine of the lies I told, and I loved her because she did believe them"—is not so romantic.

A Sure Cure for the Piles.

A sure cure for the Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst old chronic cases of 25 and 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. Williams' ointment supports the tumors, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared exclusively for Piles, and nothing else. Over 20,000 cured. Patients attest its virtues and Physicians of all schools pronounce it the greatest contribution to medicine of the age.

WENT TO THE NOTED HOT SPRINGS.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 27, 1876.

DEAR SIR:—I suffered more or less for years with the itching or ulcerated Piles. I tried remedy after remedy advertised in the newspapers, and consulted physicians in Philadelphia, Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, and this city, and spent hundreds of dollars, but found no relief and comfort until I obtained a box of Williams' Indian Ointment some four months ago, and it has cured me completely. I had a part of the box left which I gave to a friend of mine who had doctored with many physicians without relief, and as a last resort went to the noted Hot Springs, of Arkansas, for treatment. He informs me that the Indian Ointment has also cured him of the piles. It is certainly a wonderful discovery and should be used by the many thousands who are now suffering with that dread disease.

JOSEPH M. RYDER.

☞ For more certificates of cures see large circular around each box of ointment.

$10,000 REWARD

Will be paid for a more certain and sure remedy. Sold by all the leading Druggists and country storekeepers everywhere. Warranted a sure cure or money refunded. Beware of imitations. Ask for Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment, and take noother. Depot, 338 Superior Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES Centennial World Exhibition, 1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK"

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been "awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875
