CHEAP RATES FOR THE FOURTH.

Fastest Train to Denver this Week—Railway Surveys—Notes of the Flyers.

The officials about Union Pacific headquarters wore a broad smile today, as they felt that their joys were secure a while longer. The occasion of this was the failure of the American Loan and Trust company to take for Oregon Short Line in Wyoming, Idaho, Montana and Oregon. The condition on which the separate receivership was to go into effect was the payment of defaulting interest on the first mortgage, and this has not been paid. It is presumable that if Judge Merritt had ordered single receivership the Short Line would have been taken by the new management, but as the Utah court refused this, the Loan company did not see fit to act under the orders of Judge Sanborn and Gilbert, so within the Utah lines the road would be crippled. The traffic between the parties will be continued in other lines, under interchange, etc. This will take some time to effect a change, if any be made, and the Union Pacific and Short Line will work under the old management in the five reservoir for several months to come. This is what gives great joy to minds of the local Union Pacific officials and makes them feel that they can devote their energies to business.

LOW RATE EXCURSIONS.

The Union Pacific and Rio Grande Western railroads have announced that it joined the rate between this city and Ogden, for the Fourth of July, on all passenger trains. On that day the Junction city will celebrate the nation's natal day in an enthusiastic manner. The orators are Hon. F. J. Cannon and Judge O. W. Powers. It is expected that many Salt Lakers will take advantage of these low rates and visit friends in Ogden.

There will be a great sojourning to city and territorial seats next week from Utah to the latter part of the week on account of the great convention of the National Ecumenical association which convenes there on July 4. There will be a wonderful gathering and one of which any city might feel proud. An official train will leave for Denver over the Union Pacific on that day at ten a. m. Among the many tenderers it will have on board will be the following well known educators: Prs. Hand Talcott, of the Univ. Deseret, Territorial Commissioner of Schools Lewis, Dr. Millspaugh, Professors Paul, Malone, Allen and Angell.

The Rio Grande Western and Denver & Rio Grande announce an excursion rate, effective today, of $19 from Salt Lake to Denver and return, tickets good for three days. Inquiries in this line is heard at the Rio Grande ticket and the same in the D. & R. G. depot. An idea of the rate of $19 for the round trip fare also been made, tickets good for thirty days, but the latter reserve the right to fix free board or baths.

The Union Pacific railway will sell tickets at one fare for the round trip, from all stations to all stations, going July 3rd and 4th, returning July 5th. In addition to regular trains, special trains will run as follows: Leaving Park City July 4th, 7 a. m. and 10 p. m.; special trains will leave Salt Lake July 3rd, 9 p. m. and 4th, 7:30 p. m. Tickets good on all trains.

The manufactories of Salt Lake, Davis and Weber counties have an excursion to Lake Park on the Fourth. This once notable resort has been abandoned for a short time, as the bathing there is not equal to that at Saltair and of the Lake, but the spacious buildings are there, and these will be used by the Northern for music and day games. The Rio Grand Western has given a rate of fifty cents the round trip from Ogden and all points east Lake county including Draper. The R. G. W. trains run only to Lake Park Junction, but from that point the excursionists will be handled by the Great Salt Lake and Hot Springs railway near. Locomotives and cars from the last named line will convey passengers from the Junction station to Lake Park and return, making regular connections.

A FAST TRAIN.

The special Union Pacific excursion train, which leaves for Denver on Friday morning at 10 a. m., is scheduled to reach Colorado's capital at 7:30 a. m. the following morning, making the entire run in 21 hours. This is the fastest time ever made to Denver from this city. The train will consist of sleepers, Pullman buffet, dining car, day car, and baggage—five cars in all. The original date (Tuesday) was changed from the 9th to the 3rd to let Utah teachers' council and the first session of the national association.

NOTES.

Mr. Hains, of the D. & R. G. freight department, left for San Francisco on Sunday evening.

The G. S. L. and H. S. surveyors, under Mr. Velie, are busily engaged in marking out the line of that road between Farmington and Kaysville, preparatory to the extension of the building there.

The Union Pacific gives as the time of departure of the special train for the Fourth, between this city and Ogden, the following: Leave Salt Lake 7 and 9 a. m. and 2:10 and 4:30; leave Ogden 8:30 a.m. and 3:15, 5:15 and 12 p. m.

The one dollar fare on the D. & R. G. and U. P. roads is good from this city to Ogden, or from Ogden to this city, or to the Junction people can come in town on the Ogden day excursion.

The G. S. L. and H. S. railway will run hourly trains between Saltair and Hot Springs on Fourth of July, as announced in the Sunday News.

Funeral Yesterday.

The funeral service over the remains of George U. Jackson, the only son of Thomas U. and Mary A. Jackson, late of Hull, England, was held in the Twentieth ward meeting house yesterday, Sunday, commencing at 1 p. m. The services were presided by Bishop George Romney, who, in connection with other speakers addressed the large assembly present. Consoling remarks were made by Elders James H. Anderson, Thomas Jones, Rodney C. Rollins, James H. Bean and Oliver Hodgson, who had become acquainted with the family as missionaries in Great Britain, and Bishop Joseph H. Steed, William Dunn and George C. Gibbs and Bishop Romney, who had known the family here. The sketches shown in the miscellanies and the neighborhoods of Saint Jackson and family were spoken upon, so were also the tribute they had paid to cases through. Brother Jackson died at New York a little over one year ago, was home in Utah, and was buried there. His temperaments followed, from heart disease resulting from inflammatory rheumatism, and a daughter, Ada, is now seriously ill with similar trouble. The deceased left his wife and children, the latter attended by relatives, the former has sympathy of Elder Jackson and family in the mournful. Bishop Romney and the large number of friends the deceased has made in Utah, who will be sorry to extend their sympathy to the bereaved relatives. Elders Anderson, Rollins, Bean and Dunn, who had known the family here, will give consolation to them in their sorrow. The remains of the deceased were interred in the city cemetery.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elders J. W. Walker and Angus M. Cannon Address the Congregations.

Religious services were held in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, on Sunday, June 30th, 1895, Elder Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake stake, presiding.

The choir sang the hymn:

Come, ye saints, look on the east,
The day is dawning, the morn is breaking.

Prayer was offered by Elder Wm. C. Dunbar.

The choir sang the hymn:

Do we not know that around us stand
Ones we have loved on the land?

The first speaker was Elder J. W. Walker, lately returned from a mission in the Southern states. He said he had enjoyed his labors very much. The people on no whose he had labored in the church were some of the most deep-rooted in the world, upon the Deseret. He had no fault at all to find with the people. They are entitled to the earnest prayers of all the Saints, that they may be helped to be led to a knowledge of the truth and that they might render obedience to the principles which the Lord revealed through the Prophet.

The speaker objected that he was again permitted to mingle his voice among the people of God, and asked them to pray and petition earnestly in behalf of the missionaries who are about proclaiming the Gospel. He said that those who had received in the missionary field should not worry about them, as they had called them to that mission, and He can protect them as well there as at home. There are in Utah relatives in the southern States proclaiming the Gospel should not fear regarding their welfare for they are among a people who will provide for their wants, and God will when He sees fit, call them to their homes.

Elder Angus M. Cannon was the next speaker. He said he felt glad to meet in the tabernacle to pour out his soul to God. Many who have just returned from the mission field. When they go forth to preach the Gospel the glory of their mission is not to the number that they baptize into the Church. It exists in the evidence that they give of their integrity and worthiness, and while they prove influential they also prove the people to whom they minister, for it is so essential that evidence be established upon which the world may be convinced as it is that evidence should be furnished upon which the righteous may be saved. Jesus came unto His own, that they might receive Him if they would and be saved, as God they might reject Him and be condemned. And if there is one evidence above another that is forced upon the redemption of the world, it is now literally the declaration of Jesus the best fulfilled prophecy in the Jewish nation. They have been driven and threatened and persecuted to a terrible manner, and have become a nine and a byword among all nations.

The latter-day Saints claim that the Gospel has been brought to us from heaven by holy angels. We want to be the chosen people of God, and we have received manifestations of the Holy Ghost. But how many of us are there who live our religion, and how many of us are there who are ready to follow our Priesthood and calling and go back upon the duties that are required of us as Saints? Many justify themselves in transgression and sin, and then turn around and ask God to receive upon us the highest glory that it is possible for Him to give.

The speaker urged the people to live up to the principles they know, and seek they should be willing and ready to consecrate everything for the cause of God.

The choir sang the anthem:

Benediction by Elder Abraham H. Cannon.

Report From Elders.

Editor Deseret News:

Yesterday news is received and read with pleasure among the traveling Elders. After reading it we divide it among the saints and people whom we are laboring and it creates quite an interest among them to hear the Gospel. The children of the Kingdom of Heaven are increasing in us.

On the 16th inst. we had a good meeting at Ellis, Kansas, with the Saints and people where we are laboring and it creates quite an interest among them to hear the Gospel. The children of the Kingdom of Heaven are increasing in us.

Yours respectfully,
PRESCOTT C. ROOT,
ALVIN C. GRANT,
MEADVILLE, Franklin Co., Miss.

MME. YALE'S HAIR TONIC.

Leaves no competition. It affords no group, possesses to call the attention of the public to my Yale Hair Tonic, which is the new and only remedy known to manufacture, which positively turns gray hair back to its original color without dye. I personally believe it is a boon and gift, particularly to women generally, that it has been tested in every conceivable way, and has proved itself to be the very Hair Specific. It stands alone, unique, unique and curious a remarkable scientific combination, non-injurious. It is not sticky or greasy, or dirty, and it makes the hair soft, youthful, fluffy, keeps it in curl and remains dandruff. The gentlemen and ladies with bald spots, receding gray, untidy gray, and with BALD HEADS, it is specially recommended.
