ADJACENT CITIES

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - Dec. 5, 1893.

[illegible]

In the Fourth District Court.

The following business came before Judge Miner yesterday:

The suit of Richard [illegible] vs A. H. Nelson et al. on certain notes and interest amounting to $[illegible], alleged to be due, complaint [illegible] of the day.

In the case of [illegible] vs C. C. [illegible] the defendant objected to trial and the court ordered the case stricken from the jury calendar. Plaintiff took exception to the order.

A. H. Nelson, administrator, vs the Southern Pacific Railway company, dismissed without prejudice.

The grand jury returned one indictment under the United States laws and three under the territorial statutes. Bench warrants were issued in each case.

The case of the People vs W. F. Nelson, embezzlement, was ignored, as were also the following: The People vs C. A. Larsen, assault to commit rape, and the United States vs Charles Lindquist (not Undertaker Charles Lindquist), fornication.

Notes and Personals.

A number of valuable oil paintings that have been on exhibition at Chicago during the World's Fair came in last night and were sent west where they will be placed in the Midwinter Fair.

Several teams were engaged yesterday in cleaning Washington Avenue off the mud that was everywhere prevalent since the recent rainstorms.

H. O. Harkness is down from McCammon, Idaho, on business.

Thomas Fowler, from the Garden City, is in Ogden and registered at the Broom.

A. E. Welby, general superintendent of the Rio Grande Western, and Joseph Bruker, freight agent, were up from Salt Lake yesterday.

David Henderson's "Sinbad" extravaganza company came in yesterday from the East by special train and proceeded on to their destination—San Francisco.

Chas. Crane was before Commissioner Terrea on the charge of stealing a log of wood. He was found guilty and fined $2 and costs.

Ex-Governor Warren, of Wyoming, was in Ogden yesterday.

W. H. Rowe, assistant superintendent of Z. C. M. I., Salt Lake City, was in Ogden yesterday on business.

Attorney Thomas Marshall was in this city yesterday, representing the Southern Pacific Railway company in the Nelson damage suit against the company.

Adjourned Meeting of Council.

About 8 o'clock last night the special meeting of the city council was called to order by President Bessab. Roll call showed present Councilmen Maguire, Paine, Warner and Harrop. There not being a quorum present the meeting was adjourned until [illegible] this evening when an effort will be made to consider the franchise asked for by the Pioneer Electric Power company. The action of certain members of the council relative to the said franchise is meeting with unfavorable comment from the best citizens of Ogden.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - Dec. 6, 1893.

First District Court.

In the Lou Harrison fornication case, the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

S. B. Moore was tried on the charge of assaulting Wm. Wilson with a deadly weapon, and found guilty. The two quarreled last winter in Riley's saloon over a gambling matter, and Moore made a dive at Wilson's jugular with a pocket knife, inflicting an ugly wound.

Charles Curtis, the Salt Lake young man who attempted to pass a forged check on Sam Schwab, pleaded guilty to forgery and was sentenced to a term of two years in the penitentiary.

W. L. Scott, a Juab county officer, who failed to be present in court in the Anna Marks case, was fined $25 for contempt of court. Scott's excuse was that he had missed the train, but the court did not consider the explanation valid.

Joseph Parker pleaded guilty to unlawful cohabitation and was sent to the penitentiary for four months.

County Court.

The county court is in session. Among the items of business transacted are the following:

John N. Clark was appointed constable for Vineyard precinct.

The claim of Mayor W. N. Dusenberry for services on the county board of equalization, [illegible], which has been "[illegible]" between the county court and the city council, was again presented. The sum of $20 was allowed, but the court desired it to be distinctly understood that a claim for such services in the future would not be allowed.

The [illegible] reported the [illegible] of [illegible].

Marriage Market.

Licenses to marry have been issued to [illegible] Fowler and [illegible] W. [illegible], of American Fork, and [illegible] H. Carlos, of [illegible], and [illegible] H. [illegible].

PAYSON.

PAYSON, UTAH, - Dec. 5, 1893.

Hoodlumism.

Payson is infested with a gang of young hoodlums whose actions would hardly be tolerated in any other city of Utah while such [illegible] as they are here. The principal incidents are [illegible] the day, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the people, [illegible] and [illegible] their [illegible]. Two of these [illegible] at [illegible] the fall at the opera house on Thanksgiving night and created [illegible] disturbance. Both were intoxicated, but they were allowed to remain and perform their antics. The [illegible] were turned off twice and [illegible] the two hoodlums, arm in arm, paraded the ballroom floor, [illegible] their [illegible] with a [illegible]. Several prominent gentlemen present requested the hall management to [illegible] a stop to [illegible], and [illegible] of the [illegible] at various times [illegible] their [illegible] the same request but to no avail. The two had paid for their dance tickets and this [illegible] the [illegible] no matter how disgusted the ladies and gentlemen present might be. They had their way until [illegible], when an [illegible] between one of them and another party, ending in a [illegible] fight and the [illegible] of the [illegible] in the "cooler."

Seriously Ill.

Lizzie [illegible], the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] of Citizen, Utah, is lying very ill at the residence of Mr. [illegible] of this city. The little girl has been suffering from pleurisy for some weeks past, and last week a large swelling appeared around the heart and left lung. She was brought down to Payson for medical assistance, and Drs. Shores and Tilton, after consultation, decided to tap the swelling. The operation was performed on Saturday and the patient is now resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

General Jottings.

Mr. John Dixon has commenced the erection of a fine residence on the lot directly north of the meeting house.

Mrs. Agnes Douglass, wife of the late Wm. Douglass, has been very ill for several days past.

Mr. Frank McCaw has reopened his watch and jewelry repairing business in neat quarters on Main street.

The burglars who entered the R. G. W. depot here on Saturday night carried off a quantity of boots, shoes, and caps. They were apparently not satisfied with this line of booty, and having no other means to wreak vengeance, they cut and slashed several mattresses and a plush covered sofa which were in the freight warehouse. Agent Sherman feels confident the thieves will be captured.

Joseph S. Douglass is preparing a concert to be given for the benefit of the First ward choir and Sunday School, at the Opera house, the Friday preceding and following Christmas.

The local branch of the I. O. O. F. will probably give a select ball before the holiday season sets in.
