BEAR RIVER TRAGEDY.

Christian Peterson Shot Dead by a Gun in the Hands of Jed Abbott.

MAN QUARRELLED OVER BONE HOGS.

Peterson Threatened to Use a Pitchfork, While His Antagonist Got a Gun and Fired.

Special to the "News."

Yesterday a fatal shooting occurred at Bear River City resulting in the death of Christian Peterson of that place, by the discharge of a gun in the hands of Jed Abbott.

The particulars of the shooting as nearly as can be learned are as follows:

Early yesterday morning George Abbott, a younger brother of the man who did the shooting, got his hogs on to some hogs belonging to Peterson which were running at large and were at the time upon Abbott's farm. Peterson went over to Abbott's place a few minutes later and asked him if he could and would drive those hogs off.

"I don't know," said Abbott, whereupon Peterson struck him in the head with his pitchfork and started into Abbott but Peterson warned him to keep off or he would run his pitchfork through him.

Abbott then looked around for something to defend himself with and was hardly out from the house when he was shot down, swearing which he stopped out and ordered Peterson to leave the premises. Peterson then came forward threatening him with pitchfork, Abbott warning him away.

Peterson at this time turned round, stepped back a few feet and stooped down to pick up a rock when the gun was discharged, the charge entering Peterson's right side just under the arm.

Abbott hitched up his team and drove to the residence of Mr. Hawes, about half a mile distant, and told them of the shooting and requested them to take charge of the body. He then came on to this city and gave himself up to the officers about 8 o'clock a.m.

Peterson was about 45 years of age. Abbott is a brother of Sheriff Abbott, of Box Elder county, Sheriff Davis, Dr. A. W. Taylor and County Attorney Alder went out this morning to hold an inquest.

Railroad Sales.

B. F. Norton, the general agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, has returned from a trip to the West.

A. J. Gregory, the Rio Grande agent of the D. & R. G. railroad and his family have returned from a visit West. The "Elkhart" will start out on the line to catch up with the business that has been accumulating.

A party of 13 residents of Park City came down from that place last evening over the Rio Grande Western to attend the Tabernacle concert in aid of the building fund of the various churches that lost their places of worship in the fire. They will return by special train at 11:30 this evening.

Night School at the Templeton.

The business department of the Latter-day Saints' College will begin its regular night school work at 7 o'clock this evening. The subjects taught will be bookkeeping, phonography, typewriting, grammar, algebra, spelling, penmanship, commercial law and telegraphy.

Extensive Lagoon Improvements.

Mr. Bamberger is already laying plans for next summer's entertainments at his pleasure resort, the Lagoon. He intends adding three fresh water baths, and the work has already commenced. The resort has it that he is about to spend $15,000 on the Lagoon between now and the next excursion season.

Down from Gunnison.

Gunnison, Utah, Sept. 19, 1898.

To the Editor:

A fine meeting house of brick with stone basement, tank, well prepared and well furnished adorns this fast-growing town; also a commodious school house, containing three large class rooms, with wide folding-door-separated entrance and cloak room.

The enterprising merchant, W. W. Brimhall, of the firm of Brimhall Mercantile Co., is erecting a fine brick business house, having two stores and basement containing commodious warerooms.

Walker House has started to build, and from the style of the foundation, it will be finished in keeping with the rest of the town, that the citizens may well be proud of and will compare favorably with the other Lagoon hostelries, the residence of David Morgan and A. H. Perry.

The new land (so-called) war of the town under the ditch led to the erection of large reservoir recently constructed in the south end of Juab county, is contributing to a very active real estate market at this place, which will no doubt reach thirty thousand bushels. From the town site to the reservoir, the entire area of the large orchard planted on the newly reclaimed land to the west. The entire Sanpete county people, it seems to be in the ascendency. Come by at whole gangs I called were hastily engaged filling gunny sacks from granary about eight hundred bushels of wheat. Their minds were exercised over the capacity of their granary to contain the produce of their farms, and how they too claim the privilege of team to haul to elevator.

The Gunnison even has a new hot front for the accommodation of the public. Garden is surrounded with flowers and plenty of shade, inviting resting, refreshed and happy. The only cause for regret is the prolonged illness of your good friend, John H. Johnson, and the anxiety it seems affords stories there. If their boys who have not yet returned, from the war.

ALBERT JONES.

Another Pioneer Dead.

San Bernardino, Cal., Sept. 15, 1898.

To the Editor:

Stephen H. Hubbard, one of the first Pioneers of Utah, quietly passed away on Saturday, Sept. 10th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harrison, of this city, and his remains were peacefully laid away in the cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Elders D. A. Chandler and myself, according to his request.

Brother Hubbard was a native of New York state, born in 1816 and joined the Church in 1841. He was a tanner and took a faithful member ever since. He was the first leather of the chair that has since been made, and made the body of sinners. He owned the Golden Pride mines and adjoining property at Alta Canyon. He removed to California some years ago and resided in Pasadena, Alameda county. He was one of the few remaining Pioneers who were entitled to a badge at the celebration last summer, which he attended. Last fall he came to Utah and visited his old home, Bond, which place he has suffered more or less ever since. He was perfectly happy and ready to die. A large number of friends showed their respect to him by following the remains to the resting place.

The sponsor has been so expressly kind and generous to the family, that we cannot speak in too part of the deceased. Respectfully,

W. W. LUNT.

A Letter of Inquiry.

Providence, Rhode Island,
September 10th, 1898.

To the Editor:

Mr. Abbott: Hopes would be pleased to hear from people some relatives who joined the Church in England and emigrated to Utah. Their names are Rhoda Abbott (which was her maiden name), Mary Martin Pitts, her daughter Jane, and George Dobbs. They left Gorsbrook, Lincolnshire, England, forty years ago.

Any relatives living in Utah will be a favor by addressing Mrs. Rogers, her address is 101 Lonsdale Ave., Providence, R. I.

UTAH AND PACIFIC CONTRACTS

Bids Opened This Afternoon for Spikes and Rails for the Road.

Grade Work and Track Laying Contract Let to W. D. Hendricks & Sons of Cache County.

The directors of the Utah and Pacific held another meeting this afternoon at the office of President A. W. McCune, in the Hooper-Cluff building, to open bids and award contracts for spikes and rails for the seventy-six miles of road to be built from Milford, Utah, to the Nevada state line. With this contract let work can be commenced without delay and pushed to rapid completion. The contracts for the rails and ties were let some time ago, and already both kinds of the material are being hauled. The contract for the ties was awarded to Mr. Hendricks, of Cache county, Sheriff Davis, Dr. A. W. Taylor and County Attorney Alder went out this morning to hold an inquest.

The contract for the grade work and track laying was awarded to W. D. Hendricks and sons of Richmond, Cache county, was accepted. The successful bidders are those who have already shown their ability to do work of that kind of work in Utah and throughout the intermountain country. It is expected they will commence to carry out their contract according to the strictest construction that can be placed upon it.

The California firm had lower than the Hendricks by $5 a mile and would probably have secured the contract for the Utah road, provide for the payment of the wages of construction, train men and grade repair work. In case, however, the award went to the Utah contractors.

AMUSEMENTS.

This evening Henderson's company direct from the Great Northern theater, Chicago, will present William Gillette's great war drama, Held by the Enemy, at the Theater. A repetition of this play will given tomorrow night, while on Wednesday and Thursday evenings Young Mrs. Winthrop will be the bill. The sale of seats is now on at the Theater box office.

The comedy Two Married Men will be the opening bill at the New Grand. Manager Maloney says that his house will be continuously open during the entire season, a suitable attractions have been billed for every week. Improvements have been made in various parts of the comfortable little playhouse, the orchestra has been augmented to 10 pieces and every other detail made perfect.

The concert in aid of the churches that suffered losses through the fire in Park City, a short time ago, occurs in the Tabernacle tonight. The best talent of the city will furnish the program and as no excuse are to be allowed it should prove an enjoyable event. The chorus is certainly a good one and the house should be handsomely occupied.

A Sick Missionary.

Elder C. B. Jones of Coalville, called on the "News" today having just returned from the Colorado mission in company with Elder N. C. Holmes, of Pleasant Grove, who was released to return home on account of sickness. Elder Howell has suffered for some time past from sickness and mumbles and recently contracted a very severe cold which developed into a case of typhoid fever. He is cared for by Elder John W. Taylor, president of the Colorado mission. Both the brethren have been working in Pueblo, Colorado, where much good is being done. Elder Jones reports the Church in that state as being in a prosperous condition. He will return to resume his labors after conference.

Elders' Reunion.

A reunion of the Elders who have labored in the Mississippi and Louisiana conferences will be held at Pleasant Grove, beginning Oct. 10, 1898. A large turnout is expected as quite a number of our brethren have labored in those states and they with their wives or sweethearts are all kindly invited to be here.

Spring Medicine

It needs a necessity by the im- pure condition of the blood after winter's hearty foods, and breathing vitated air in house, office, schoolroom or shop. When weak, thin or impure, the blood cannot nourish the body as it should. The demand for cleansing and invigorating is greatly met by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives the blood just the quality and vitality needed to maintain health, properly digest food, build up and steady the nerves and overcome that tired feeling. BEATEN WITH A HAMMER

Alex. Smith Uses One On His Employer, Frank Langston, the Blacksmith.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS BY THE BLOWS.

And Badly Bruised About the Head and Face—The Man Had Words—Smith Can't be Found.

Frank Langston, who runs a blacksmith shop at 67 S. State street, was assaulted shortly before noon today and badly bruised about the head and face by his employee, Alex. Smith, a laborer in the south of Alex. Smith, an employee.

From the story told by Acting Chief of Police Hilton, it appears that Smith came at his employer and as he approached the latter as he came now to take his company with a hammer. The surprised Smith to such an effect that he too picked up a hammer, and as only lapped Langston with it but delivered several heavy blows, felling the unfortunate man and nearly gouging one of his eyes out. A neighbor, hearing the noise of the scrimmage, telephoned the police station, and Acting Chief Hilton came down in the patrol wagon to notify and restore order made possible arrests.

Arriving at the scene of the trouble found Langston in an unconscious condition, the man badly bruised and bleeding from a number of ugly cuts on his face. He had his removed to his home at 121 east, Eighth South street, and a physician called to attend him. Langston's condition was quite serious, and it was not known what the result of his injuries would be, although it is believed he will recover if blood-poisoning set in.

After giving the injured man the necessary attention, a search was made for Smith, who had skipped as soon as making the assault. The acting chief learned upon inquiry at the home of his father, corner State South and Second East streets, but his parents stated that he did not live there, his sister was out then offered, Smith's own home is at 462 east, Third South, but he could not be found there, and had not been placed under arrest up to a late hour this afternoon.

The assault occurred about 12 o'clock, and Langston called shortly after, but immediately sank into a state of coma and was in that condition for some time.

ABOUT MORPHINE FIENDS

These Cured by Julius Kimball Have Made the Physician Good-bye.

All Provided with Homes and are Firmly Resolved to Lead Lives of Respectability.

Julius Kimball of the police department has not only made a success in the treatment and care of morphine fiends, but he has finally succeeded in getting each of them a place of abode—securing the poor creatures know not of Mormon Mormon.

Lulu Walker has joined her husband and leaves for parlors now this evening is in Marcus working at his trade as a barber. Mr. Kimball has given a fine opportunity in the future. Walter Cline carpenter, while Maggie Cline goes to her mother's home in Ogden, where she will be joined by her husband, where they will soon housekeeping and begin life anew, and Hay Cline has left for the Cheyenne Reservation, and will hereafter be found working for that denomination. This is the second time that Mr. Cline, the man, has reformed and was an officer in the army prior to his death, and his wife now refuses to his parents money amounting to $1, every quarter.

These six viewable decrepit souls have been made happy and free, and the road to lives of respectability. All have promised themselves cured of the morphine habit and before leaving the city Jail have set Kimball on his Great Jubilee Kimball for his kindness and care, and has in fact a debt of gratitude for the city's wife in providing for and looking after their welfare.

A fifth patient has entered the city jail in the person of Frank Lee, better known as "Kids." He is a confirmed morphine fiend and was arrested yesterday for assault on a little boy. In the police court today Judge Timmony gave him fifty days, and the Kimball Jubilee Band of the morphine habit has already been summoned, and will continue until he, too, is rid of the demon morphine. Julius Kimball has not yet rested an instant, and has been the Bible medical board, and has secured a "Doctor"—a little which he has already earned.

MINOR MENTION.

Ernest Rumsey and James H. Hay were yesterday sentenced to first and second degrees respectively by Judge W. Malone, superintendent of the Twentieth ward Sunday school. There is a vacancy in the superintendency by the resignation of H. J. Rumsey, former first assistant, and that of John Ashton, the second assistant, but now an aid to the general Sunday School Union board.

Elder Walter B. Alder, who leaves Saturday next on a mission, will be tendered a farewell reception in the Ward meeting house on Wednesday evening, September 28th. A choice program is being prepared and an enjoyable time will be made he said.

Funeral at Miss Minnie Davis.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Sept. 15.—Arrangements for the funeral of Miss Minnie Davis have not yet been made. The date of the funeral will not be decided up to until Mrs. James A. Garfield, of Cleveland, daughter of Mrs. Johnson Davis, shall arrive here.

Mrs. Davis is still prostrated and unable to read the many messages of condolence received from all parts of the country. Telegrams from that Southern State have been coming in all day long.

The interment will be in the South.

Gen. Chaffee Will Come West.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Major General Chaffee and Hamilton, who were prominent in the Santiago campaign, reported at the war department today. Chaffee is expecting a new assignment under the plan which is contemplated for the distribution of troops. They have been at Montauk Point, but the breaking up of the camp there leaves them free to go where they will. Chaffee's home is in California, and he will probably go there. Gen. Miles, with whom they served, has been very busy with his schemes for reorganization, but has not reached a point which makes obtainable any definite information as to where the officers will be assigned. There will be it is almost settled that Gen. Shafter will return to San Francisco and resume command of the Department of California. Such is his desire, and no doubt it will be complied with. The probability that a number of volunteer officers will be dispensed with has caused considerable discussion, among those who may be among the number to be dropped.

Most officers desire to remain in the service and influence is actually being exerted in order to keep them on the rolls of the war department.

To Foreclose the B. & O. Mortgage.

Baltimore, Sept. 18.—Suit was brought today in the United States circuit court for the foreclosure of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company, held by the Mercantile Trust and Deposit company of Baltimore. The bill was executed Dec. 15, 1887, and covered the entire line of railroad of the B. & O. and branches, including the line of the railroad, except those occupied in this city as original offices, all rolling stock and equipment, the first mortgage bonds of the Wheeling, Pittsburg and Baltimore Railroad company, and stocks and bonds pledged to be deposited.

The purpose of the foreclosure proceedings is to put the property into receivership in a position to go ahead with their plans whether all the stockholders consent or not.

OBITUARY.

EMMA WITHAM MUMMOTT.

Emma Witham Mummott departed wife of Thomas Mummott, died at Bolton September 8, 1898, after an illness of several months' duration. Deceased was born at Eccleshill, Yorkshire, England, April 27, 1841; baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1852 by Elder Henry Isaper; emigrated to Zion in 1861 with her parents, children in company with her husband's father and mother; married her husband to follow the next year.

Sister Mummott was a true Latter-day Saint, a faithful and obedient wife, a kind and loving mother, and died in full faith of the Gospel and in the hope of a glorious resurrection. She leaves a husband, seven sons, one daughter and numerous grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn her departure. Deceased took part in the settling and building up of Round Valley (now Bolton), and Deseret, and shared in the trials and hardships of those early days, which she did with patience or complaint, being of a meek and quiet disposition.

Funeral services were held at the house meeting house on the afternoon of Sunday, September 11, 1898. It was a beautiful and impressive sight which met the eyes of the writer, as the procession started from the late residence of the beloved deceased sister. The casket was tenderly borne by six stalwart sons, followed by the bereft husband, the children and scores of sympathizing friends. At the meeting house the usual singing and appropriate remarks were made by Sister Henry Isaper (who helped to dedicate the house 40 years ago), Daniel Thompson of the Bishop's presidency, Counselor Peter Nielson, Elder Sidney Fletcher and Bishop Thomas Taylor. Expressions of sympathy were also tendered from the Sunday school and ward choir, of which organizations Sister Mummott is the superintendent and leader respectively. The singing was appropriate and beautifully rendered by the choir, with Sister Hilda Wilson as organist. At the graveyard the dedicatory prayer was offered by Counselor William J. Hatch, after the hymn "Farewell all Earthly Pleasures," had been sung by the choir. A large procession numbering 32 vehicles followed the remains to their last resting place.

MARGARET ELLEN VAN NOTTA.

Helper, Sept. 16, 1898.—This evening at 7:30, my wife passed on to another condition of life. She had given birth to her seventh child on August 19th, and he passed away on the 30th. Her maiden name was Margaret Ellen Parrish. She was born in Lancashire, England, May 18, 1861; was married to J. H. Van Notta October 17, 1881.

J. H. VAN NOTTA.

MARY ANN LLOYD.

At Salt Lake City, September 12, 1898, in the ward house of the 9th ward, Mrs. Mary Ann Lloyd, of North Ontario, Cal. Mrs. Lloyd arrived here on July 29th last. She was at her three sons and other relatives residing in Salt Lake City, and unexpected demise was due to a sudden relapsing, the result of a slight injury she received in Ontario, about a week after her arrival here. While a stranger here, save to her immediate relatives, she will be kindly remembered by some of our people who have met her in her former home in Pennsylvania. She was a woman of sterling integrity and liberal views. As a religion she was a true well Baptist, but all times showed all the faith to working God as our true friend. Her three sons joined the Latter-day Saints in November, 1887. This she did not object to, but she never joined herself, nor secreted and detained by others for their religious views.

She was a faithful wife and loving mother. He died as she had lived, a firm believer in Jesus Christ and in a glorious resurrection. Three sons, one daughter and seven grandchildren survive her.—Com.

MRS. JANE WILKIE HOOPER.

Early on the morning of the 7th of September, inst., Jane Wilkie Hooper, wife of Elder William Hooper of Kaysville, quitted its earthly tabernacle and went back to God who gave it existence, there to await the resurrection of the just. There was gathered near her when the end came, at 11:30 a.m., her husband and all of her living children, her father, John Hooper, her sister, Mrs. Margaret Manning, and her brothers, George Galbraith and John W. Hooper.

The deceased had been an invalid, and it came a great sufferer, for nearly six months prior to her death, having been stricken with hemorrhage of the lungs, which was followed by attack from which she seemed utterly unable to recover. Every attention that loving hands could bestow was given her, but beyond easing her pain and comfort her to her comfort, the efforts of friends and physicians were alike unavailing. Her end was peaceful. Her last days she slept in a state of comatose condition, and the last few days she slept continuously, and her end was sweet. There was no struggle, no word was spoken, but as if an angel's hand had touched her brow she passed from life to the realms of promised rest. In the tracings of prolonged suffering and illness, her face assumed a calm and happy expression as the spirit passed away.

Jane Wilkie Hooper Hood was the daughter of John and Annie Wilkie Hooper, and she was born in Southampton, Hampshire, England, on May 2, 1845. While she was an infant her parents moved to Wales, and were engaged as steward and stewardess on the steamship Brilliant, which sailed between Wales and Liverpool. Her mother joined the Church in 1852, and in 1855 her father also became a Latter-day Saint. In January, 1864, the family started from Liverpool to come to Utah, and early in February they sailed from Liverpool for New Orleans on the sailing vessel Guiseppe, arriving at their destination after a six weeks' voyage. They reached Salt Lake City on October 5, 1864, after having walked the greater part of the distance across the Plains. On April 17, 1865, the family came to Kaysville, where they resided. Here she married Mr. Hooper on May 8, 1866.

Brother and Sister Hood were married on September 8, 1881, and her home has been in Kaysville ever since.

She has been very active and prominent in the various local church organizations. She was the oldest member of the ward choir, and was an officer of the Relief Society and the Sabbath school. When the Kaysville Primary Association was organized in 1878, she was chosen as president, a position which she continued to fill until her death. During recent years much of her time has been devoted to public work, and to caring for the sick. Her gracious character seemed to be in touching and comforting the sick. She was a faithful, true and consistent Latter-day Saint, a commodious and loving wife and mother, a kind and true friend to her neighbors and infirm, and her memory will be cherished by all who knew her in life.

The funeral services were held on September 15th, the speakers were Elders F. D. Richards, Angus M. Cannon and George C. Lambert of Salt Lake City, Bishop Joseph Cowan and Bishop Burton of Kaysville. There was a very large attendance. M.

DIED.

SANDHURST.—On the Twenty-third ward, Salt Lake City, Utah, September 18, 1898, of typhoid fever, after an illness of three weeks, Mrs. Emma Marie Sandhurst, daughter of John C. and Annie M. Sandhurst.

The deceased was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, and was twenty years old. She was esteemed by her schoolmates, and was in every way an intelligent, exemplary and lovable girl. At the time of her death she was a member of the Sunday school secretary and was connected in the presidency of the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association of the Twenty-third ward.

The funeral will be held from the Twenty-third ward meeting house on Tuesday, September 20, 1898, commencing at 2 o'clock p.m. Friends of the family invited to attend. Interment at the city cemetery.

MEMMOTT.—At Provo, on August 29, 1898, of old age, Sister Mercy, wife of John Memmott, born June 11, 1816; baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints October 26, 1841, by Elder Crosby Ayers.

Uncle Sam's Opinion.

The only way to gain an expression of opinion in this country is by a popular vote. When the people express their views on any subject, a Republican policy they do it at the ballot box. In domestic affairs they show their preferences by their purchases. When they prefer a preparation we certain to show their preference at the ballot-counter. That is the way Dr. R. Ballard's powder has grown so popular. People must go buying it because they think it the best baking powder on the market.

FOOD FOR CYCLERS.

Gum Feather, Lean Longer, and Taste Better.

The bicycle who takes long rides needs nourishment in a concentrated form. The jolting up of the system is hard work, and it tends to injury.

Cyclers and athletes who have tried the delicious Grape-Nuts, find pleasure in eats with our grocers, are fond in recommendation of them as a condition food, and as a food for brain, nerve and muscle, while at the same time is easily digested.

There is a notable fact that more hard work, mental or mental, can be done on a meal of Grape-Nuts than upon any food with a substance.

Proof of this is to be found among those who use Grape-Nuts and have the experience.

And care is its delicious flavor and its popularity is unlimited.

This food is made by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Hair Hints

It is much easier to keep the hair when you have it than it is to restore it when it's lost. If your hair is "coming out" it needs instant attention. The use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will promptly stop the hair from falling, and stimulate it to new growth.

"Some years ago my hair began to fall out and I became quite bald. I was advised to try and had used it but a short time before my hair ceased to fall out and a new growth appeared. The result is exactly what I desired.
