MARKET ENDED IN BETTER SHAPE

Belief Expressed That Turning Point in Low Prices is Passed.

WEEK ON MINING EXCHANGE.

Dern and Knight Issues Show Market Gains—Closing Quotations.

The local market for mining stocks probably hit the low water mark on Thursday. The rally began on Friday and when trading ceased today, many of the leading stocks showed gains all the way from 20 to 60 per cent. A feeling of confidence prevailed about the stock exchange and brokers, as well as investors, are hopeful of a gradual improvement in market conditions. This is a pleasing state of mind to be in after such strenuous times as have been experienced lately. The Dern stocks, so-called, have made decided headway. Lower Mammoth, which sank to 90 cents a share, sold up to $1.45 today; May Day, which sold as low as 29 cents earlier in the week, is now in demand around 47 cents, while Uncle Sam Consolidated has risen from 60 to above 80 cents. Two of the Knight issues, Colorado and Beck Tunnel, are higher, yet the latter displayed an inclination to lag on the open board today, when it sold down to 78 cents. The impression seems to prevail that the November dividend will be passed; at least there is a lot of uncertainty about it. Sioux Consolidated sold as high as 40 cents today and dropped back to 36½ cents.

Ohio Copper was the only unlisted stock sold on the open board. It came out at $2.25 and $2.30. The closing quotations and sales were:

CONDITIONS IN BINGHAM.

Camp Paper Reviews Conditions as They Now Exist.

In reviewing conditions as they exist at the present time in Bingham, the Press of that camp has the following to say:

The Utah Apex has ceased producing ore for the time being and has commenced extensive development work. The Markham Gulch mill will close down until next month, when it will be furnished ore from the Red Wing mine.

The Last Chance mine has shut down. The entire force was released Tuesday excepting a few men who will police the property and keep it in repair. Supt. Kirk has disposed of his household goods and is preparing to return to his old home in Alabama.

The Winnemop mill shut down last Friday. In this connection we might say that the New Ute compressor is completed and is now running in fine shape. Development work is being pushed rapidly in the Weir tunnel.

The United States company has put on more men and is now working two shifts regularly. There are no signs at present of a decrease in its output.

The Utah Copper is working at full capacity. There seems to be no let-up in its productions. Its greatest difficulty seems now to be to secure more cars in order to convey the productions of the mines away from the workings. Its average output is over 150 cars a day.

Reports late Wednesday evening say that the Boston Con. has closed up its entire workings and discharged the remaining 125 men who were on the works. We know nothing further whatever of the intentions of the company.

The Frisco has ceased active operations and is busy making extensive changes in the plans of its plant. The compressor is being moved from the upper workings to the mouth of the lower tunnel No. 3. The blacksmith shop is already located here. The headhouse of the tram is also being moved to this tunnel and hereafter it is proposed to convey all the ore from the property through this tunnel and thence to the tram.

The exodus of miners from the camp has greatly decreased. In fact, some are coming here from other places. There are as yet but few men idle. This number is composed of unskilled workmen. Times are exceptionally good for the skilled workmen in all trades.

REPORT UNTRUE.

(Pollock Special Wire.)

Boston, Oct. 26.—An official of the Calumet & Hecla says: "The report that we have sold copper during the last few days at 12 cents is absolutely without foundation and furthermore we shall not sell any at that price. We believe that the bottom has been reached."

NEW LEAD STRIKES.

Official of Leamington Mining Company Brings Good News.

The development of the property of the Leamington Mining company, located near the town of Leamington, Millard county, is progressing in a manner which is highly gratifying to those interested. Shipping ore has been encountered on the 85 and 115 foot levels, while the bottom of the incline shaft, which is being pushed on to the 200, is entirely in ore.

George Pugsley, one of the directors of the company, is in the city today and exhibited some picked samples from the levels stated carrying lead values as high as 70 per cent.

The Leamington company was recently organized with C. Overson as president H. A. Smith as vice president; Newton Farr, secretary and treasurer; who, with J. H. Clive and George Pugsley complete the directorate.

UTAH CON. WILL KEEP RIGHT ON

A Boston Dispatch Gave Intimation That Shut-Down Would Occur.

IS NEWS TO MGR. RISQUE.

Big Bingham Property Is Responding Splendidly—Plenty of Fuel.

A private message received from Boston last night gave the intimation that the Utah Consolidated mine and smelter would be shut down on November 1. The attention of Manager Risque was called to the rumor and from him it was ascertained that he had received no such orders and, as far as he knew, operations would continue right along without an interruption. "I am rather of the opinion," declared Mr. Risque, "that I would have heard something from the eastern office by this time if the directors had decreed to close the Utah Consolidated. I don't believe there is anything to the Boston story."

The Utah Consolidated is one of the few Bingham propositions which has neither curtailed its output nor shut down entirely. Both the mine and smelter have been running at full blast right along and there is no reason to doubt that the output of copper will be even greater this month than it was last when it turned out, according to a statement emanating from an eastern source, approximately 1,250,000 pounds.

Utah Consolidated is in better shape to withstand the present copper depression, as stated in the "News" several days ago than any copper mining company in Bingham. It has a large surplus to fall back on and can afford to refine its copper and store it until the market conditions improve. But the ores of the Utah Consolidated mine are of a character which make it unnecessary to draw on the surplus—they contain associated values enough to pay all the expenses of operation, leaving the copper clear velvet.

The fuel shortage has been overcome and down at the smelter several thousand tons are in storage bins. The Rio Grande Railroad officials are seeing to it that it is delivered promptly, so all in all, things are running about as smoothly right now as anyone could wish for. The smelter is treating an average of nearly 900 tons of ore a day.

CONFIDENCE RETURNING.

Broker W. H. Tibbals Thinks Conditions Are Arighting Themselves.

In discussing the market situation as it applies to mining stocks, W. H. Tibbals said today:

"The present week has certainly been a very trying one. The action taken by some of our leading financiers, and by the secretary of the treasury, has had a tendency to restore confidence. When confidence is restored, there is naturally a reaction in investment securities. Oftimes this reaction is quite strong, and there may be another decline. During the past weeks or so, there have been indications that the forced selling was greatly reduced, and that some of the decrease in price is due to the fact that investors have not been in the market very extensively. They have been waiting for the bottom. Some, however, have been buying quietly for several weeks. One indication of this is the fact that the transfer books of many companies show an increasing number of small investors.

"The prices have not yet reached the low points of 1903 and 1904. Copper has not yet reached the low point of 1903, which was a little over 45 pounds sterling per ton. It is noticed that the daily sales of copper for future delivery are very greatly in excess of the cash sales.

"If you take the general condition of the country, you certainly find no cause for discouragement. The conditions are very different from those which prevailed in 1893. The general public is in very healthful condition. The manufacturing interests are also generally in good shape. During the month of October, there has been a heavy strain on the banks, due to the moving of crops. I believe that the conditions are such as to warrant some feeling of marked confidence. There may be some reactions and some lower prices, but in general investors are beginning to inquire, and are asking for advice as to what stocks to be bought. The answer may be that almost any of the good substantial stocks should be bought at the present time. If they go lower, they should still be bought."

THE DALY JUDGE.

Installation of Electric Haulage System Progressing.

General Manager George W. Lambourne of the Daly Judge Mining company returned last night from Park City on one of his regular inspection trips. He reports good headway being made with the installation of the electric haulage system in the mine; about 4,000 feet of copper wire has been strung in the tunnel and the hangers are practically all in up to the shaft.

Mr. Lambourne says it will probably be well along towards the end of December before the system will be ready for operation. Power will be supplied from a generator in the company's mill.

MARKET CLOSED UNEVENLY STRONG

Opening Was Rather Quiet and at Prices Higher Than Last Night.

SOME ACCOUNTS CLOSED OUT.

List Loan Sagged, Quotations Fluctuated Feverishly After a Rally.

New York, Oct. 26.—The stock market opened rather quiet and at higher prices than last night. Some of the gains were sharp, but as a rule the advances did not carry prices fully up to the early London quotations. There was a sprinkling of small losses. Louisville & Nashville rose 2¾. Amalgamated Copper 2¾. North American and General Electric 2. Federal Mining preferred and American Locomotive 1½. Consolidated Gas 1¼. Union Pacific, St. Paul, Chicago Greatwestern preferred "A" and Anaconda 1, and Southern Railway, Atchison and American Smelting large fractions.

The improvement in prices afforded opportunity to close out some accounts, and there was considerable selling which converged on the Hill stocks. Later on Reading and New York Central weakened, and in time the entire list became heavy, with most stocks ruling below yesterday's closing. Delaware & Hudson was 2½ below last night, Northern Pacific 2, American Sugar and Great Northern Ore Certificates 1½ and Missouri Pacific 1. National Lead rose 1.

The market closed irregularly strong. Prices fluctuated rather feverishly after a rally on the showing of a small deficit in the bank statement, but selling pressure was not heavy and the market steadied again. There was wide changes in some inactive issues. American Smelters Securities preferred "B" rose 15, Mackay companies 6, General Chemical preferred 4, Westinghouse Electric 3½, American Tobacco preferred 2½, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, and National Lead preferred 2, Cleveland C. C. & St. Louis 1¾, and Kansas & Texas preferred 1.

U. S. Rubber second preferred declined 2½. New York Dock declined 5. Federal Mining preferred 4½. American Can preferred 2¾ and Colorado & Southern first preferred and Toledo, St. Louis & Western preferred 2½.

COLORADO LICENSE LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 26.—The United States circuit court of appeals today handed down a decision that the Colorado statute prohibiting any foreign corporation from prosecuting or defending a suit in that state unless it has been paid an annual license of 2 cents for each $1,000 of capital stock is unconstitutional, if literally interpreted, as to any corporation engaged in interstate commerce. The court adds that the true construction of the statute is that it was intended to govern interstate commerce only.

The decision was rendered in a suit brought by the United States Rubber company, a New Jersey corporation, against a Colorado shoe firm. The court holds that the New Jersey corporation is engaged in interstate commerce which cannot be hampered by any state.
