WERE ILL ADVISED.

Tyranny Reformers Could Have Proved Their Innocence

INSTEAD OF PLEADING GUILTY.

The Real Plotters Against the Independence of the Republic Not Apprehended.

London, April 26.—The Daily Telegraph's Pretoria dispatch says:

Thanks to breakfast time arrangement here even the severe sentences that Judge Gregorowski has pronounced, and the sentence Mr. Hammond collapsed and was taken directly to jail in charge of his doctor and the chief jailer. The principal prisoners were driven to the prison with a strong police escort. The remaining waiting the distance of a mile are surrounded by a strong detachment of artillery.

The prisoners are very sober and they were deprived of pleading guilty. Fully forty of them have been fined and sentenced to imprisonment for assisting in joining the government law in the and signing the petition.

A strong feeling exists that behind those standing in the dock were about men in more guilty who were plotting against the independence of the republic.
