Man Shot Tells How He Was Wounded at the Last Day of the War—Confidence of the Camps.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 29.—Two sections of a freight train with North New Orleans were coming down a hill, when a broken rail let the engine off the track and the remainder followed in a wreck which occurred on the Louisville & Nashville road here Saturday.

KILLED.

First Fatty, company G, New York City.

Frank Gaskin, corporal, company G, Second Ohio.

FATALLY INJURED.

Sergt. J. J. Rodgers, company B.

SEVERELY HURT.

Thomas Brady, company E.

John Brennan, company F.

Thomas Gaffney, company F, 9th Regiment, New York, was carrying the swivel gun of the Rough Riders, and was killed. Gaffney was a Fenian. The accident occurred about 6 o'clock, three or four miles after the train left for the camp.

The train smashed into the first section, going at a high speed, and the wreck took fire from the engine. The blaze spread from car to car, and soon the whole train was a mass of smoking wreckage. The soldiers were all asleep and thought the first shot they heard was the explosion of a boiler. Many were severely scalded or burned in the conflagration.

PATRIOTIC SCENES.

New York, Aug. 29.—The United Spanish War Veterans, which numbers 1,000 members, left Tompkins Square 20th and 21st for West Point, which will be the camping place of the veterans for the next three days. The veterans will be joined by the Grand Army of the Republic, and a delightful time is anticipated. The veterans will be accompanied by the 9th Regiment, which will be the last regiment to leave Montauk Point. Gen. A. D. Russ, the adjutant, is in command. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, who was to have been the guest of the Rough Riders this week, has decided to go to West Point instead. Gen. Lee will be accompanied by his wife and daughter. The veterans will be met at West Point by the Grand Army of the Republic and Tammany. The veterans will be met at the New York Hospital, where they will be met
