COLD STORAGE PLANT FOR OGDEN

Colorado Capitalist Looking for Suitable Site for Big Refrigerator.

WRIGHT EMPLOYEES FEASTED.

Banquet, Ball and Sleighride Given by Clerks of Big Mercantile Establishment.

Ogden, Dec. 28, 1906.—C. M. McCammy, of Colorado, is in Ogden for the purpose of looking over the field for the establishment of a cold storage plant here, and has practically decided on putting the plant in Ogden if a suitable location can be obtained at reasonable figures. Mr. McCammy is backed in the proposition by a number of wealthy capitalists, who realize the necessity of such a plant in Ogden. Should Ogden be decided upon it will mean the expenditure of at least $50,000 in the putting in of a large modern storage plant, which the company will use in storing all kinds of perishable goods, which it will buy during the low season and keep in cold storage until the prices have advanced then place the goods on the market. It will also store large quantities of ice. Articles of incorporation are being prepared, and it is quite certain Ogden will secure the plant, which will be managed by Mr. McCammy, who is a man of experience.

WRIGHT CLERKS ENTERTAINED

Jolly Crowd Given a Sleighride, Banquet and Ball.

Ogden, Dec. 28.—A more jovial crowd of merry-makers could not be found than the employees of W. H. Wright & Sons company, who, last evening at the closing hour of the large establishment were loaded into 12 bob sleds and given a delightful ride all over the city, which lasted for a couple of hours, when the horses were drawn up in front of the Fifth Ward amusement hall, where the entire party left the sleighs and entered the hall, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Banquet tables were spread with a sumptuous repast, which was greatly enjoyed, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, singing, speech making, etc. The affair was one long to be remembered by all who participated. Messrs. Wright adopted this method of letting their employees know they appreciated their good services, in preference to the giving of Christmas presents as heretofore.

BARN BURNED.

A barn on the property of the Marshall Mercantile company located at North Ogden, belonging to Sidney Stevens of Ogden was destroyed by fire at an early hour yesterday morning. At the time of the fire there was in the building a carload of fruit box timber, 2,000 pounds of fruit paper, in addition to some harness, all of which are valued at $1,500. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

ICE HARVESTER BROKE HIS LEG.

Harvesting of ice at M. L. Jones' ice house commenced yesterday, when a large force of men were put to work cutting and storing the harvest. One of the employees, N. B. Oakley, met with a painful injury by falling a distance of 15 feet, breaking the bone of his left leg near the hip. The unfortunate man had been directed by foreman Samuel Thomas to climb up into the rafters and lower some timbers stored there. He was engaged in the work when he lost his balance and fell to the hard floor below. He was picked up by other employees and carried to a nearby house, where Drs. Condon and Joyce set the broken limb and had him removed to his home. The fall has terribly shaken Oakley up, causing severe bruises besides the broken limb.

COLORED MEN MIX UP.

William Bailey, a colored dining car cook, is nursing a sore cheek and jaw as the result of a blow inflicted by C. E. Shuckelford, another man of color, who struck Bailey with a billiard cue. The two men quarreled at the Assembly club rooms over $10 which the cook claimed the bartender owed him. Words soon led to blows, and Shuckelford put his opponent out of business by putting the cue through Bailey's cheek. Dr. Dickson dressed the wound. Both men were placed under arrest by Officer Layne.

THREE COUPLES TO WED.

Three couples have been granted licenses to wed by the county clerk. Charles L. Lighter, 21, and Miss Ruby C. Stahr, 20, both of Ogden City; James M. Smoot, 28, and Louise Damsy, 27, both of Slaterville; Charles F. Von Ehrenbrock, 23, of Denver, and Miss Jessie M. Simmons, 22, of Ogden.

DELINQUENT TAX SALE COMPLETED.

County Treasurer Alma D. Chambers has completed the sale of all delinquent tax property in Weber county for 1905. He states that the bidding of the property in his office yesterday was unusually slow, only a few pieces of the very choicest property having been sold to anyone but Weber county, who had to buy the most of the land in for the amount of the taxes. The greater part of the property on which the taxes were not paid is situated in the outskirts of Ogden City.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Mrs. Alice Greenwald was called north last night to Afion, Wyoming, by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Alice Eliza Stevens, who lived in Ogden for a number of years. Mrs. Greenwald's condition is critical and little hope of her recovery is entertained.

Arthur Pugh, who for a number of years has been very weak minded was examined by Drs. Condon and Condon as to his sanity and adjudged insane. He was taken to Provo this morning where he will be placed in the hospital. The shedlet pony given away by Richardson last week was won by John Saunders, a bootmaker in the employ of the Utah Construction company, who held the lucky number 11,020.

The barn of the Marshall Mercantile company at North Ogden was destroyed by fire yesterday, destroying a large quantity of fruit paper and boxes, doing damage to the amount of $1,500. The barn belonged to Sidney Stevens and was partially insured.

F. L. Maddux of Salt Lake City is in Ogden on business.

A small fire occurred last evening at the Elite cleaning plant, destroying a quantity of clothing.

exercise was attacked yesterday by Dr. W. G. Anderson of Yale. While addressing the members of the college gymnasium directors at the New York Athletic club, he declared that participation in sports is beneficial in almost every case. To emphasize his arguments he presented statistics, covering many years. He also stated that the statistics prove conclusively that the heart is not injured and that a larger percentage of athletes than those who lead a sedentary life do not die of lung trouble.

In discussing the relation of various conditions of the heart to muscular exercise, Dr. Meylon of Columbia university said that there was a decidedly higher rate of cardiac pulsations in speed than in strength tests, and as a result the former, if not conducted by an able, careful supervisor are apt to be harmful.

Dr. Phillips of Amherst college, admitted that that the man who ranks lower as a scholar than the man who does not train.

He also called attention to the fact that so much attention is given to the athletes who fall back the percentage; whereas comparatively little time is given to pulling up still higher the honor man.

Dr. Young of Cornell, while speaking of "Physical training for the student body," said that of the 2,500 students at Ithaca, 1,500 take part in some sport.

POLICE DISCOVERED A POOLROOM FOR WOMEN.

New York, Dec. 28.—Carelessness in the selection of a French maid proved the undoing of a poolroom for women in a brownstone house on West Fifty-eighth street yesterday. Inspector McLaughlin suspected the place and raided it. The inspector was greatly pleased three days ago at seeing an advertisement for a French maid to work in the suspected house. His detectives just now came in hunting up a young woman who could speak both French and English, and she had little trouble in getting the job.

Promptly at an hour agreed upon, this young woman threw open the front doors and the three detectives rushed in. They found three telephones working, a race at New Orleans being called off and is expensive, women were studying algebra sheets and pacing charts. The intrusion caused a panic among the women patrons, whose names and addresses were taken by the police.

Catherine Hoddick, accused of being the proprietress of the place, and three employees, were arrested.

PHILIPPINE SITUATION BETTER.

New York, Dec. 28.—Secy. of War Taft, who was in town yesterday, talked a little about the Philippines.

"The situation there," the secretary said, "is very much improved. The rice crop is good and we have just received reports showing that the typhoon did not cause the damage to the hemp crop that we thought it did. The Philippines have had eight years of hard luck, but I think the tide has surely turned."

ARMED REBELLION PLANNED FOR POLAND.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27, 11:36 p. m.—According to information received by the revolutionary leaders here, an armed rebellion on a large scale has been planned in Poland. The Socialist revolutionaries, encouraged by the success of the insurgents in the Baltic provinces and of the situation at Moscow and in Russia generally, have decided that the moment has come to try to cast off the yoke of autocracy.

The tactics to be followed are the same as those adopted at Moscow, the rising to be preceded by a general strike, which has already come into operation, bringing about all the railroads in Poland to a standstill.

An open rebellion in Poland would immensely complicate the situation for the government as, if it should gain enough headway to warrant reasonable hope of success, it probably would draw in the entire population and the government would practically have to reconquer the country.

WORKING THE BANKRUPTCY LAW

Representative Cousins of Iowa Making Effort to Have it Repealed.

THREE OLD-TIMERS IN HOUSE.

Richardson of Tennessee is Missing—The Preference of Williams and Bailey.

Special Correspondence.

Washington, Dec. 24.—Bankruptcy laws are periodical and sporadic. The constitution gives the federal government power over bankruptcy, but no law has ever proved satisfactory. The present law has been in operation more than six years, a longer period than has been the fate of most laws that have been enacted in the past, but it was not in effect more than a year or two before efforts were made to secure its repeal. Now the pressure is even greater than before, and many members of Congress hope a repeal bill will pass during this session. Among the most active advocates of repeal is Representative Cousins of Iowa, who introduced a bill the first day for that purpose and who says he intends to devote his time during the session to getting it through.

OPPOSITION TO REPEAL.

Senator Nelson of Minnesota, who was the man who framed the present law or the greater portion of it, does not think that there will be any repeal of the law. "At present," he said, "all creditors of an insolvent are given an equal share of the assets when a failure occurs. Without a national law business men who deal in a number of states must be ever watchful and are oftentimes shut out of any share of their claims because local creditors by attachment have forestalled them. My information is that jobbers and wholesale men are satisfied with the national law. The complaints are from bankers and business men in local towns, who do not like to take their claims into United States courts." Without a greater demand than at present it is doubtful if the repeal movement will receive the necessary support to make it formidable.

RICHARDSON IS MISSED.

James D. Richardson of Tennessee is not a member of the house this term, having voluntarily retired to exclusively attend to the affairs of Scottish Rite Masons, of whom he is the supreme head for the southern jurisdiction. For 24 years he was a member of the house and for most of that time one of the prominent members on the Democratic side. He was minority leader four years ago and would have been long before had it not been for the candidacy of Benjamin McMillin from the same state. Tennessee could not have two candidates, and as McMillin was the senior the delegation voted for him. But McMillin could not carry his party out of his state, and the only man in the house, one of the very young men in the house, was selected. Richardson is a first class parliamentarian and twice has presided over Democratic national conventions. He has been in the house since 1882, and has been a member of the house since 1882.

THREE OLD TIMERS.

Richardson at the time he retired was the oldest in point of service of any man of his party. There are but few long service men left on the Democratic side. Lester of Georgia, Bankhead of Alabama and Robertson of Louisiana are the only men who can be counted as long service men. Robertson and Bankhead have 18 years to their credit, and Lester 16 years. These men have not taken the active part in the affairs of the house which has given men the rank of leaders. Younger in service than any of them, both Bailey and Williams have been made leaders. The changes on the Democratic side have been rapid of late years, and those whose names were familiar in the days of Democratic ascendancy have disappeared. None of the men who fought Read and his followers so vigorously in the Fifty-first Congress is now in the house. These included Mills, Carlisle, the two Breckinridges, McMillin, Richardson, Crisp, O'Ferral, Turner, Wilson, Holman, Springer, Bland, Ryan, Dockery, Stone, Sawyer, Culbertson, Wheeler, and a few others. These men were from both south and north and along the border. They were among the men who helped to make the Fifty-first Congress famous.

PURE FOOD ON DECK.

Senator Heyburn of Idaho was early on the ground, and that means another pure food bill fight. This measure always passes the house and has a majority behind it in the senate if a vote should be reached. But such a vote is never taken. The senators who are "on to their jobs" beyond doubt.

TO PROTECT PICTURES.

Representative Fitzgerald of New York has a proposition before Congress to prevent the use of pictures of persons in advertisements unless such pictures are authorized. It is not very often that pictures are used in this manner, but occasionally some very prominent persons have their pictures used for the purpose of promoting brands of cigars, whiskies, foods, etc. Mr. Fitzgerald would prevent the use of these pictures when the advertised articles are part of the interstate commerce of the country. It has become possible to reach many things under the interstate commerce clause of the Constitution, but propositions for legislation of this character have great difficulty in securing the indorsement of Congress.

Colds

A cold is always the result of undue exposure to low temperatures. The rapid cooling of the surface, when not balanced by proper reaction, produces the congestion and inflammation of the nasal and bronchial membranes, commonly called a cold. As the slightest cold predisposes the individual to attacks of the most severe and dangerous character, the necessity for its quick cure need not be emphasized. Take as soon as the first indication of the cold appears and all dangerous results will be avoided. It not only cures a cold quickly but counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. This fact has been fully proven during the epidemics of colds and grip of the past few years. No case of either of these diseases having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, has ever been reported to the manufacturers or come to their notice, which shows conclusively that it is not only the best and quickest cure for a cold, but a certain preventive of that dangerous disease—pneumonia.

There is no danger in giving this remedy to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It is pleasant to take.
