DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 O'clock EDITION.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

NO. 224. FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1894. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXVII.

THE WAR IN AFRICA.

The Rebellion of the Kaffirs Assuming Alarming Proportions.

BOER SETTLEMENTS DEVOLATED.

Reports of Severe Fighting in Many Places and Much Property Destroyed.

PRETORIA, South Africa, Aug 17.—The rebellion of the Kaffirs is assuming alarming proportions. The Transvaal police detachment which has been attempting to relieve the garrison at Agatha has been repulsed with serious loss. Emboldened by their success the Kaffirs pursued the retreating troops and attacked the main column of Boer forces. The Kaffirs were driven back, but the advance of the column was recarded.

From Boer settlements all along the Lataba river come reports of severe fighting between isolated parties of retreating Boers and Kaffirs who are burning the Boer homesteads all along the river. The Boers are doing before the Kaffir advance, taking all their portable property, but large quantities of provisions and cattle have necessarily fallen into the hands of the Kaffirs. The latter have murdered a number of Boers and their wives and children and the general feeling of the Boers have been aroused against the natives.

In all the disturbed districts mail and passenger stations have been looted, the passengers killed, coaches set and destroyed and the mules stolen. Murchison road is entirely closed. The Kaffirs are reported to have reached a strong barricade circle at at a point where it passes between two hills, and they are said to have prepared to defend the circle. The government is reinforcing the troops as rapidly as possible, and it is expected an advance in force will be made upon the Kaffirs today or tomorrow.

PATRIOTIC JAPS.

They Collect Money to Aid Their Country in the War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The Japanese Patriotic society in the name of a very respectable weight has already branch establishments in Portland, Sacramento and Los Angeles. The object of the society is to collect funds from the willing Japanese contributors to be used in the war now in progress between China and Japan. The society of this city and Oakland has a committee of thirty members, and its president and treasurer is Sa Nakaita, manager of the Yokohama Specie bank. Mr. Nakaita said:

"We Japanese feel that we should do what we can to help our country in its war with China and so we called a meeting and formed a society. The committee having the collection of funds in hand is composed of Japanese in all positions of life. These gentlemen will collect the funds, accepting anything from one dollar up from Japanese only. The money will be sent to me and by me submitted to the central government. We do not propose to specify the purposes to which the money shall be put. We believe the government will know how best to expend whatever we send. I have already received about $700 through regular blanks and receipts will not be ready before tomorrow morning.

"We have received subscriptions from American merchants, but have declined to accept them as war contributions. While we appreciate this kindness we deem it wise to decline such offers. We agree, however, if the contributors wished to send the money to the Red Cross society, that is to say, the ambulance corps."

Strikers Not to Be Taken Back.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 17.—There is a uniform movement by the strikers on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe for their old places, but that for they have met with no success. General Frey remains firm in his original position not to take any of them back and to the general offices it is not believed that he will change.

EXPECTS TO BE EXPELLED.

The Pacific Coast Manager of an Insurance Company.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The Chronicle says: George H. Turner, the Pacific Coast manager of the Northwestern Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wis., expects to be expelled from the Pacific Insurance union on Tuesday next. He learned that his case was to come up from Manager Stillman yesterday, and though not very much surprised that his case was to be taken up, thought that an official notice in writing would not have been out of place.

The reasons for his expulsion are four in number. He is charged with paying excess commissions, for writing insurance at less than company rates, publishing the fact that he would use any the usual rates, and failing to live up pecuniary obligations. When questioned about the matter yesterday Mr. Turner said: "Yes, I believe I am to be expelled, and if I am, I will make it hot for the union."

Mr. Turner has always been somewhat of a thorn in the compact union, and the president of his company, Alfred James, is an avowed and outspoken anti-compact insurance man. The matter was discussed at considerable length by the insurance agents yesterday. On Tuesday next formal action will be sent President James to replace Mr. Turner and he will be allowed two months in which to move. Judging by Mr. James's former actions he is more than likely to lose no matter in the union and to tell Mr. Turner to cut the rates and get business.

HIS BODY FOUND.

Col. Winston Who was Lost in a Snow Storm.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 17.—Last November Col. L. C. Winston, of Pasadena, while with a hunting party, in the Sierra Madre range, became lost in a snow storm and was never again seen alive. His companions made every attempt to find him without success and were obliged to return to Pasadena. On Tuesday a young man who was hunting in the Little Dome creek canyon found the body of the lost man.

FOR THE BELLIGERENTS.

A Large Cargo of Freight for China and Japan.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—The city of Paris which sailed for Japan and China has aboard a large cargo of freight among which was considerable flour. For China there were 1,000 barrels of flour, 1,217 pounds of glassware, 60 cases of canned fruit, 11,000 cases of canned meats, 11,520 pounds of pearl barley, 74 packages of provisions and 63 packages of crockery. For Japan there were 1,411 barrels of flour, 152 rolls of leather, 55,175 pounds of compressed meat, 1,000 cases of canned beef and 474 cases of canned meats.

In the steerage were two young Japanese who were going home to become petty officers in the Japanese navy. They were well dressed and treated out with cheap fancy and made quite an impression among a number of their countrymen who were at the boat to see them off. In conversation with a reporter one of them named Iday Wakanaki said:

"We don't know that we will get appointments, but why not? Our government is looking out for officers among foreigners. I have seen service three years and so has my friend. I have been cook on the cruiser San Francisco and have picked up a great deal of experience. I know all about the white squadron and have pictures of the entire fleet. I have studied everything about the cruiser and understand all about the guns. I can give the Japanese government a few pointers.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

A Bitter Fight Between Prelates of the Catholic Church.

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 17.—In the village of Wilmington, on the Chicago & Alton road, is now going on a bitter fight over the temperance question. Two months ago the Rev. Anderson, Rev. Father Noonan and Rev. Mr. Irving appeared together in a hall in behalf of society. The journals were offended because Rev. Anderson and there was no harm in taking a glass of liquor and seemed to advocate moderate drinking. Father Noonan was quite strong in denunciation of the drinking habit and counseled total abstinence. The young priest had a long talk with Father O'Hara, his superior. The difficulty was of so serious character that an appeal was taken by Father Noonan direct to Rome. Counter charges were also made and Father Noonan stands suspended from active work until a decision is reached. Among the charges brought against him was appearing on the same platform with Protestant ministers.

John L. Sullivan Not a Black Eye.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—John L. Sullivan, the man from Boston, strolled through the city last night hand in hand with his most intimate associate, John Barleycorn. John L. and his friend made themselves heard and felt at Tammany Garden. First they took seats in the cafe. John L. was recognized. This pleases him. John L. had money and he wanted to spend it. He wanted to buy liquor for everybody present, and had a dozen waiters waiting on the happy to serve, until he became so boisterous that it was feared his old fighting fever would compel Manager Mabell to remonstrate with him.

The ex-champion cannot stand interference, so when Mr. Mabell began to raised his big fight arm, Mr. Mabell was loath to be smitten, hence he left the good arm, at the end of which there was a good fist, upon one finger of which there was a large seal ring. The blow landed squarely on the right eye of Sullivan, too ex-pugilist of the world, and the ring made a cut from which blood ran. With a bellow and a roar John L. started to annihilate Mr. Mabell, but his friends held him back. Then John was led to his box and saw the show through with a black eye.

The Commissioners Go Back.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Queen Liliuokalani's commissioners, Samuel Parker, H. A. Widemann and J. A. Cummins, arrived in Chicago last night on their way back to Hawaii.

"Our mission was not wholly unsatisfactory," said one of the commissioners. "We succeeded in presenting the subject of the present situation in the proper light. We did not expected, however, to have been able to keep the truth public, as it is called, from reaching Washington. We failed in that. President Cleveland has seen fit to recognize it. There is nothing for us to do but to leave the matter in the hands of the men of some day securing a change."

FOR PERSONAL INJURY.

A Damage Suit Filed For a Lost Hand.

OTTUMWA, Ill., Aug. 17.—C. D. Wood, a local business man, has filed papers in a suit against Patrick Doran, for $20,000 damages for personal injury. Doran is a wealthy contractor and owns the building which Wood occupied and was a warm friend of his several years months. Wood got into a fight with a man and Doran rushed to his assistance. In the fight he got a thumb in his mouth and thinking it bit off his friend's opponent began chewing it. It proved to be Wood's and he received such a wound that he had a bad attack of blood poisoning. He nearly died and physicians were compelled to amputate the hand. He now sues for damages.

THE CHINESE LOAN.

Supposed to Raise the Price of Silver a Little.

LONDON, Aug. 17.—There is no doubt that a loan of 1,300,000 pounds will be raised here for China on four per cent, 30 year bonds. Two-thirds of the loan will be payable to China in silver. Some financiers predict that silver will go up to 32d per ounce.

THE FREE SUGAR BILL.

The Senate Committee on Finance Adjourns Without Action.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The Senate finance committee met at 10 o'clock today to further consider the free sugar and the other separate tariff bills. The Republican members said they could not take the responsibility of reporting these bills. He served in the legislature there and was instrumental in electing John C. Fremont to the United States senate. In 1854 he became agent of the Emigrant Aid society here.

The Central American Republics.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—So far the American ministers in Central America have not served the state department of the movement for a union of the five small Central American republics into one large nation. While such a combination would be welcomed here, it is felt it is scarcely practicable, because of the personal rivalry of the many military dictators, which led to the downfall of the old confederation a quarter of a century ago.

Populist Nominees.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 17.—The union convention of Populists and organized labor nominated the following state ticket today: Secretary of state, Chas. B. Martin; judge of the supreme court, E. B. The Strike Investigation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The strike commissioners' investigation committee developed an enthusiastic disciple of Bellamy in Roy M. Goodwin, director of the A. R. U. Goodwin declared the strikes could be avoided by nationalizing the railroads and all other extensive corporations and industries. Prof. E. M. Bemis, associate professor of political economy, Chicago university, advocated, as a strike preventative, a national and permanent board of arbitration. A number of railway employes were examined, all of whom testified to having applied for work in different parts of the country since the strike, only to discover that they had been black-listed.

Three men were designated by lot to cross the border and assassinate the premier during his absence from Paris.

For the Exclusion of Anarchists.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The House committee on judiciary today decided to favorably report Senator Hill's bill for the exclusion and deportation of alien anarchists, which passed the Senate.

Hardly a Quorum Left.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 17.—There is hardly a quorum in the House of Representatives in town. Members are leaving on every train. Most of the Democratic leaders are remaining to make a quorum in case of an unexpected emergency on the tariff.

To Fill the Vacancy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The Democratic steering committee chose Senator White of California, to fill the vacancy in the finance committee. While there was some opposition to White on account of his being opposed to supplemental tariff bills, the large majority was favorable to his selection.

The attempt in the Senate to fill the vacancy by the appointment of White was objected to by Chandler. The Republicans insisted that the motion must go over under the rules. After a spirited contest Harris's motion for the appointment of White was withdrawn. Harris later put the motion in the form of a resolution and it went over until tomorrow.

Senator Murphy's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Senator Murphy offered a resolution in the Senate today to the effect that there will be no further legislation on the tariff at this session, in view of the Carlisle letter. He asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration, but it went over on objection by Cockrell.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The ways and means committee today voted to present a fifth tariff bill, making silver and lead ore free of duty. The Wilson bill made these ores free, but the Senate bill put a duty of ¼ of a cent per pound on them. Tarney, of Missouri, will make a report on Monday.

A Prince Arrested.

LORIENT, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from Paris says Prince Emanuel of Orleans was arrested in Brussels today on the way to visit the emperor of Austria.

CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS.

Debate of a Proposition to Fill the Vacancy in the Finance Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—As soon as the reading of the journal of the Senate was completed today Harris, on behalf of the Democratic steering committee, moved that the senator from California (White) be appointed to the vacancy on the finance committee, caused by the death of Vance. Chandler interposed an objection. Harris made the point of order that his motion was privileged because it looked to the organization of the Senate. Chandler remarked sarcastically that it was a little late to begin the organization of the Senate. He called attention to the fact that the vacancy on the finance committee had existed for months and it was proposed now to fill it at the very close of the session. Harris declared lately that it was with profound astonishment that he heard the objection from the other side. In eighteen years he had been a member of that body, and no matter what party in power, the majority caused, at will, the members of the several committees of the Senate and no voice was heard in objection. The course of Chandler he condemned as the most revolutionary.

Chandler declared that it came with ill grace from Harris to condemn the action made under the rules of which he (Harris) was such a master.

Then Hill got the floor and plunged immediately into a criticism of the legislation which the filling of the vacancy was designed to expedite. As for selecting a man for the place, Hill cared not for the one but was concerned he voted, he said, for them when they were legitimately before the Senate and he was not trying to escape from the record.

The conference report on the deficiency bill has been submitted to the Senate and agreed to.

At 1:40 the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The Republican caucus held here a minute after the adjournment of the Senate today and consider the question of party action with preference to the tariff bill, which was finally left to the finance committee, to take the sugar and lay other supplemental bills.

Sentence for Murder.

PULASKI, Va., Aug. 17.—W. G. Taylor was hanged at Newburn today for the murder of his wife.

SHE CANNOT LOVE HIM.

One Instance in Which Marriage Turns Out to Be a Decided Failure.

Probate Judge Blair has been the recipient of several singular epistles since his succession to that office, but one which reached him from Omaha this morning carries off the palm. It is from a disconsolate young husband who appears to have had a very brief married life, and that far short of a merry one. The cause of his grievance is best told in his own words. Subjoined is a verbatim copy of the letter, the names mentioned only being omitted:

OMAHA, NEB., Aug. 14.

Mr. Judge Blair:

Sheep, don't suppose that you will be surprised in getting a letter from the one party who married me the 7th of July, and what I have got to say, that the woman I married, she left me and her mother, I do not know, she was a very bad and the evil person one also had no temper, and she said that she could not live with me, and I could not swear or think of using of me or my mother, and she has made my life very miserable and unhappy and proved herself and which been under another name, and would not see my mother. I does all I could to make her happy and contented, but she would have it in the way she said that she thought that she could live on which we were married, but she said changed since we came to Omaha and what I can do but send you long to will take me to be free from her, and the end, for it will be one year if I long to how I will be in Salt Lake again, and I am over 1 (seven) from M. ——— and Lake does not know my wife my her.

Please to let me know whether in time and address to ———

Judge Blair says he thinks he would gladly assist the writer out of his difficulty, if possible, yet having performed the marriage ceremony, there his share in the deal must end. He cannot undertake to absolutely guarantee perpetual bliss to every couple whom he joins together in matrimonial bonds.

BROUGHT FROM OGDEN.

Captain Dyneson Killed Two Jail Birds With the Stone.

Moses Wasserman, the individual who skipped to Ogden without paying his board bill at the Walker House, was arrested in the Junction City by Police Captain Donovan last evening, under a warrant issued by Commissioner Pratt, and brought back to Salt Lake.

The officer also arrested on the street A. J. Lounds, alias Jenkins, who is wanted here for obtaining money under false pretenses and forgery. Lounds is the gentle youth who represented himself to be an agent for Auerbach Bros., entrusted to handle and sell Butterick's fashion patterns.

Both defendants were taken before Commissioner Pratt today. Wasserman's hearing was set for tomorrow at 2 p. m. Lounds was fined $10 and costs, but in default of payment he went to the county jail.

IN THE TOILS AGAIN.

An Old Time Tough Recaptured After Two Years of Liberty.

Frank McMahan, an old time convict and tough character generally, came unexpectedly back to familiar retreats in the city jail this morning after an absence of two years.

The officers run him in as a vagrant without knowing who he was and were not a little surprised when at the hall he was identified by a photograph in the Rogues' gallery as one of the cross who infested the city during the reign of terror here a few years ago. An examination of the court records showed that he was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and serve a term of imprisonment of six months in the city jail for having burglars' tools in his possession.

It is related incidentally that the "kit" was one of the most complete picked up by the police during that troublesome period. Of course being without money, McMahon's sentence amounted to fact to more than a year, but he determined to take advantage of the first opportunity to escape. In fact that occasion came and with others it was supposed that he had left the territory and probably did so but we not seen here until recently when it is believed he ventured back thinking he would not be discovered. But the sharp eyes of the officers, assisted by good memories and the art collection in the Rogues' gallery, soon proved the mount of a combination for him, and as a result, Judge Kimball will look after his welfare for the next few months.

WHERE IS CHARLES GOODSELL?

His Brother, Who Resides in England, Will Be Glad to Hear From Him.

A few days since a letter was received in this city from Sunderland, Durham county, England, addressed "Mr. Charles Goodsell, Wasatch corner, Salt Lake City, Utah, U. S. A." The writer is William Goodsell, who gives his address as 32 Saddle Lane, Monkwearmouth, Durham. His wife's name is Grace Goodsell. There is no person of that name residing near the Wasatch corner, but the letter was delivered at the house of ex-Deputy Marshal Charles Goodsell, of West Temple street, who singularly enough, has a brother William here—also an ex-deputy marshal, of the community name, but his moniker. Also in any way. It opens with the words "Dear brother and sister" and goes on to say that many years have elapsed since the writer heard from them. He is anxious to know whether his mother, sister Fanny and her husband are still alive, and states that he learned his address from Charles's address from a young man named Harrison, who says he has seen him, and was, presumably, recently going to England from Salt Lake.

Mr. Goodsell has handed the letter to the News, thinking that the publication of the names of the parties in the columns may be instrumental in finding out these truthful relatives.

Will Not Be Treated Now.

William Nixon, a notorious petty crook who has been in jail on three or four occasions, made that unmistakable fact known, was arraigned in the police court this morning on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. For some time past he has engaged in "blackjack" about the town, and got two of the well and well known gifts for a holiday from the Winter City, one being an Ogden and thoughtfully left in the Utah. He will probably and will receive his sentence next few. Nixon will not be "easy" on the future.

A UTAH COURT MARTIAL.

Captains Lund and Grant to be Tried for Disobeying Orders.

The Second district of Utah National Guard officers will meet on Monday next at the Industrial Home building in this city. The men against whom the charges have issued, are Captains Lund and Grant of the Nineteen and Dockster military companies respectively, both of which have been merged into the National Guard.

The charges are disobedience to orders in that both of the officers named took their companies to Calder's Park during the Tuesday encampment in violation of law.

The court will consist of Colonel Fowler, Colonel Adams, Colonel Stephens, Lieutenant-Colonel Clayton, Captain George W. Glover, Captain John Q. Cannon, Captain Gilbert and Colonel Dunn, who will act as judge advocate.

WHO STOLE THAT VALISE?

It Was Filled With Political Literature and Speeches to be Used in the South.

William Glassmann, editor and publisher of the Ogden Standard, called at the police station this morning and related how he had been made the unhappy victim of some unknown and unscrupulous individual who had taken a fancy to a valise of his at the Union Pacific hotel, where he stopped last night.

The loss of the grip in question, together with its contents, has already created a fund of merriment, from which heartless politicians have recommenced to draw at the expense of Mr. Glassmann, who was really deprived of property more than ordinarily valuable to him, when all of the surrounding circumstances are taken into consideration.

The gentleman was to take the morning train for the southern part of the Territory and was booked to speak at Milford tonight. Like all energetic politicians who go out on similar stumping expeditions he provided himself with a large grip full of political literature, speeches, etc., to be distributed among the audience. It was this grip that mysteriously disappeared last night. It is this grip for which the police have been looking all day but which they have not yet found.

Some Are Behind Time.

The territorial board of equalization will meet on Monday morning next to review the work of the assessors and county boards, but nearly a dozen county clerks have yet to be heard from, and unless these gentlemen now hasten to certify to the county their corrected assessment totals, there will be considerable of a stir. The law provides that this shall be done before August 15th, which was last Wednesday. Those derelict clerks are requested to hurry up.

Children's Minds.

The meeting last night at the Fourteenth ward Relief Society hall was well attended and much interest in the subject under discussion manifested. The paper of instructions read by Miss Alice Clapin, who is creating much enthusiasm among the ladies by her ability in presenting the theories underlying society and government.

Long evening the subject considered was, "The Accidents of Children's Minds." Mrs. Finch reading an excellently prepared paper upon the topic. After the reading of the paper a discussion upon the salient points brought out was indulged in by Mesdames Snow, Stewart, Hardley, James, Thompson and Miss Finch.

An interesting phase at the discussion was the environment of the child, especially in its earliest years. The trend of the sentiment was in favor of surrounding children with such influences as will cause them to do the duties of life. The duties of the mother in training and educating her children were also emphasized. The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, August 23rd. An excellent program has been prepared.

Afro American Entertainment.

This evening the members of the Authem M. E. church will give an educational entertainment at the G. A. R. hall for the benefit of the church fund. A program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, essays, addresses, tableaux and dialogues has been arranged. A great supper will also be served.

At Saltair.

The Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. A. gave their second excursion to Saltair last night. Tomorrow the Provo Sunday schools will take the R. G. Annual excursion will take a trip calling at the same resort.

IN BOY'S CLOTHES.

Two Salt Lake Girls Who Escaped from the Reform School Recaptured.

WALKED ALL THE WAY HOME.

Cut Off Their Locks and Attired as Boys Attempted to Hide Either as a Pair of Boys.

Bertha Cattle and Melinda Larsen, the two 15 year-old girls who escaped from the Reform school at Ogden on Monday that have been recaptured, and within a very few hours more, will again be inmates of the institution. The recaptured individuals upon whom they formed their home hoping never to look upon it again.

Both of the girls were committed to the reformatory from this city where both at times spent the major part of their young lives. After their escape the officers here have been on the lookout for them and finally landed them at the house of the Cattle girl late morning where they were in hiding.

In the police this morning the young M. was stated that when they regained their liberty it was to make some, each of them wearing a boy's shirt and a pair of overalls. They said they walked up to Ogden the first night where they got a pair of sheets and cut their hair, combed and parted it on the side. The next night they reached Layton, where they attended a ten cent entertainment and sat among the boys one of whom observed that their ears were pierced. The girls feared their sex would be discovered and declared that the pierching had been done for the benefit of sore eyes. The explanation was accepted as satisfactory but early next morning they were on their way again. They passed Wednesday night at Centerville and last evening reached home.

The mother of Mae Cattle was shocked at her daughter's appearance and soon provided her with a change of her old clothing but the Larsen girl was not so fortunate and still wears the suit in which she made her escape. The Ogden officers were notified of the arrest of the runaways and are expected to be down on the evening train to take them back to their old haunts. In the meantime they are both in the city jail.

DEATH OF COLONEL BREEN.

The Deceased Served Under General Johnson During the "Mormon War."

A Silverton, Colorado, dispatch of the 14th inst. says:

Colonel M. Breen, one of the old pioneers of South-western Colorado, died today after an illness of twelve weeks. The deceased was born near Limerick in Ireland and enlisted in the regular army at Albany, N. Y., and was orderly sergeant when honorably discharged at Fort Garland, Colo. It was not thought long that President Mulvey would make another attempt to resign.

Chief Pratt Answers.

As stated in yesterday's News, Addison McCullar & Co. filed a judgment against M. F. Wells and F. G. Wells for $268.17, and on this Chief of Police Pratt was called to appear before Justice Lochrie yesterday afternoon at 4:30 on supplementary proceedings to ascertain how much money he held which had been turned over to him by Wells. On the witness stand in reply to Attorney A. E. Sutcliffe, the chief said he had in his possession about $2,300 which he had received from M. F. Wells. Five hundred dollars of the above amount was in cash and the balance in checks. He also had a watch and other articles of value received from Wells, not as the property of Wells, but belonging to other parties. About fifty people had claimed the money and the jewelry. At the request of Attorney Sutcliffe Chief Pratt agreed to file a list of the parties who had claimed the property, both generally and specifically. The cattles who put up the money in the bonus game, it is contended by Attorney Sutcliffe, did so for an illegal purpose, but even if such were not the case the legal title to the money lived in Wells, they claim, in M. Wells and the only satisfied the parties who gave it to him who asserted it proved it to be fair dealing—say the next Wednesday.
