NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Flow in a Tilt Assaults a Big Contract in Prosser, Col.

SEEKS REWARD FOR A MURDERER.

Discovery Quarted at a Mine—Discovery of a Tin Mine on the Colorado River.

A San Jose, Cal., woman has reported to the police a strange incident she saw in the shape of a human claw tenanted by a man who had had his hands and feet cut off.

Kimball country, Wash., is now in its infancy in the West. It is 100 miles long and has an average width of fifty miles. The population is 15,000.

Advices report the discovery of a tin mine on the Colorado river, 125 miles from Yuma. The ore is from a mineral crystal black in color, but without grains.

The county, A. T., is said to have sold more than 75,000 head of cattle in the last three months. Cattle are abundant, so the prospect for grass on the ranges is good.

Joseph Pierce, of Spokane, Colfax county, New Mexico, is leasing an acre of land for mining purposes, and want to Wyoming for the last time that there been found gold.

The Uinta (Wyo.) Herald says a patent at $4,000 is offered for the above and information, or the information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who killed Harvey Reddy, at his home in Evanston, on the evening of Saturday, January 12th, 1894.

Riverside county, Cal., has passed an ordinance regulating the width of wagon tires, by which wagons of four inches in tire cannot carry more capacity than have five of four inches, and wagons of four inches cannot carry less than five inches capacity.

Henry Quinn is down without bail in the jail at Helena, Mont., on the Tom Allen case, with Sheriff Cooper in the office in the chief. A couple more are to come under bail in the fall. The Northern is taking full charge of Mr. Allen's case and doing a lot of investigating work.

The Cheyenne Sun says: A street in Rock Springs the other day starts and stops a baby buggy alone. He fastened a rope around the animal's tongue and clinged to it until the buggy was pulled off by the rope, and the baby was safe. The driver was heavily fined, yet he should have been hanged.

The Boulder Republican says: The Boulder Light and Power company are now selling their fuses at twenty cents a foot, only from the Dillon mine. They have fifteen miles of work, twenty men in their employ, and are doing fine. They are trying to get to the vein with the view of putting the product of this mine on the outside market.

Jerome Richards, who is a prominent journalist, found a pocket in Gunnison county, which has been worked ever since. Richards is now in the city purchasing. Search was set up in the district court of Gunnison county for carrying and had to be set up to serve his sentence, nothing. The executive clemency with has been granted to Richards gives him the rights of a citizen.

A woman named Mrs. Harriet E. Hare has been released by sheriff in the Bot angles at Monroe, Latah county, Idaho. She is charged with killing a little motherless girl three years ago. Mrs. Hare was acquitted, with Sheriffs as witness with. The little son was mysteriously lured with the strong belief that that is set for the prisoner by at least now in session at Moscow.

Ennis, Cuba, is in a dilemma. Arrangements have been made and encouragement been forward building a $10,000 school house on a block formerly belonging to the Baron Alfred Derry. Derry has been in with Peter Anderson but brother, and for a year the matter has been in and out of court in an effort to perfect his title. The barrens was closed and everything was stopped. So far nearly $2 paying over the money and refusing a deed to the property, but today the discovery was made that Peter Anderson has been apparently appointed guardian of Alfred Derry's wife, and that the whole proceeding for the purchase of the block was null and void.

On Saturday a colored man made an attempt to take the life of Miss Dorothy H. Lee, Lincoln's sister, two miles south of York, Nebraska, W. C. Lee, a quiet child up between the two, and was carrying home eggs, which he was asked a drink. Greased and very lock bulldogs ate at Miss Lee's and fled. Hot, the shot hitting in the neck, which and Frederick in his chest only the shot fired. Lee is in critical condition. The assailant is still at large.
