ESCAPE FROM CUBA.

Experience of an Editor Whose Scalp Weyler Wanted.

BLAMED HIS SPANISH PURSUERS

And Says on his New York—Everybody Tired of the War, He Says—Peace Needed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Manuel M. Coronado, editor of a Cuban newspaper published in Havana, who escaped from that city to-day in the last days of October after Gen. Weyler had ordered his arrest, reached New York this morning. O'Brien escape he said:

"When I learned by private tips that Gen. Weyler had ordered my arrest I made immediate preparations for escape. The order was not a surprise. I had secured a disguise, the costume of an ordinary sailor. When my house was surrounded by troops I hastily stated off my heavy moustache and coming my disguise, which also included a heavy false black goatee, I slipped into the house adjoining and once my escape to the street, as I thought, unobserved.

"It was 2 o'clock in the afternoon. I jumped into a carriage, but the alarm was sounded and the police pursued me in earnest. Then I worked all old game. I told my driver to keep ahead, and watching my opportunity I jumped from the carriage and walked out on the pavement, mingled with the crowd and made my escape to the country. A few days afterward (I refer not to give dates) I shipped aboard a sailing vessel as a common sailor. The captain knew me, however. We reached New Orleans after an uneventful trip and I came to New York by rail, arriving this morning."

In reply to a question as to the general feeling of the people living in Cuba, he said, through an interpreter:

"Today we might say that Spanish Cuba by sheer force of arms. The whole country, Spanish and Cuban alike, desire peace, even at almost any sacrifice, and although it may seem strange, the Spanish element is quite as pronounced in this feeling as the Cubans, and with peace and independence for Cuba. It is thought that Cuba, again under Spanish rule, would be unable to pay the enormous war debt already incurred or to stand the tremendous taxation which would inevitably be imposed by Spain upon Cuba, and another uprising would, under those conditions follow. Spain would have to expend great sums of money to keep Cuba in submission. The war debt now is estimated at $150,000,000 and is accumulating at the rate of $12,000,000 a month.

"If Cuba gains her independence in this struggle, I hope and believe that she will, she will start afresh with wonderful possibilities for her. Taxes will be fixed by her own authorities and cannot be procured before then. The damage to the machinery was only slight.

Fraser Murder Case Ended.

EUREKA, Mas., Nov. 19.—The notorious Fraser murder case came to an end today, when the jury returned a verdict of not guilty as to the defendants Lizzlighter, Cox and Mellen, which also disposes of the charges against several other defendants who had demanded separate trials.

John H. Fraser and W. H. Gibson, drivers of southern Kansas, incurred the enmity of a large number of cattlemen by bringing cattle into Kansas from south of the Texas fever line. Both were brutally murdered in the year 1891.

SANTA FE CONTROVERSY.

Both Sides Bound and Unable to Move.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 19.—Bound by injunctions restraining orders from both the federal and state courts, both sides to the controversy in the Santa Fe receivership case are now powerless to move, and the tangle there will not be any new developments until the case comes up for hearing before Judge Foster in the Federal court here next Monday.

Attorneys Foster and Hoe were this morning served with the restraining orders issued yesterday by United States Judge Foster. They say they will obey the injunction, and wait now on further steps until Judge Foster decides upon the question of jurisdiction. If he decides the court has jurisdiction they will at once, if it is stated, carry the case to the United states Supreme Court on this point alone.

Order for Winchesters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A special to the World from New Haven, Conn., says: The Winchester Repeating Arms company announced today that they expected an order from the United States government for 150,000 new cavalry rifles. This will start up the works to their full capacity.

Texas Claims Recognition.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 19.—A special to the Republic from Dallas, Tex., says: Nearly 500 Republicans of present week, representing all sections of Texas, met here tonight to promote the movement for recognition of Texas and to secure a favorable position in the coming McKinley administration for ex-State Chairman Dr. John Grant, who is now the national Republican committeeman for Texas.

Newspaper Men Insulted.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 19.—The newspaper men of this city are much wrought up over the disourteous treatment accorded representatives of the press on the occasion of the banquet and reception tendered to Hon. M. A. Hanna Tuesday evening by the Union club, and the following self-explanatory resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Artemus Ward club at a special meeting this evening:

The Artemus Ward club of Cleveland, composed of the newspaper men of the city, in special session assembled, called for the purpose of considering the treatment of the newspaper men at the complimentary dinner given by the Union club of Cleveland in Chairman M. A. Hanna of the Republican national committee, considering the management of the banquet for its gross discourtesy to the reporters.

Resolved, That the newspaper men were invited to attend the banquet, an affair that had attracted national attention. The reporters went there expecting to obtain the news and to receive courteous treatment. When they reached the Union club they were treated as intruders and not as representatives of newspapers. They were subjected to insults that have aroused the indignation of the newspaper men of the city.

Resolved, That the Artemus Ward club resents the outrageous treatment accorded to the reporters at the banquet, and considers it unworthy of an organization that ought to stand for what is best in the business and social life of Cleveland, and that the secretary be directed to send copies of this expression to the president and secretary of the Union club, and that copies be furnished to the newspapers.

THE FLAG OVER THE SCHOOLS.

Rev. Curry Says It Is Desecration to Have It There.

RALEIGH, N. C, Nov. 19.—Rev. J. L. M. Curry, ex-minister to Spain and trustee of the Peabody and Slater funds, made an address here before the colored students of Shaw university here, in which he used this rather startling language:

"I don't believe much in the idea of having the United states flag over our schools. I would like to know what the United States government has done for our public schools in North Carolina to demand that the flag should hang over them. It never gave a cent to North Carolina schools except to the A. & M. college. It is deception and a fraud to put the flag there. It is the state that gives you education."

GERMANY NOT SATISFIED.

Afraid of McKinley's Protective Policy.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The correspondent of the Morning Post at Berlin has had an interview with Herr Kloth, president of the Imperial bank, on the election of McKinley, in which he said that Germany must play a waiting game. He thought that a reasonable consideration might have weaned Mr. McKinley from the protection policy, but they must be prepared for surprises, as America was only likely to show much reasonable for Germany as was consistent with her interest.

A Berlin dispatch to the Morning Post says German manufacturers are much exercised at the decision of Mr. Uhl, the United States ambassador, to make an official inquiry into the exports into the United States of German wine, beer and perfumes, etc. It is intended to submit to Mr. Uhl a statement of the precautionary measures adopted to prevent the export of inferior articles.

X-RAY EXPERIMENTS.

Their Effect on the Eyes Blind Persons.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Dr. William J. Morton of this city who is an authority of world wide fame in the electro-pathological branch of medical science, has made a number of preliminary experiments along the line suggested by Edison in the restoration of sight to the blind by the use of X-rays. His assistant is Dr. A. W. Millington Miller a specialist in diseases of the eye. Dr. Miller said:

The subjects of our experiments were Miss Rodney, an aged lady who is entirely blind, sent from the New York institute for the blind; Armon Schutte and Gustav Kaufman, pleurisy. Kaufman has been totally blind from the age of two years and does not know what light is. Schutte can see but a little out of his left eye. By putting the lens of his watch fairly in the eye he can tell time, otherwise he does not see anything. I want to trust himself alone in the streets and always goes to and from his home attended by some one. Both of these men are noted for the delicacy of their sense of hearing and touch.

We got no result whatever from the tests applied to Miss Rodney and Mr. Kaufman. One of Miss Rodney's eyes was enucleated recently. Kaufman has been originally blinded by cerebro-spinal meningitis. Our plan in both cases was to subject the eyes to a prolonged bath of Roentgen rays.

Schutte's eyes were bathed in the same way and when the fluorescope was held before him he saw the light distinctly and could distinguish a card held to a piece of board. On the three Kaufmans was naturally the most susceptible to the stimulating action of the rays because the retina of his left eye was evidently in some extent unconducted by disease.

Dr. Morton suggested that the eye of the blind whose retina were not injured beyond utility might be so stimulated by the X-ray that they could read dense news letters (burning words) which had been inked in thick cardboard or cloth. At any rate we cannot certainly read such letters with our eyes open, tight and with a thick cardboard interventing.

Henry Asbury Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Henry Asbury, an business man, personal and political friend of Abraham Lincoln and the man who framed or him the four questions propounded to Stephen A. Douglas at Freeport in the famous debates of 1858, is dead. He was 86 years old.

FIGHT WITH BANDITS.

One Solicitor Outlaw Killed, Others Wounded.

SEGAR, N. M., Nov. 20.—Deputy U. S. Marshal McGinnety has had a fight with Black Jack's bandits, killing the notorious Bob Hayes and wounding George Musgrave, and Jeff Davis, who escaped. None of the posse were injured. Black Jack, Frank Anderson, Bill George and another escaped and the posse is in pursuit. Deputy Marshal Easkins with a posse of six and four Apache Indians is posting in from the east. The fight occurred at Deer Creek, about thirty miles south of Segar, off the Southern Pacific road. This is the most desperate gang that ever infested this country. They commenced operations in July last, since which time they have held up Superviso, the White Oak stage, robbing the mail four times; Nogales bank; Tucson postoffice, San Simon postoffice, station and store; Steele's station, central postoffice; attempted to hold up a mail train on the Atlantic and Pacific road in which the leader, Cole Younger, was killed. They also held up the Humphreys Ring station on the 7th, robbing the agent, the above mentioned train robbery, and now attempting to intercept the paymaster en route to pay troops at Fort Huachuca, released the date.

Then they went over to Willcox, where they planned to rob the U. S. paymaster on the 18th, on his way to Fort Grant, but missed the date again. They were making for Chihuahua when they were intercepted by Mr. Gilchly and the fight came off.

Sisters in Jail.

SPRING VALLEY, Ills., Nov. 20.—The riot at the Negro location near No. 8 mine in this city resulted in sending to the grand jury eleven of the rioters. Word was sent to the chief of police that an attempt would be made to rescue the prisoners while passing through the village of Seatonville, five miles west of here. On this account the police escort was doubled and well armed. The riot being over the attempt was abandoned, though the guard had to pass through threatening crowds. There are several more of the rioters in jail here. Two of them, Henry Wine, alias Kidd Stokes, and Monte Bradford are held on the charge of murder.

Work on the Panama Canal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Panama says: There has been much activity in the work on the canal during the last three months. Another batch of a hundred and fifty laborers has arrived from the Windward Islands and has been put to work on the Culebra cut.

Italy and Brazil Settlement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A special to the Herald from Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, says:

After a conference lasting three hours, between the Italian special commissioner, the Marquis del Rosario and Secretary Carvaquire, the convention has been signed, Bissi agreeing to pay 4,000 contos. The Italian legation will outcome the claims which have been allowed.

Longing for a Restival.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The World this morning says:

More than a hundred ministers in Greater New York have decided to use their every effort to bring about the greatest evangelical awakening this city has ever known. A call will be issued at once to all the ministers in the city to join in the movement, and thereafter every night for revival services. It is expected that there will be more than 300 meetings a night, and that the results will be the most extraordinary of modern times.
