CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Rejected.

WASHINGTON, 11.—Howe moved to take up his motion of yesterday, to reconsider the vote by which the bill to grant a site for the Peabody school at St. Augustine passed, but Sprague objected.

The Vice President called for the business on the calendar, the committee on territories being entitled to the floor.

The Senate bill granting the right of way to the Seattle and Walla Walla railroad Co. was discussed and rejected, yeas 15, nays 23.

HOUSE.

The New Revenue Bill.

In the debate on the new revenue bill Dawes said that the prospects were that the receipts this year would be much under the estimates. For causes not fully understood, the customs receipts had fallen off at the rate of a hundred thousand per day. He made a statement of the comparative receipts and expenditures since 1870, showing badly for this year's receipts. In answer to a question from Garfield, Dawes said that up to the 20th of December the receipts came very near the estimates, but that since then they had fallen off seriously. The falling off in the internal revenue was much less than in the customs, the former having, according to the last report, gone beyond the estimates. He commented on the failure of the treasury department to comply with the law requiring one per cent. of the customs receipts to be applied to the sinking fund. Instead of 417½ millions having been applied, only 142 millions were applied. The reduction of the public debt by the purchase of bonds was not an equitable compliance with the law, and such purchase would not relieve the government from its obligations to the sinking fund. Beck intimated that besides the amount mentioned by Dawes, over 400 millions of the public debt was redeemed and cancelled in the shape of seven-thirties. Nibloch took Dawes' view of the sinking fund matter. Dawes said that during Boutwell's administration he set apart the amount for the sinking fund required by law; Richardson failed to do so, and having applied the receipts to meet the current expenses he called on the government for the deficit. Whatever impaired the sinking fund impaired faith in the nation. Had not Congress abolished the tea and coffee tax there would be no necessity for this measure; however nothing would be gained by the restoration of that tax, for since the President, in his message, suggested it, everybody had been importing tea and coffee, and the tax would only put money into the importers' pockets. He estimated the increased revenue which Congress would derive from the bill as follows: Whiskey seventeen millions; tobacco 4½ millions; sugar 8 millions; manufactured goods ten millions, in all about 37½ millions. He said there would be less than two millions and a half loss by the repeal of the match tax. In conclusion Dawes said Congress must now decide what course to pursue. The honor of the government was at stake, and the committee would offer no objection if the house decided to tax other articles. The bill might be modified, but if it was saddled with provisions and amendments it would cause endless debate and great loss of time, and the public would hold the republican members responsible if they failed to furnish the administration the means of continuing the government. Those on the other side would do well not to provoke, too soon, responsibility in the matter of raising revenues, which would plague them soon enough.

Wood, a member of the committee, addressed the House in opposition to the bill. He said that no public necessity demanded it. He did not oppose it in a spirit of faction, and desired the credit of the government to be the best possible, but he would not give his aid in oppressing the people. He did not think additional taxes necessary, and he adduced figures to fortify his position. Without action the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

A Protest—Increase Recommended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 11.—Senator Hager, to night, received a telegram from D. Porter, president of the San Francisco Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, stating that they protest against, and ask his assistance to defeat, that portion of the new revenue bill levying fifteen cents a gallon on the stock in the hands of dealers.

At the instance of Sargent, the Senate appropriations committee, to-day, agreed to recommend an increase of the item in the Indian bill for the Apaches of Arizona and New Mexico, from $150,000 to $550,000.

Caucus of Law Makers.

The joint caucus of republican senators and representatives, held at the capitol to-night, was not largely attended. The report of the joint caucus committee was submitted in the form of a new political bill, the points of which were telegraphed in these dispatches this morning. Representative Smith, of Va., offered an amendment, the effect of which would be to make the bill apply to all the States. He protested against further federal interference in the affairs of the South. Representatives Dawes, Cobb, of Kansas, & Williams, of Mich., agreed in the main with Smith, while Lawrence, Albright and Lynch took the opposite ground, insisting that there was the greatest need for federal interference, to protect colored men in the exercise of their rights. The caucus was not altogether harmonious and, without action, the caucus adjourned till to-morrow night.

Ole Californians Banqueting.

NEW YORK, 11.—About seventy-five old Californians participated in a banquet to-night at the Sturtevant House, to exchange reminiscences and cultivate memories of pioneer scenes; the occasion was pleasant, joyous and spirited. C. H. Gates Gibson presided. The dinner was elegant. California wines, fruits and viands abounded, and the whole affair was a grand success.

South American R. R. News.

South American advices to Feb. 1st say that the Panama railroad and Pacific Mail are again put under separate management on the Isthmus: G. C. Whiter, a practical railroad man from the North, is the new superintendent, and relieves D. M. Corwin; the latter gentleman continues as agent of the Pacific Mail. The change was deemed advisable by the directors of both companies.

An arrangement has been come to between the Pacific Steam Navigation Co. and the South American S. S. Co. in regard to the tariff for freight and passage, and they will in a measure work into each other's hands and share profits, and cease to be the most bitter of rivals; these two lines run on the south coast, between Panama and Valparaiso, Chili.

"False and Atrocious."

Minister Washburne telegraphs the editor of the Herald from Paris to-day as follows—

"Regarding the charge of the N. Y. Sun, that I received ten thousand dollars for my official influence in getting the Fremont bonds placed on the Paris Bourse, it is to the last degree false and atrocious. I never received a dollar, and was never offered a dollar in my life for my official influence in this or any other matter. These bonds were placed on the Paris bourse a month before I arrived in France. In the Spring of '69 I exposed their fraudulent character, and advised the State department about them by correspondence, which was called for by congress, and printed. The parties who put the bonds on the market were furious with me for giving information as to their true character, and Fremont published a pamphlet on the subject arraigning me for discrediting the great American enterprise.

(Signed) "E. B. WASHBURNE."

Propositions for Adjustment.

NEW ORLEANS, 11.—The following is the conservative proposition for adjustment submitted to the congressional committee:

"First, the election of '72, now before congress, is not to be included in the adjustment; second, the election of the treasurer and members to the general assembly in '74, is to be submitted to Hoar, Wheeler, Frye and Marshall, it being distinctly understood that these were returned both by the returning board and the conservative committee, to be accepted as legally elected; third, the house of representatives is to be organized de novo, on the basis of the committee's award; fourth, the house of representatives, when organized, is to send to Kellogg, acting governor, and to the senate as constituted by the award of the committee, a message informing them that the house is organized and ready to proceed to business; fifth, the conservative members are to sign an agreement that, while not approving or recognizing the legality of the government known as the Kellogg government, they will not disturb the executive because of his past political acts so long as he is sustained by the President; sixth, the members of the house returned by arbitration are not to be changed except by death, resignation, or expulsion for a just cause; seventh, the senators returned by arbitration are to be seated." This proposition was adopted by a vote of 59 to 8, and a committee appointed to hand it to Wheeler. The committee left on the morning of the ninth for Mobile, with the proposition in their pockets and, that night, the following reply was received:

"Mobile, February 9th.

"To Hon. Jno. Young, St. James Hotel, Chairman: The proposition is not accepted. (Signed.)

"F. A. WHEELER."

Arrival of the Bishop Elect—Meeting of Freight Agents.

CHICAGO, 11. — Dr. DeKoven, bishop elect of the Illinois diocese, arrived here this evening, but declines to state whether he has decided or intends to accept the Episcopacy.

The general freight agents of the leading eastern railroads met here to-day, and decided to adopt the tariff of the east bound freights established by the Baltimore and Ohio; this gives the rate of thirty-five cents to Philadelphia and Baltimore on fourth class freight; the Grand Trunk railroad, however, refuses to go into the arrangement.

Democratic Senator Elected.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 11.—A special to the Morning News from Tallahassee says that C. W. Jones, democrat, of Escumbia Co., has been elected U. S. Senator.

WESTERN

Property Changing Hands.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—A rumor has been current to-day, among real estate men, that the Pacific Mail Company had sold their wharves, wharf franchises, lots, warehouses and other buildings and improvements on the water front, to Haggin and Tevis, for four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, also, that the Mail Company, in return, had leased the property for a term of years at the rate of ten per cent. annually on the purchase money. Another rumor was in the nature of a mortgage at fifteen per cent. per annum. The property which is reported to have changed hands is valued by competent judges at eight hundred thousand dollars.
