OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

City Council—Court-A Business—Double Funeral—Weddings.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, June 6.—Many complaints were received yesterday by the county commissioners, sitting as a board of equalization. The complainants generally thought their assessments on real property ground too high and prayed for reduction.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The board held the usual weekly meeting yesterday with all the members present, and transacted considerable routine business.

The resignation of W. W. Lowder, constable of Harrisville precinct, was filed and accepted.

A petition asking for the appointment of Ben West as constable of Farr West was considered and filed, and the matter of appointing a successor to W. W. Lowder was taken under advisement.

WEDDING BELLS.

The chief of the county clerk's office issued marriage licenses yesterday to the following: Joseph J. Hancock, 31, of Ogden, and Miss Kathleen Mallory, 21, of Ogden; Niels Rinder, 21, of Ogden, and Miss Emma Cox, 17, of Ogden; John McNeese, aged 21, of Ogden, and Miss Alice Hansen, aged 18, of Salt Lake City. The first named couple were married yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace Jones. Yesterday morning Rev. Father P. M. Donnelan united in matrimony Miss Mary Ann Hall and Mr. John J. Mullen, the ceremony was performed in St. Joseph's church.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

The funerals of Mary Rosalie, wife of Mr. Richmond, and Mrs. Ruth Richmond, were held yesterday at 2 o'clock p. m. from the residence of the latter. Both were attended by a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends. The floral tributes from Salt Lake City last Sunday, the former of pneumonia and the latter of consumption, were numerous and beautiful. A large number of friends from Salt Lake were in attendance.

The funeral of Mrs. Rosalie, wife of an old settler here, who died Sunday night at her home in Wilson precinct, of kidney trouble, was held from the residence at 1:30 o'clock p. m. today.

Word was received in Ogden yesterday of the death in Salt Lake City, at the home of Dr. Pemberton, Jr., formerly of this city, at the Sacred Heart hospital, of Mrs. Boyd. The cause of death is not stated.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY B. HORTON.

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Mary B. Horton, wife of H. B. Horton, died this morning, at the residence, corner Madison avenue and Twenty-first street. The funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday from the Baptist church.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

On Sunday evening Professor E. O. Hansen, Elders J. W. Summerhays and J. Nelson addressed the congregation meeting of the Sunday schools in the Second Ward meeting-house on the subject of temperance.

The Union Sugar company has leased the lumber shed belonging to Lund and the furnaces in their factory. The machines are said to work a great saving in coal and the expense of labor.

Judge Clarke was arraigned in the district court this morning on the charge of assault, preferred by the county attorney's office. He will be required to give $2,000 bonds to appear for trial.

Elder Ephraim H. Nye, brother of Elder Orley Nelson, sixteen in California, returned to his home in Ogden on yesterday afternoon's Southern Pacific train.

A son has been to Dr. G. W. Baker and wife Sunday evening. All well.

Yesterday Walter Farr, the alleged burglar, was arraigned in the city court on the charge of breaking into the Alaska store recently and the robbery of the safe in the store. He pleaded guilty and was bound over to the district court.

The name of Margaret Fish vs. the Oregon Short Line railroad company was on trial yesterday in the Second district court.

Hon. Charles H. Hart, judge of the Second district court, left this morning on return to Dashville, his home, to hold a term of court.

Mrs. Henry Hinckley, Miss Minnie Hinckley and Miss Ethel Hinckley, Minnie county, is very ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. H. Jones, in this city. Mrs. Hinckley was called to her in response to a telegram.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

At the council meeting last night all the members were present. Miscellaneous claims amounting to $600 were allowed.

The various Electrical Supply companies presented petitions for permits to furnish current for commercial service, provided the contract of owners of buildings to be supplied was signed.

The petition of W. H. Wheelwright to build an overhead line was granted, and the petition of Mrs. Mary Hunter to build a line on Twenty-fourth street was referred to the committee on streets with power to act.

The Tax Collector J. A. Lamport reported $ for taxes collected, and $ interest collected, and $ for licenses issued for the year.

The Tax Commissioner made his report of the taxes paid in labor in May, and he was allowed $ for his services.

A few matters of minor importance were brought up and disposed of.

An Hunter introduced an ordinance providing for the erection of fire hydrants.

Councilman Cullen introduced an ordinance amending the Sunday ordinance so as to read: "Provided, however, that bathing shall not be unlawful if placed upon enclosed grounds, unless the same shall occur within one-half of any building used for religious worship." Passed first and second readings and referred to committee on laws.

Councilman Howell re-introduced the ordinance providing for a bond election, which received the readings and went to committee on laws.

The Board of Health, H. H. Anderson superintending received forty-three loads of sprinkling, which were opened and read and referred to the committee of the whole, which afterwards reported, adopting the long session, awarding the contracts as follows:

Richard Greenwell, Fourth ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
Frank Rogers, South Ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
Hyrum Steele, Twenty-sixth ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
H. D. Rowe, Third ward $2.00 per rod.
C. H. Wyer, Fifteenth ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
Twenty-sixth ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
C. C. Brown, Fifth ward ..... $2.00 per rod.
Byron Clapp, Second ward $4.00 per rod.
The board was given $100 for his contingent fund, and council per rata amounting to $1,000 were ordered paid.

PROVO.

Legal Business—City Council—Serious Runaway Accident—Weddings.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, May 6.—The following business was transacted in the Fourth district court:

In the case of John P. Woodall vs. B. Hutchison et al., defendant ejected in the premises in dispute on Bond Street in S. E. corner and redirected and injunction reversed.

In the case of Mary D. Bailey, deceased, $250.00 was allowed to A. E. Coffman for legal services.

Petition for writ of mandamus in the matter of John Brooks, John Adams, James McDonald and Frank Scott, Defendants to appear and show cause why peremptory writ of mandamus should not issue to the changing boundaries. They took until Friday, June 9th, to file their reply. The men whose contract with breaking into the house of John Gordon at Lehi on Tuesday.

"SILVER TIP" LOCKED UP.

Joe Rich today turned over to Sheriff Storrs for safe keeping the man arrested in Pleasant, in eastern county, and charged with the murder of Mrs. Joe Rockhoe, although he claims that he is not that party but a law abiding citizen by the name of Frank Hall.

The "Silver Tip" as officers say he is a man about 40 years of age, and a heavy drinker. He was arrested by Constable, in bed on the top of the head but he fair at the time to other gang, he is a man about 5 feet 9 inches in height, is said