SANITARY PRECAUTION.

Wantland offered the following:

Whereas, It is of vital importance to the people of the Pacific Coast and intermountain regions that vigorous quarantine and sanitary measures shall be established and enforced during 1893.

Resolved, That Salt Lake City hereby invites the municipal authorities of the cities having a population of 10,000 or more on the Pacific Coast and intermountain region, to join this city in a convention to be composed of the health officers of said cities, to be held in Salt Lake City during the month of April or May.

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce and Business Men's Association are hereby requested to appoint a special committee to act with the mayor or president of the Council, sanitary committee, health commissioner and board of health, as a general committee of arrangements, to have full power to issue invitations and arrange the details for the convention.

Wantland said in support of the resolution that the adoption of it would advertise the city greatly.

Moran replied that he was opposed to making an advertising bureau of the City Council.

Hoh said he was in favor of doing whatever he could to bring people here and advance the city from a sanitary or any other standpoint.

The chair stated that while on what had recently been termed the "quarantine tour" he had given a great deal of attention to sanitary matters. In regard to sanitary rules and quarantine regulations the cities were generally in a deplorable condition. San Francisco, of course, was "better off" in this respect than any other. It would be a very good idea to take steps to prevent, or rather to prepare as at the cholera scourge in case its ravages should reach here next summer. Adopted unanimously.

COAL SCALES.

A report of the committee on markets on the erection of various coal scales, as published in these columns nearly a month ago was, on motion of Hardy, laid on the table until Tuesday night next.

MAJORITY AND MINORITY REPORTS.

Lawson, Horn and Heise reported favorably on the bill for $13.85 of P. A. Madsen, for preparing annual report of sewer department.

Hardy filed a minority report saying if such a method should be pursued it would be endless. Laid on the table until Tuesday night next.

AGAINST WONDERLAND.

A communication was received from the city attorney in relation to the petition of the Wonderland Amusement company asking that they be allowed to give entertainments on Sunday. He was under the impression that it would be a misdemeanor under the statutes to keep open as suggested in the petition and the council could not grant to any person the right to violate a criminal statute. The revised ordinances also prohibited the keeping of such places open on Sunday, and the attorney thought if the request of the company was granted the ordinance would first have to be repealed. Filed for future reference.

THE CURFEW LAW.

The city attorney submitted an ordinance making it unlawful for children under —— years of age from being on the streets or public places of the city at unreasonable hours without proper permission. It provides that it shall be unlawful between the hours of 9 o'clock in the evening and 5 o'clock in the morning for any child under —— years of age to be upon any of the streets of the public places of this city, unless in the care of some adult relative or authorized custodian, or when provided with a written permit from the parents, guardian, or other person having such child, or from the chief of police; which permit shall be exhibited to any police officer of said city who may, between the hours herein prescribed, demand the same.

The measure also provides that it shall be the duty of the city marshal or said city, or some one authorized by him, to ring the bell at the city hall at the hour of 9 p.m. nightly. Any child under the —— years of age violating the provisions of the ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine for the first offense in the sum of $1 or imprisonment for one day, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Laid on the table to come up later.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

An Attempt Will Be Made to Organize One Here in the Near Future.

The real estate men are considerably elated over the agitation in business circles that has been going on in this city for the past two or three weeks. They say that the shaking up is the beginning of a new era in Salt Lake with them and that when spring opens they will again begin to make good sales and fair profits. Considering these things as they do they propose to organize a real estate exchange after the pattern of the one which "starved" to death here after the damaging boom of 1889. A call for a meeting to be held next week has been circulated among realty brokers. It is signed by the following gentlemen:

Harvey Haray, S. D. Cady, J. H. Watts, J. W. Houston, G. E. Norton, J. M. Kennedy, C. A. Greenwood, Fred W. Ross, Sam Bauer, J. N. Courtney, D. A. Shilay, John D. Saaffe, R. A. M. Frisbeth, L. C. Crossman, Colburn, Skinner & Company, Charles H. Lauch, Hadden Smith, Harrington & Donnelly, Pollock & Mayne, G. H. Knowlden, A. J. Weiss, John F. Heath, A. G. Barr, W. E. Hazelard, J. R. Rizer, C. E. Wantland, S. F. Spence, Paul & Hughes, L. R. Cozine, J. J. Corson, Alfred Dansoine, T. A. Davis, C. Y. & W. A. Thomson, W. H. Crower, E. P. Newell, B. H. Schettler, H. C. Lett, F. T. Hiatt, A. F. Fort, Cocker & Co., J. C. Thompson, L. E. Cassity, H. P. G. Cozine, T. A. Dansoine, Ralph Zwicky, O. T. Catlson.

COURT CULLINGS.

Matters Which Came Up in the Course of Yesterday Afternoon.

Simon Gavin filed a suit in the Third District court against Isabella Fuldamonos, also known as Isabella Gavin. Gavin alleges that he married the woman in 1888 at Bingham, believing that she had been divorced from her former husband. He now alleges that she was not divorced and asks the court to declare the "pretended" marriage void.

In Judge Hartch's court, in the case of S. Karpen et al. vs. Earls Furniture and Carpet company et al., leave was granted certain parties to intervene. Hector W. Haight vs. C. E. Pearson; passed. Utah & Montana Machinery company vs. Glendale Gold and Silver Mining company; decree of foreclosure granted in favor of plaintiff.

The case of S. Karpen et al. vs. The Earls Furniture and Carpet company et al., is being heard before J. A. Marshall as referee. The hearing is had to determine whether or not the judgments confessed by the company just prior to its collapse are valid or not. These were in the neighborhood of $45,000.

The bonds of Ed Wightman, charged with burglary, Henry Raddon, charged with grand larceny, and A. F. Groves, charged with conspiracy, were declared forfeited in the Third district court yesterday afternoon. Wightman was indicted in September last, in company with another by name Dorrity, and the latter was convicted. The latter swore, however, that Wightman had nothing to do with the burglary. Raddon was missing from here about the first of November and his attorney so stated in open court on Nov. 24, when the defendant was called for arraignment. The bond, however, had not been declared forfeited until yesterday. Groves vanished last December.

The suit of James A. Williams vs. The Brouillard sisters has passed through Commissioner Greenman's court. The plaintiff waived a portion of his demand, and the remainder, $250, has been paid and the case settled.

In the case of John M. Young vs. A. P. Schroeder et al., trustee of the News will recollect that on February 2 the dispute was settled in Judge Hartch's court, after having been on trial several days. It was then agreed that Dickson & Stone and Williams & Van Cott should join Mr. Schroeder and convey the property in question to Young's children. The transfer has not been made for the following reasons: Mr. Schroeder declined to make it if the children were to assume any of John M. Young's indebtedness, and the other side claims that it cannot be transferred otherwise, as it was encumbered before the suits began. The parties met yesterday, but being unable to agree, declared the agreement off and during the afternoon submitted the case to Judge Hartch on its merits.

THE FEDERATED TRADES.

The Question of Home Industries.—Union Bread Labels, etc.

At the meeting of the Federated Trades last evening, the Homestead entertainment committee reported that the ball given in aid of the Homestead sufferers was a complete success, but the committee was not yet ready to make its report.

The amalgamated society of carpenters and joiners gave notice of the withdrawal of its delegate from the Federated Trades, as its organization had become identified with the Building assembly.

The subjoined letter was referred to the executive committee:

The Business Men's association has taken up the matter of advertising home industries and is making an honest effort to induce the people of the city to patronize Salt Lake and Utah manufactories.

Your body is in a position to reap as much benefit from a move of this kind as any one, or good, thanks for the home manufacturer means more work for the members of your association.

The Business Men's association wish to urge upon you the importance of this move, and assure it hope you will take some initial action toward patronizing home industries when possible.

We are trying to help you by making more work in Salt Lake City. Will you help yourselves by patronizing home industries?

Let us all unite to make Salt Lake City a place to which we can point with pride and each of us be able to say: "I helped to make her what she is."

Yours truly,
THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION,
S. T. PEARSON, Secretary.

Thanks were tendered to the City Council for voting $5,000 in land towards securing the copper smelting plant.

The annual statement was read by the representative of the bakers' union.

It having been reported by our consumers that improper methods are employed to make the union stamp adhere to the bread, we hereby pledge ourselves to the truth of the following statement, which can be substantiated by anyone calling upon any union shop: The labels come in sheets of 500, which are torn into strips of twenty and then immersed in a pan of clean water, after which they are put on the bread before being baked. This way of doing does away with all objectionable glue lines, not requiring even the employment of mucilage or anything to stick them.

A very poor account was given as to the condition of trade.

HUNTING FOR LAND.

The Real Estate Men Securing Lots in Consideration of the $25,000 to be Received from the City.

The real estate dealers are now busily engaged in securing land to sell to the city for the $25,000 appropriated for that purpose by the City Council yesterday. Their subscription list reads as follows:

Whereas, The City Council of Salt Lake City has appropriated and put into the hands of George A. Lowe, W. H. Rowe, J. S. Clemens, M. J. Gray, C. F. Loofbourow and L. C. Rarick, trustees, $25,000 for the purpose of purchasing real estate for said city, and

Whereas, The real estate owners of Salt Lake City are desirous of donating to said trustees real estate to the amount of $25,000, so that said trustees can have such real estate transferred to said city in lieu of said $25,000.

Now therefore this arrangement witnesseth, that we the undersigned have, and do hereby mutually agree, each with the other, to donate to said trustees, to deed to said city, by warranty deed, free and clear of all liens and incumbrances whatever, the real estate described opposite our respective names, for the purpose and consideration of securing said $25,000, which said sum of money is to be donated by said trustees for the purpose of procuring a copper smelting and refining plant at or near Salt Lake City, in Salt Lake county, Utah.
