PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - - Nov. 29, 1895.

District Court.

The following business was conducted in the First district court Wednesday:

Thos. Kennedy pleaded guilty to burglarizing the saloon of Wm. Weeks at Eureka on the 1st of November. Kennedy and another man, who escaped, broke into the saloon and attempted to break open a safe. The other party escaped and the impression among the officers, as stated by Attorney Anderson and Deputy Marshal Berry, is that Kennedy had only assisted him in getting tools made to open the safe with. He stated to the court that his home was in California and that he came to Eureka from Butte about six weeks ago; and not been arrested for anything more serious than fighting before this time. Judge King sentenced him to two years in the penitentiary.

The grand jury reported two indictments under the laws of the Territory and one under the laws of the United States, and that the following cases had been ignored:

People vs. Peter Hansen, grand larceny; U. S. vs J. H. Bishop, intoxicating; People vs Guy Madsen, burglary; U. S. vs L. P. Christensen, unlawful cohabitation; People vs John Rutherford, burglary; People vs Snowden, Smith and Puckett, assault; U. S. vs Jefferson Carter, unlawfully operating distillery; People vs J. E. Cardland, grand larceny; People vs Rich Chinn, grand larceny; U. S. vs James Mitchell, robbery.

Notes and Personals.

The salaries of city officers for the next term, commencing January 1, 1896, have been reduced by the city council as follows: Recorder, from $900 to $450 per annum; treasurer, from $150 to $100 per annum; marshal, from $900 to $600 per annum; waterworks and street supervisor, from $720 to $600 per annum; superintendent of waterworks and sewers and collector of water rates, from $720 to $600 per annum; policemen, from $60 to $40 per month; sexton, from $45 to $40 per month.

Elder Wm. Baker of the Second ward departed this life Wednesday morning at the age of 72 years. The cause of his death was an attack of pneumonia. He had been enjoying good health till a short time before his death. Elder Baker came from England to Utah about twenty years ago, since which time he has resided in Provo. Funeral services were held in the Second ward meeting house this forenoon at 10 o'clock.

George T. Bean is up from Richfield. He says it is expected that the Sanpete valley branch of the R. G. W. railway will be extended south from Salina at an early date. The railway company has seized the Richfield and Marion people to grant concessions of lands for depot grounds, right of way, etc. Meetings have been held and propositions submitted to the railway company, some of which it is thought will be accepted.

Mrs. A. G. Conover, of the Second ward, died last Tuesday night at 12 o'clock. The immediate cause of death was a cold which settled on the lungs. Mrs. Conover was the wife of the late A. G. Conover. She was about 47 years of age and leaves six children and numerous relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

Albert, a 17-year-old son of Robert Thorne, of Pleasant Grove, met with an accident about two years ago, which caused the bone of his left leg to decay; last Wednesday the injured bone was removed by Drs. Allen and Taylor, of this city. The patient is doing well.

The Mutual Improvement associations of the county will hold their Stake conference Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday evening a concert will be given, in addition to local talent, Prof. Sudedlie and George D. Pyper, of Salt Lake City, will appear.

The teachers at the public schools and members of the board of education visited Superintendent of Schools W. H. Rawlings in the capacity of a surprise party Wednesday evening, in honor of the gentleman's birthday. An enjoyable time was spent.

Thanksgiving Day was quietly observed; business houses were closed and religious services held in the churches and ward houses. A ball was given in the evening by the Democratic drum corps in Smithsonian's hall.

A beautiful monument in the late John W. Turner has been completed by the Bentley Marble Works. It is made from Vermont marble resting on a base of native granite.

John McPhie, of Eureka, and Miss Minnie M. Kelly, of Springville, were married at the Hotel Roberts last Wednesday, Judge Duesenberry officiated.

James C. Carter and Jane H. Moffat, of this city, were married Wednesday evening by Judge Duesenberry.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - - Nov. 28, 1895.

Fatal Accident.

Last Saturday afternoon H. J. Peterson, of Bennion ward, and several other gentlemen, left home on a trip to Teton Basin, Idaho. When night or nine miles from home, walking alongside to keep warm, he was in some way knocked under the wagon, where one or both wheels passed over his body. His heart is supposed to have been directly affected, as he died within an hour. His body was taken home by his companions, and the funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, the remains being interred in the Logan cemetery.

Other Deaths and Accidents.

Mrs. David Lewis died on Monday evening of a general decay of the physical and mental powers, terminating in a lingering illness, during which she had been suffering for a year. The funeral services were held in the Tabernacle today at 12:30.

A twelve-year-old boy named Roy Pulsen was brought to Logan for treatment on Tuesday, having sustained a compound fracture of the left wrist joint while sleighing with a companion.

Mr. T. A. Davis, manager of the Hercules Electric Power company, was thrown out of a buggy near the Tabernacle back building the other day. Several front teeth were knocked loose, his upper lip was badly torn and he was badly bruised.

Notes.

Yesterday afternoon a young man named A. J. Burrell, a painter by trade, was seized with temporary aberration of mind. He entered the residence of Mrs. Parkinson, on the island, and, imagining himself at home took off his coat and hat, and remained for some time. As he commenced to talk incoherently the lady sent for the police to remove him. He was afterward taken home by his wife, who said he had had several similar spells before, but was not at all dangerous.

Fred Thackwell, of Ogden, and Dan Vaughan, of Louisville, with a small force of men, have arrived at La Plata with the intention of resuming drifting the winter and prosecuting development work on the Stories and Last Dime properties. They expect to have a large amount of ore on the dump ready for shipment before spring.

A fifteen year old boy named White from Paradise received a severe reprimand from Justice Smith for discharging firearms within the city limits. Logan has a number of criminally inclined boys in this respect, and it is time a few of them received a lesson.

Several hunting parties have gone up Logan canyon after deer. An elk this week was brought in by Peter Jay from Paradise and sold to the butchers.

The Franklin woolen mills have had a very successful season's run on blankets, flannels, etc., and will it is surmised continue to increase, enlarge its plant.

A large, healthy son was added to the family of Mr. Adolph Anderson yesterday morning.

Gaetano Bassetti, an Italian sheepherder, was killed in a peculiar manner near Greenville, Cal., on Friday. He was killing a log for fuel and when it went down it struck a smooth log on the ground. The force of the blow drove a piece of wood five inches into his chest and killing him instantly. Workmen near wherein was chopping knew nothing of the accident until they found Bassetti's dead body.
