THE WORKERS AND THE TRUSTS.

A Quartet of Men Prominent and Influential in the Ranks of Organized Labor Express Their Views on a Matter Which Is of Vital Importance to Themselves and Their Colleagues.

Query propounded by the editor: "What will labor do? How will it meet the swift and intense concentration of the industries on which it is accustomed to look for employment?"

BOYS' WANTS.

Boys' wants will be many these few remaining days before school. We've made great preparations for you and have bigger stocks and better values than ever to offer you. To you who have been here before Gardner's Boys' Clothing needs no introduction. To you who haven't been here we can only ask you to come. We take all the chances, for even if you buy and are not suited, you can get your money back in a minute. We've Boys' Suits as low as $1.00, good suits, too, then at $1.50. For $2.50 we have all wool suits—good, tough-wearing suits—every thread of which was grown on a good healthy sheep; then we have them at $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.50, and every suit guaranteed to be better value than you ever had anywhere else or money back. These come ages 3 to 7 in Vestee styles, and 8 to 16 regular double-breasted knee pants style.

BOYS' WAISTS.

All styles are here—Mothers' Friend brand. We've a fine unlaundered Waist, light and dark Percales, round collar or shirt collar, for 25c. A nobby line of laundered Waists with shirt collars or separate collars to match at 75c and $1.00. White Waists at 75c, 85c, $1.00, and Blouse Waists 50c to $3.50.

We've big boys' wants too, long pants suits $3.00 to $18.00.
