INSPECTING THE SCOFIELD MINES.

President E. T. Jeffery and Party Today in Carbon County.

ARRIVAL HERE INDEFINITE

May Take Trips to Silver City, Heber and Park City Before Coming to Salt Lake.

President Edward T. Jeffrey is today inspecting the coal mines at Scofield. The recently elected head of the Rio Grande Western crossed the Utah line yesterday and did not stop over a Glenwood Springs as was anticipated. The special train bearing the party, in addition to General Manager J. G. Met calf and Traffic Manager A. S. Hughes of the Denver & Rio Grande, carries retiring General Manager D. C. Dodge, of the Rio Grande Western, General Superintendent A. E. Welby and General Manager Will G. Sharp of the Pleasant Valley Coal company.

Just when the party will arrive in Salt Lake is at the present time prob-lematical as a most thorough inspec-tion of the system is under way. The party may spend Sunday in Salt Lake, or, on the other hand, a run down to Silver City over the Heber branch and up to Park City may first be taken. At the general offices of the Western this morning even the train dispatcher promorning even the train dispatcher pro-fessed to be in entire ignorance of the movements of the officials.

WANT THE SAN PEDRO.

Citizens of Millard County Hold a Mass Meeting at Fillmore.

A mass meeting of the residents of Millard county was held in the county court house at Filimore last night for the purpose of considering the proposi-tion of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road building through the county. It was the unanimous voice of those present that the railroad was a good thing, and it was decided to send a delegate to this city to wait upon the directors of the road who will meet here next week and place before them the proposition of building the road through that section of the state. Prominent among those who were present were Virgil Kelly, E. W. Kelly, James A. Melville, Jos. E. Ray, Alma Greenwood and F. E. Hanson.

CO. WHITTEMORE'S BRIEF STAY

Returns From Washington and Goes On to Carson This Afternoon.

C. O. Whittemore, the local attorney for the San Pedro, Lcs Angeles & Salt Lake road, returned from Washington last evening and left for Carson City this afternoon. He expects to meet T. E. Gibbon in the Nevada capital where they will participate in the legal battle on Monday over the in-

When seen this morning he stated that he saw Senator Clark in New York and the result of the conference that the prospects for a speedy build ing of the road were very bright. Whittemore's business pertaining to the right of way, maps and other things, to which he attended in Washington, were also of a very satisfactory nature.

VOTES FOR THE FAIR QUEEN,

Balloting for the street fair queen goes merrily on and votes which are entirely free are being clipped from the newspapers in large numbers by those interested and cast for the person of their choice. The contest stood as follows at 3 o'clock this afternoon: Ethelyn Markham146

CLAPP MUST STAND TRIAL.

Judge Stewart this morning overruled the motion made by the attorney of A. W. Clapp, or Marcott, to quash the information against the defendant and discharge him as he was not being tried on the forgery charge for which his extradition had been granted. Clapp then pleaded not guilty as to both counts of the information against him.

Two Months in Jail.

The district attorney having changed the information against E. Hicks from housebreaking to a lesser charge of petit larceny, Hicks today pleaded guilty, waived time of sentence, and was sent to the county jail for two months, Hicks stole some articles of merchan-dies valued at $34.50 from C. Barker on May 14th. The other charge was housebreaking into Butler's rooming house at 2121/2 south State street on May 21st.

Defendant Won.

After being out about ten minutes with instructions to return a sealed verdict if an agreement should not be reached in half an hour, the jury in Ida Buhrson's damage suit for $10,150 against the Salt Lake City Railroad company, returned into court at twenwith a verdiet finding the issues for the defendant company.

Divorce Suit.

In the suit for divorce of Lydia Pickens, defendant having failed to appear the case was referred to Deputy County Clerk Armstrong to take test mony and report. The divorce is sought on the grounds of desertion and non-support. The marriage was in Salt Lake on September 18, 1897.

Special Correspondence.

Springville, June 22 .- A notable reunion of the association of the Sons and Daughters of the Pioneers of Utah took place at Springville yesterday, and the beautiful little southern town was filled with visitors. The exercises were very interesting and were conducted in the meeting house in the fore. noon. The interior of the building was secorated with flags, bunting and flowers and the beautifying of the stand was done in a very artistic manner. The master of ceremonies was Apos-tie Reed Smoot, who gave a lucid ex-planation of the object of the gatherng. The congregation sang under the direction of Prof. Harrison, after which Apostle Smoot delivered an adiress, paying tribute to the pioneers and their work and stated that the as-sociation of Sons and Daughters was organized for the purpose of perpetuating their memories and instilling a eling of love and good will among

In addition there will be a new program every evening, in which the best talented in the city will participate. On the closing night there will be a grand baby show and a fine prize will be awarded to the winner.

The people of the Twelfth ward are arranging an elaborate program for the benefit of instructor Levi Young of the Utah University prior to his departure to Europe. It was first intended to arrange a program to be given in the ward but Manager George D. Pyper, of the Salt Lake theater has kindly tendered the use of that building for the ceasion and as a result of this curtesy an elaborate program will be iven in the theater on Morslay even-ing, July 1. It will be readily seen com the array of talent that has consented to appear in the entertainment that it will be an unusually fine one All of these artists have volunteered to take part in it: Profs. McClellan. Goddard. Weihe, Lund and Shepard: George D. Pyper and Mrs. Planmer who will sing a duet. Miss Arvilla Clark. Prof. Jenkins and Mrs. Woodry. The members of the Nauvoo Legion includes not only those who were enrolled in Nauvoo, but also the Mormon Battalion, and all who served, or atended muster and parades, in the Utah Territorial militia.

The families and immediate friends of the veterans will accompany them in large numbers, and it is hoped the members of organizations who been specially invited, viz.: Pioneers and their descendants, National Guard Utah, Grand Army of the Republic Utah Society of the Army of the Philippines, Rough Riders, and other volunteers, together with the families of deceased members of the Legion, will swell the attendance to large proportions. The veterans will be recognized by tri-color resettes, or miniature American flags, which will be worn by them. This is the first reunion. It is expected they will be continued annually hereafter, and that on this occasion permanent organization will be effected to act in the interest of those who took in the Black Hawk war, and perctuate the history of the Legion.
