THE STRIKE TODAY.

A Heavy Blow to the Boycott Movement Delivered at Denver.

ANOTHER EASTERN MAIL TRAIN.

Acting Governor Richards Says the Territory is Not Taking Any Part in the Fight.

There were but few developments in the strike situation here today that partake of the exciting or sensational. A few local trains moved out from the depots of the Union Pacific and Rio Grande Western, but in the main the tie-up remains unchanged and a settlement apparently as far off as ever.

Heavy Blow At the Strike.

Late this afternoon the following important telegram was received in this city from Denver by the leading local Rio Grande officials: At meetings held at Denver and Cheyenne, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers last night decided that all members who had affiliated with the American Railway Union must at once withdraw from that order and those who had gone out in the strike should be expelled from the brotherhood.

It will now doubtless be in order for the local organizations of these unions to consider and pass definitely upon the question of their future action with reference to the general strike. At this writing, 3 p.m., it is understood that the Brotherhood of Engineers are in session. Whether they will take formal and decisive action at this meeting is not now known; but their intelligence as men warrants the hope that they will continue to be conservative, acting in wisdom and with no undue haste, in the great crisis. The conduct of this brotherhood, as well as of the railway conductors, has thus far been admirable; and they are to be commended for the courage and prudence they have displayed.

A Train to Ogden.

A Union Pacific passenger train after a more or less interesting journey reached Ogden from Omaha this morning, at 4:35, having been on the road since last Tuesday. A large amount of mail was brought in and the trip was safely made. A posse of deputy United States marshals were on board. The postal authorities were in strong hopes of having some of the mail brought to this city this afternoon.

Yale Students on Board.

Attached to the train from the East and which is now held at Ogden, was a special car of Yale students who are on their way to the coast. The local officials of the Union Pacific are arranging to have them brought to this city tomorrow morning with a view to taking them to Garfield in the afternoon.

A Salt Laker's Big Loss.

One of the Salt Lakers who has sustained a tremendous loss temporarily at least, by the destruction of freight in the Chicago conflagrations started by the mobs of that city last night, was Mr. B. K. Bloch, who stated to a News reporter this morning that he had just received a telegram announcing that $20,000 of liquors ordered by him for the wholesale trade, went up in smoke on the Illinois Central. The railroad company is only responsible, said Mr. Bloch, to the extent of $20 per barrel. He, however, had a pretty heavy insurance policy on the remainder. Whether or not he will be able to recover anything under the circumstances is difficult to state at the present.

The Loss of Other Local Men.

Many Salt Lake merchants have freight tied up in different cities where the strike is in full force and effect, and not a few have bills of lading of goods supposed to have been in Chicago. What their losses will be is absolutely impossible to state. The prospects are that there will be an avalanche of suits planted against the railroad companies in the near future.

Increasing the Force.

U. S. Marshal Brigham and the staff of regular and special deputies whom he took with him to Ogden the early part of the present week are still at Ogden. Today, in response to a telephone message received from the marshal this morning, another force of deputies went out to help. Among those drawn in for duty were two of the four district court bailiffs.

Statement to Olney.

Washington, July 6. — Attorney General Olney late this afternoon received a joint telegram from the Acting Governor of Utah, the judge of the Supreme court and the United States marshal stating that the situation had become serious there.

The railroads are in the hands of the strikers and the United States marshal was unable to secure enough deputies to enforce the laws. They call on the government for troops.

Trains South.

For the first time for a week the Union Pacific sent a freight train south from this city. Early this morning a long line of freight cars rolled out of the station, no interference being offered.

The south-bound passenger also left on time this morning.

High Toned Riot.

There was a decidedly lively episode at the Rio Grande Western depot last night, and one that savored of the riotous order. It occurred as preparations were being made to start out the Eureka train. One hundred and fifty to two hundred followers of Boyle & company gathered in groups about the train to prevent it leaving the yard. The officials at the depot anticipating trouble and the special police stationed there being unable to cope with the situation, telephoned to headquarters for reinforcements which were promptly forthcoming by Sergeant Eslinger and a squad of police being dispatched to their relief. On their arrival the crowd grew demonstrative and hissed and jeered at the officers and the expression, "Let's walk over them," met with a hearty response from the mob.

Sergeant Eslinger, not wishing to precipitate unnecessary trouble, telephoned to his chief, and a few minutes later that functionary, Captain Donovan and Detective Sheets and Officer Burbidge mounted the Black Maria and repaired to the scene of the disturbance, where the train was still held and where the excitement was running high. Pratt ordered the men from the company's property and they declined to go, and an old man named Charles Roberts sought to convince the crowd that it needn't move unless it felt so inclined. Donovan entered the crowd and placed the old man under arrest. Immediately the cry went up, "Let's take him away!"

Foremost in the move to do this was a big, burly fellow, who the police allege held an open pocket knife in his hand with which he had been whittling a stick. He sprang toward Donovan, knife in hand, but was halted in his tracks by Pratt, who drew his revolver and pointed it directly at the head with the command to fall back, pocket his knife or take the consequences. The order was promptly obeyed. One John Palmer was rather slow in his movements and was arrested and placed in the patrol wagon with Roberts and taken to the police station, where the latter was released on his own recognizance to appear in court this morning and answer to the charge of disturbing the peace. Palmer was compelled to put up $10 to prevent passing the night in jail. After the disturbance was over the train was allowed to depart without further attempt to prevent it from so doing.

Side Scene in Court.

There was an interesting little byplay in the police court this morning which was not down on the regular program of judicial procedure. Palmer and Roberts were present to answer to the charge preferred against them. They were represented by Kroeger & Rawlings. Assistant City Attorney Van Horne had just made a request that the cases be set down for hearing on Monday as he had not had time to meet or consult with witnesses for the prosecution. Rawlings opposed the request and waxed warm at the making of it and denounced it as being altogether unbecoming. His clients, he said, were innocent men and declared with emphasis that he could prove it. As he thus expressed himself Captain Donovan took the liberty of informing the court that Rawlings was the ring leader of the whole gang of peace disturbers and that he could prove it. Then it was Kroeger's turn to talk and he did so as he trembled with rage, and scored Donovan for his indiscretion and called upon the court to rebuke him, but that official had bowed himself out with a graceful wave of his club and with the statement, "I will see you later." Justice Smith turning towards the door said, in response to Attorney Kroeger's appeal, "Officers should be careful and not act in an unbecoming manner." The hearing in each case was finally set down for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

From Ogden by Team.

Acting Governor Richards, who has been detained at Ogden since the day before the Fourth, came down from that city today by team. He commenced his journey at 5:30 and arrived here shortly before noon. Asked for an explanation of the Washington dispatch, he replied that he knew very little about it. The Territory was not in the fight. He presumed the United States marshal and United States district attorney were in the fray from a federal standpoint. As to the ordering out of the troops, he knew nothing whatever.

Rush in the Coal Business.

Councilman Morris, of Westenholme & Morris, coal dealers, was seen today by a News reporter, and stated that the demand for coal the last few days was without a precedent in summer weather, and that a tremendous business had been done. People often asked if they could get more than one ton, as they understood the price would run up shortly to from ten to fifteen dollars. To all such he wished to say that coal was coming in from Castle Gate and Pleasant Valley daily, and he now estimates the supply on hand sufficient to last nearly a month. He further stated that there would be no advance over the present prices during that time. No coal is to be received from Rock Springs, as that point is completely shut off.

Scarcity of News Print.

Mr. George C. Lambert, manager of the Lambert Paper company, in commenting on the effects of the strike today, stated that should the boycott continue for a couple of weeks more nearly every country newspaper in the Territory would be compelled to suspend publication or use book or manila paper, a considerable supply of which is in stock. Bills of lading for several carloads have been received but where the cars are tied up not even the wisest railway oracle dares venture a guess.

Quiet at Thistle.

Special to the News by Postal Telegraph.

Provo, July 7.—Sheriff Brown yesterday sent Deputies Wilkins, Elliott and Thurman to Thistle on call of Superintendent Welby. Wilkins telegraphed today. All peaceable. No particulars.

Utah Commission.

The Utah Commission will meet again on Monday next, for the appointment of county registrars.

IN JAIL FOR ROBBERY.

"Bolly" Thompson, an Ex-Convict, Arrested for Robbing a Man of $385.

Officer Beighle made an important arrest early this morning when he ran in "Bolly" Thompson, a notorious crook who emerged from the penitentiary on the Fourth, after having served a five years' term for burglary.

According to the officers he spent last night in a rollicking manner with a well known contractor who was too drunk this morning to get home without assistance. "Bolly," who had an eye to business, had been watching his opportunity and volunteered to play the part of the good Samaritan. According to the charge the contractor had $385 on his person and "Bolly" induced him to turn it over to himself (Bolly) for safe keeping. Later he refused to give it up and his arrest followed. He declared to Detective Sheets, when the full amount of the missing money was found on his person, that he had earned it during the last year working at the carpenter trade. He said further that he did not propose to be humbled and disgraced by being called a thief. Then Desk Sergeant McCurdy, who was once guard at the penitentiary, identified him and he grew sulky and refused to talk. The chances for his return to the pen are decidedly flattering.

Voluntary Manslaughter.

W. A. House, the old man who killed Private Thornton in a drunken row on the evening of the Fourth of July, was arraigned in the police court this morning on a charge of voluntary manslaughter. He entered a plea of not guilty and his bonds were fixed at $1,500, and the case set down for hearing on the afternoon of Tuesday next at 2 o'clock. In the meantime he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until bonds are forthcoming.

Equalization Matters.

The county board of equalization will meet from the 16th to 21st inst. both dates inclusive. The City Council will have one representative on the board in the person of Councilman O'Hearn. The Territorial board will convene in this city as soon as the local board has finished its labors.

Vinson's Imprisonment.

Charles Vinson, the "salt synemore" labor agitator who was convicted in the Police court and given twenty days for drunkenness and disturbing the peace at the celebration of the Labor Trust meeting at the Warm Springs on the Fourth, thinks he is the victim of injustice and declares that he will get even with his persecutors when his term of imprisonment expires.

Countess Wachtmeister's Lectures.

A lecture on India will be given by Countess Constance Wachtmeister at the Fourteenth ward assembly rooms this, Saturday, evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The countess lectures Sunday evening at Odd Fellows' hall on hypnotism and mesmerism. Both lectures promise to be of much interest.

The Dyer Estate.

In the probate court yesterday afternoon, in the matter of the estate of Frank H. Dyer, deceased, a hearing was held on petition to pay Ella F. Searles (Dyer) the sum of $17,000, also, release of $2,000 and full settlement of all her claims against said estate. Order made as prayed. Order also made that, in the event of settlement as above mentioned, said executors pay all allowed claims against the estate.

Colored Shop-Lifter Nabbed.

A young colored man and who pretends to be a jockey by occupation and a comparative stranger in the city, went into the gents' clothing store of Siegel Bros. this forenoon and walked out with a pair of pants he had not paid for. The theft was detected and he dropped the trousers on the sidewalk and broke into a run through the block. A cry of "Stop thief" was raised and soon three or four officers and a number of citizens were in pursuit. The darkey proceeded eastward with rare horse alacrity, all the while increasing the distance between himself and pursuers. A little east of St. Mark's school on east First South street he ran into the arms of Detective Sheets. He was taken to the police station and opposite the name of William Jackson, which he gave, the charge of shop lifting was set down.

She Forgave Him.

Giovanni Cappucci, the West Temple saloonkeeper, arrested yesterday on a charge of assaulting Eva Hoergle, appeared before Commissioner Norrell this morning. It did not come off, however, as the complainant expressed a desire to withdraw from the case. Accordingly the commissioner allowed the defendant to go on paying the costs incurred.

Sixth Ward Republicans.

The Republicans of the Sixth ward held an enthusiastic and interesting meeting last evening and adopted constitution and by-laws and organized a ward club. The following gentlemen were elected officers: D. H. Wenger, president; N. W. Sonnedecker, first vice president; James Olsen, second vice president; E. J. Eardley, secretary; H. A. Heiser, treasurer; Wm. H. Francom, sergeant-at-arms; A. S. Heiser, W. M. Elliott, G. B. Sanborn, Wm. H. Shoendale and Wm. N. Anderson, executive committee.

Contest at Saltair.

The M. I. A. Musical and Literature contest at Saltair on Friday, July 13th, promises to be a feature of more than ordinary interest. Cash prizes will be awarded for the best essay, the best solo, male voice; the best solo female voice; the best duet, mixed voices; the best quartette, mixed voices; the best glee club.

There will be an immense reunion of Territorial Democrats at Saltair on Saturday the 14th inst. Special rates have been secured on all the railroads. Speeches will be made in the afternoon by Hon. Moses Thatcher, B. H. Roberts, Judge Powers and Judge Henderson. The affair will conclude with a big ball in the evening.

Neal Love Out Again.

Neal Love, the man who received a knife thrust at Hegener's saloon a few nights ago, was seen on the streets today. His wound was not as bad as reported. His assailant is still receiving treatment in the hospital.

Land Office.

Filings in the local land office under date of July 7 were as follows:

Swanty Bengtson, of Randolph, Rich county, final proof of homestead entry of lots 1 and 2, and the east half of the northeast quarter of section 4, township 11 north, range 7 east.

John A. Skinner, of Beaver, Beaver county, final proof of homestead entry of the south half of the northwest quarter, the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter, and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 34, township 29 south, range 7 west.

S. O. Adams, of Salt Lake City, filed notice of contest against J. M. Greer, on the latter's homestead entry made April 29, 1890, for the northeast quarter of section 11, township 1 south, range 2 west, in Salt Lake county. The claim is that Mr. Greer abandoned the tract of land by removing his residence therefrom.

Another House Burned.

There was another dwelling house fire this morning. This time the blaze was at the house of Chris Jensen, a frame structure on Mortensen's alley. There is no doubt in the minds of Chief Devine but that the house was purposely fired. The department extinguished the flames and kept the loss at a point not much above $25.

Territorial Paragraphs.

The Millard county Blade says that a movement is on foot for the organization of a big mining company in Deseret. It is proposed to incorporate sixteen claims lying in Carr's Fork, near Bingham, and develop them and erect a mill to work the ores. These claims are said, by a gentleman familiar with the ground, to be gold ores, and the ore is first-class. The claims are owned by H. W. Lawrence, C. E. Wantland, Ex-Governor Emery and others.

J. H. Eisbeen returned last week from a prospecting trip down to San Juan and had some very pretty specimens obtained from there, says the Mount Pleasant Pyramid. He says there are lots of gold down in San Juan and that the place is not half prospected. People can get colors from the dirt in their door yards. The Blue mountains, he thinks, will be the location of a great mining camp soon.

D. E. Young is opening up a coal mine east of this city that promises soon to be the supply source for Mt. Pleasant. He has a large vein of first class coal, and is busily engaged in preparing for a supply of several hundred tons. There is no doubt Mr. Young has got a good piece of property and its close proximity to the city means several hundreds of dollars yearly to our people for fuel, besides its convenience. Mt. Pleasant is very likely to be an important coal supply point.—Mt. Pleasant Pyramid.

Attorneys, Remember This.

Chief Justice Merritt intimated this morning that it was not his intention to take up any more district court business than he could possibly help until after the adjourned session of the Supreme court at the end of the present month.

Today's Probate Court.

Estate of Hans Olsen, deceased. Hearing on petition to set aside entire estate to the widow and children, and order made as prayed.

Estate of Walter Dixon Pavey, deceased. Hearing on petition for letters of administration. William Charles Pavey appointed administrator on a bond of $24,000.

These were the only orders of any consequence made today by Judge Blair.

Gone to Wasatch.

Mr. J. P. Bache, clerk of the Supreme court, has gone to Wasatch to while away the hours quietly between now and Monday evening. He is one of a small party which started out this morning.

Political Pointers.

There was a well attended and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans in the G. A. R. hall last night. The speakers were Judge Zane and W. F. James. A resolution of sympathy for the strikers was introduced by J. L. Franke and passed unanimously.

Feeling Better.

Ephraim G. Davis, of Spanish Fork, who underwent a critical surgical operation at the hands of Dr. Pinkerton, for the removal of growth near the under side of the liver, from which he has suffered for a number of years, and which was regarded as a certain cause of early death if allowed to remain, has passed through the ordeal in remarkably good condition. Sufficient time has not elapsed yet to state definitely what the outcome will be, but the indications are quite favorable for his recovery.

Commissions.

Acting Governor Richards this morning issued commissions as follows: John Bailey, councilman for Mozeal, Sanpete county, and Lewis Larsen, selectman for Emery county.

Judge Bartch did not hold court at all today.

Evidence of the Phonograph.

The phonograph is being used with marked effect in English courts. Recently a railroad company was sued by the owner of premises upon a street under which the road had run a tunnel. The complaint stated that the noise of the trains going through the tunnel was so great as to utterly prevent sleep, while existence in daylight was unbearable by the same cause.

The railroad company's attorneys produced in court a phonograph which they had managed to have placed in the premises in question, and when it was placed in motion and failed to emit any of the terrible noises alleged to have been suffered by the complainants, and the fact that it had been in active duty in the building accepted by the latter was sufficiently established, the judge dismissed the complaint without further ceremony, virtually holding that the evidence of the phonograph was more acceptable than that of the interested plaintiffs.—Washington Post.

THE BRITANNIA VICTORIOUS.

The Prince of Wales's Cutter the Winner Today.

Hunter Quay, July 7.—The starters today in the yacht race were the Vigilant, Britannia and Majora. The course was from the lee side of the Clyde to and around the mark boat Kilbreggan and thence home, twice around, a distance of fifty miles. The Vigilant at 11½ time to Britannia's 123, allows the Prince of Wales's cutter three minutes and the Majora eighteen minutes. The day was clear and 170 yachts crowded with spectators followed the racers. The Vigilant made a bad start, three-fourths of a minute behind the Britannia. Amid rousing cheers the three yachts bore away short on starboard tack. The Vigilant was closing in on the leader and lying high up on the wind. The Britannia had a short hitch about 200 yards out and had to stand up on the weather of the Vigilant, the American yacht being two lengths behind.

The Britannia won the first round.

The Britannia won the race.

Marvelous seamanship was displayed by the captains of the Vigilant and Britannia. The Vigilant closed up on the Britannia nearing the Cloche light house, but after passing the light house the Britannia again widened the gap. Corrected time, the first round was: Britannia, 1, 33, 26; Vigilant, 1, 35, 41.

At the Cloche light house on the second round the Vigilant was only half a minute astern, but this was only three miles from shore. The time of the two yachts at the finishing line was: Vigilant, 4, 18, 17; Britannia, 4, 17, 42. The Britannia with a time allowance of three minutes won by one minute and 35 seconds.
