MOUNTAIN AND PLAIN.

Features of Denver's Great Forthcoming Celebration.

The press bureau of the Mountain and Plain festival, soon to transpire in Denver, sends out the following:

The representations of the mineral, horticultural, agricultural and manufacturing and stockraising industries which will be made here during the Mountain and Plain Festival, on October 5, 6 and 7, will be of inestimable value to the people of every section of the state.

No floats will be allowed places in the Pageant of Progress that are not wholly the product of home industries, and as it is possible for Colorado to make a diversified showing of a magnitude that cannot be equaled by any other state in the Union the favorable impression it will make upon the thousands of visitors from other states who will be here during the celebration cannot be computed by dollars and cents. Among those who have already given notice that they will be represented are Rocky Ford with her melons; Canon City, Montrose, Grand Junction and Pueblo with fruits; Greeley, Fort Collins, San Luis and Wet Mountain valleys, agriculture; Leadville, Cripple Creek, Aspen and Central City, mines; Trinidad, Pueblo and Denver, manufactures, smelters and coal and coke. The display of Cripple Creek will be a float representing the gold production of the district for one month or a great pyramid of gold bullion valued at $1,250,000.

The Indian display will surpass anything of the kind ever seen in the West. Among the famous Indians invited are Wash-a-kie, the famous chief of the Shoshones, the most intelligent Indian on the continent; and Quanah Parker, the head chief of the Comanches, who is the richest; Chipeta, the widow of Chief Ouray, of the Uncompahgre Utes, has also been invited to come. In addition to these members of the Indian set, there will be tribes from the Southern Utes, the Pueblos and Navajos, with all their primitive paraphernalia, and during their stay here they will give exhibitions of the famous fire and bear dances, rarely seen by civilized people. The contests in various counties over the selection of maids of honor is increasing in interest. It is estimated that the number of ballots cast in Pitkin county will reach over 1,000,000. The board of directors of the festival will furnish transportation and hotel expenses to the fortunate lady; but in addition to this the Woman's club, the most exclusive organization of this kind in the city, have arranged several social entertainments for the maids during the week they are here.

Home From Kentucky.

Elder Alonzo W. Platt of this city called on the "News" yesterday afternoon and reported his return from the mission field, whither he went June 1, 1895. Elder Platt labored in the state of Kentucky, where he says the work is progressing nicely, the health of the Elders being good and the people manifesting a spirit of inquiry. He says he looks for a rich harvest there in the near future, as a result of the seeds being sown at the present time. Elder Platt had good health, enjoyed his labors very much and arrived in this city on the return journey on Wednesday, Sept. 8th.

The "George Steck," recognized as one of the old standards and one of the very best pianos built.

The high grade "Mason & Hamlin" and "Vose & Sons," the splendid wearing and absolutely reliable "Whitney," "Hinze," "United Makers," and other pianos that we have sold here for the past thirty years. All pianos are marked in plain figures.
