The Day's Business on the Exchange.

On the Salt Lake Exchange today 30,000 shares were sold which represented a selling value of $13,000.

Exchange Appropriations $100.

During the call on the exchange today a letter of appeal was read from those who are making after the fourth of July celebration in behalf of the widows and children of the late Thos. Hill, who lost his life at Fort Douglas, and who was a member of the exchange. The committee that had charge of the celebration felt that it was only a just and proper thing that the exchange should make an appropriation for the widows.

Later the board met and made an appropriation of $100.
