Sudden Death.

Our little town of Fairview was greatly shocked the past week by the death, on July 29th, of one of our beloved and respected citizens, Brother Malvin Newton Allred. The cause of death is thought to have been heart disease, as he had been apparently well and strong up to within a few moments of his passing away.

Brother Allred was the son of Wm. M. and Grace A. Dalton Allred. He was born Feb. 20, 1858, in Salt Lake City. He leaves a wife and nine children, all boys, together with a host of relatives and friends, by whom he will be greatly missed. His lively and pleasing disposition endeared him to all with whom he was associated. He was an energetic Worker in the Sunday school, and held the position of assistant superintendent of the Fairview Sunday school and was in every respect a Latter-day Saint.

Editor Deseret News:

On Sunday last two Sunday school missionaries from Riverside, Blackfoot, were present at our Sunday school—Elders C. C. Richardson and Junius Noak. They have been laboring faithfully for the past six months and we all feel the loss of their company as they have been released from their missionary duties to the schools. Both of them spoke highly of the Sunday school at Shelley. They came some forty-eight miles to get here and were always there on time.

On Tuesday evening the folks here had a treat by a visit of Stake President J. E. Steele, with B. L. Bybee his first and O. S. Mullinar his second counselors. Meeting called to order by Bishop J. F. Shelley. After singing, prayer was offered by Elder Curtis Galloway. Singing.

Elder O. S. Mullinar was the first speaker; he gave a brief account of visiting the wards, and followed with excellent choice instructions.

Elder B. L. Bybee was the next speaker and gave the Saints great encouragement.

Elder J. E. Steele, president of the Stake, was the last speaker. His remarks were brief but to the point, most of them were on the business of the ward organizations.

Elder J. E. Shelley, Bishop of the ward, made the closing remarks. Singing; benediction by Elder J. F. Shelley.

Texas Conference.

TEXAS, July 14, 1895.—Realizing that the Saints whose homes pour valuable columns reach are ever praying and anxious for the welfare of their sons who have been sent forth as ambassadors of the Gospel of our Lord to carry the glad tiding to the world, I take pleasure in penning you a report of the first conference held by the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in the "Lone Star State," the 6th and 7th of July, 1895, at the Grubb settlement, Hopkins county, Texas.

Though young, our conference bids fair soon to resemble the since whose name it bears. Beginning one year ago with two Elders it now numbers twelve, and from the freedom of speech and the houses enjoyed by us, and the many friends who are earnestly investigating the principles of the Gospel, it is reasonable to suppose that a great work will be done in the part of the Lord's vineyard in the near future.

On Friday, the 5th, we were very much disappointed on receiving a telegram from our beloved president, Elder E. H. Kimball, stating that he would be unable to meet with us on account of sickness.

Conference convened Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, Elder A. S. Campbell, president of the conference, presiding. The Elders present were A. S. Campbell, Heber Anderson, A. C. Dalley, M. O. Miner, C. S. Hall, S. R. Wilcox, David Chidester, D. F. Overson, R. H. Smith, Fred Simmons and R. H. Wells.

Elder R. W. Perry was taken with the ague, consequently we unable to attend the first day, but through the blessings of the Lord he enjoyed the privilege of meeting with us on Sunday.

Services began by singing. Prayer was offered by Elder Wells. Singing. Elder Campbell then explained the object of our meeting and admonished all to put away prejudice, envy and malice, as they are contrary to the Spirit of the Lord. The fruits of which are love, joy, peace, longsuffering, etc. He asked the people to weigh carefully the principles set before them and compare with the scriptures, that they we are all saved by grace but there is something for us to do to make the grace of God available to us.

Elder Miner spoke on the atonement. As we find no part in that transgression through which sin and death came into the world and which made necessary the atonement, so the Saints, offering had redeemed us from the fall and the Gospel provided the rules for our salvation.

After singing and benediction meeting was adjourned until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

At 2 p. m. meeting resumed by singing. Prayer by Elder Hall. Singing.

Elder Wells then spoke. He referred to men going around making mysteries of the things of God and the religion of the Gospel which is simple (repetitions) and of such character that none need be at a loss as a Gospel or moral problem. He exhorted. He exhorted the people to pray which we believe from the usual reply of the conference and admonished wives to be gentle and humble.

Elder Chidester treated briefly on the personality of God. A person must understand the nature and attributes of God in order to worship it. He in an address which we believe intelligent (with in Hom. Singing). Benediction by Elder Anderson.

Sunday, July 7, meeting was called to order by Elder Campbell at 11 a. m. Singing. Prayer by Elder Miner. Singing.

Elder Dalley addressed the conference. He read a sermon of the Lord, chapter of First Corinthians, showing that the Apostle Paul desired the Church of Christ with all its gifts and blessings to be a complete body. He expressed the parts could be done away with, as that would leave the body incomplete; they (gifts) were for the perfecting of the Saints, the work of the ministry, and are still necessary.

Elder Anderson continued the people of the responsibility resting upon those who set themselves up as ministers of the Gospel, and spoke upon the subject of repentance proving from the Scriptures that it was a gift of God, which all must obey who hope to regain His presence.

Elder Wilcox followed, speaking briefly on the Gathering and exhorting all in an earnest manner to have faith.

After a few very appropriate remarks from Elder Campbell and singing; meeting was dismissed by Elder Perry.

Afternoon meeting began by singing. Prayer by Elder Wells. Singing.

Elder Hall spoke on baptism. He showed plainly its essentiality and object; also treated on the mode of and proper subjects for baptism.

Elder Miner spoke on the mode of baptism.

After singing, and prayer by Elder Overson, meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Singing. Prayer by Elder Wilcox. By request of the people we again sang "Praise to the man who commenced this work Joseph Smith."

Elder Wells addressed the people on the Holy Ghost, mentioning them that when they obeyed the first principles (faith, repentance and baptism) they were not to stop, for in order to enter into the kingdom of heaven they must be born of the Spirit, by which they become the sons of God and are sealed up unto the day of redemption.

Elder R. H. Smith made his testimony to the truth of the Gospel and exhorted them to see that their faith was built on a firm foundation.

Elder Campbell thanked the people for their kind attention and the interest they had shown; for the love of their church and kindness to the Elders. Concluded by singing. Benediction by Elder Fred Smith.

Though all regretted the absence of Elder E. S. Richards, we felt somewhat like a company without a commander, we had an enjoyable time together. The Elders felt abundantly blessed and strengthened through the power of the Lord which was manifest to a marked degree.

The good people of the neighborhood raised us a very highly commended 4 of the kind and hospitable manner they received and entertained the Elders while in their midst.

Mr. J. W. M. Grubb provided meat for the occasion, and with his good lady did all in his power to make our visit pleasant and one long to be remembered. Prominent among the true were Mr. J. Sandifer, R. Willett and W. J. Pouch. Monday afternoon the Elders began the painful task of separating to return to their respective fields of labor, viz., A. S. Campbell, C. Dalley, M. O. Miner, C. S. Hall, S. R. Wilcox, David Chidester, D. F. Overson, R. H. Smith, Fred Simmons and R. H. Wells.

AN OPINION GIVEN.

Recently Mr. J. B. Thomas, of North Dakota, visited the Shenandoah Valley, Virginia, and other districts examining the country located in Winchester, he writes to Mr. V. Blevins, Land and Immigration Agent, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Baltimore, Maryland, as follows: "I have been in nearly every state and territory in the United states, and am fresh in my opinion that this valley surpasses all other sections in the Union. The lands are low in price, and produce profitable crops. I thank you for directing me here, and solicit that seeing pleasant and profitable homes to locate in this country."

GUNNISON, Utah, July 22, 1895.—I have been troubled with a wheezing in my throat for several years, and also had a bad case of catarrh. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and purchased a bottle. Before taking it I felt like a new man altogether. I have used four bottles and am almost entirely cured. JOHN S. BRADLEY.
