INDIAN DEPREDATION CASES.

Ruling of the U. S. Supreme Court Practically Opens Them Up.

Gustave Kroeger, who has been identified with the collection of claims before the Indian depredation department of the court of claims at Washington, D. C., resided in this city today from the opinion that the United States supreme court had affirmed the decision of the court of claims in holding that the claimants were not barred by the statute of limitations upon the ground that the commencing the depredation for the recovery of the amount of the judgment following the act of 1891.

This will be good news to many living in Sanpete, Utah and Sevier counties, through the depredations of the Black Hawk band some years ago, as it practically opens up all the cases again which the court claims have been pending in the court of claims.

The case just decided was that of Shaum Hood vs. the United States. The claim of the owner in brief is as follows: The court of claims held in the case of Hood vs. the United States that the law of 1891 did not change the force of the law of 1859, which held that a citizen, in order to recover for loss committed by an Indian tribe at amity with the United States must have at first made demand upon the tribe for the payment of the property, and have been refused by the tribe before a claim could be held valid against the United States.

This case came up for re-hearing and the court of claims reversed itself, holding that the law of 1891 did in effect supersede the law of 1859. The United States attorney goes to the court in the case in the Supreme court of the United States, and the last opinion of the court of claims has been affirmed. The court, delivering from the bench Judge McKinney being dissatisfied from sitting on account of being connected with the cases while United States attorney general.

NORTH MOUNTAIN MILL

Nevada's Fresh Mine Impressive the Closing Days of this Plant.

GOOD ORE SHOWING IN THE MINE.

Work on the Stock Exchange—Rock Tunnel Assessment—Chloride Point Report—Miscellaneous.

John Heinrich and Will Brown, they of the "old Mount stock," came in to Salt Lake this morning from the west, the millionaire having spent a few weeks on Cherry creek, in Nevada, and a day or two in the vicinity of Tuscarora, where the Jackson, Young American and other gold mining properties are located.

Messrs. Heinrich and Brown stand at the head of the North Mountain property on Cherry creek, and left here several weeks ago to look into affairs at that property. This they found it in excellent condition as the report given to a "News" representative this morning. Mr. Brown stating that everything was being put in shape for a good work during the summer, and the mill was being prepared for mining ore bodies. The gentleman informed the Deseret News that it had been deemed advisable to close down the mill for a few months as the weather was so cold and the ground so frozen as to freeze up the crushed and make it impossible to continue operations. While at the property the Thanksgiving reappeared in degree below zero—not a bad showing, think the gentlemen, for the Cherry creek country.

At the Dexter Mounts, Heinrich and Brown found things in good shape, the property in all the stopes working to a boom. The new power plant, say they, is rapidly nearing completion, and Nevada's fair sister satisfied that this wonderful mine will shortly repay with dividends.

ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Brokers Do a Good Amount of Business at Desperately Figures.

The officers of the exchange governing board, in systematic things with reference to dealings in mining stocks, were pleasing to a reporter in the announcement of stocks unlisted, which set an greater expedition in getting matters to a timely closing. What remains to be done is the listing of a number pertaining brokers from carrying off their transfer slips, and they will pass off as calm and unruffled as a summer's morn, and the board will have the thanks of a dozen or more reporters who daily daily in the get in news of the official, authoritative record of the days doings.

The day was one to arrive as some of the brokers thought, but the call was a good one nevertheless and the brokers so carefully filled their orders prior to taking a rest for the Thanksgiving holiday. Hutton-Rock made the first sale in a transfer at $5.10, after which Pray Rose opened into bids and asks business at figures ranging from 3c to 6 cents a share. Copper-Marion was in fair demand and sold at 42 cents, while Grand Central dropped 10 shares at $7.50 and was followed by active trading in Lower Mammoth at 56 cents, 1,100 shares finding takers at the figure. Northern Light deposited 4,000 shares at new prices, the week doing business as high as 6 cents and remaining in good demand at 4½c. Ontario was firm, as was also Silver King and Utah, but neither doing business the brokers passed on to close No. 2, where stocks were called to the new alphabetical arrangement.

Alice of Montana looked quite healthy but did no business, and it remained for Buckeye into the market the first sale, which is dia at 7½c, while a lot of 75 sold posted. Chloride Point picked up a transfer at 11½c, and there was also business in Columbia, Dexter, Dalton, Golden Eagle, Homestake and Joe Bowers, all of which are in good condition, especially Golden Eagle being especially strong and selling at from 8½ to 9½ cents a share. There was also business in Little Pittsburg, Bullion, Tetro, Black Diamond and Wachusett, the whole showing a very creditable transfer of stock at a selling value of $8,000 or so. The closing figures were as follows:

Deck Tunnel Assessment.

Making possible a thorough exploration of the property, the Bullion-Beck Tunnel company, held a directors' meeting in the city yesterday afternoon and there voted an assessment of half a cent a share, the same payable to the secretary at the company's office on or before the 23d day of December. This will give the company $2,500 with which to develop the property, and, if the outlook is good, the work will be pushed, will enable Superintendent Nesbit to demonstrate beyond the shadow of a doubt the value of the company's possession. The future outlook is bright and definitely the mine will be found a money-maker.

Chloride Point Write-Up.

The last issue of the Engineering and Mining Journal has a comprehensive write-up of the Chloride Point mine and mill with accompanying illustrations. It says that the Chloride Point was worked over twenty-five years ago, as the mines black, for rich exterior, but with the exception of a small yield is variously given from $20,000 to $50,000 and the old stopes, made when only the best high grade smelter proposed could be profitably mined, indicate that the larger future is nearer the fact. More than once the property was pronounced worthless, and mining was laughed at. Mr. Pratt's efforts to revive the dead horse, in spite of ridicule on all sides, were finally successful, and the Chloride Point mine developed a vein of silver ore varying from 120,000 to 150,000 ounces silver, 11 to 12½ ounces per ton, and a lead product from percentages of rich ore, while different methods of treatment were being tried to handle the vast stores of low and medium grade ore. The Journal, in its article, that there are fifty thousand tons of medium and low grade ore carried out of the mine, and it shows tonnage that the mill, recently put into operation, was built. The practical working for two months has afforded a result satisfactory alike to the owners of prior laboratory tests, and fifty to ten cent greater than was promised the shareholders, in spite of general skepticism.

La Sal Mining News.

Col. Johnson came in from the Blue Mountains this week and has some encouraging like contents of workings now taken from the Devil Dance and other mines. The Dance shaft is rumbling steadily on on from the Dream and is paying well.

L. H. Hardy visited Old Bonn the first of the week, and looked over the prospects there and on his return to Dunbar he was the happiest observer I saw. He simply confirms what the Times has always contended, that La Sal is a mining country, and that mineral district in the country, and every foot of practical development is proving it, points Grand Valley Times.

DIPS AND SPURS.

Silver strip had $2.06.

Thanksgiving day will be celebrated by local stock brokers, hence there will be no call on the exchange.

Hereafter the secretary of the exchange will keep a record of lost stocks for the convenience of brokers.

J. T. Stringer has been granted the privilege of the floor, pending a hearing on his application for membership in the exchange.

In the last issue of the Great Yellowstone and Pacific publication quite a deal on the possibilities of the La Sal mining region.

Mon. H. T. Lloyd had a party of Eastern visitors left for Bingham Thursday for the purpose of inspecting the Old West and other properties. They will return about Saturday.

The Mercur is in with a heavy shipment of ores, for the first of the new year the company's plant will be handling no less of ore daily than usually, thus materially increasing the production of silver-gold.

Second Precinct School Convention.

A committee of citizens consisting of Hugh Watson, Wm. H. Jones Jr., Chas. H. Hyde, J. W. Fox and Alexander Cowan have issued the following call for a primary convention to be held on Thursday evening next:

All legally qualified voters of the Second Municipal Ward are invited to participate in the primary to be held in the Ward Meeting house in a building situated west of the center of the voting population of the municipal ward and in a locality equidistant from the points marked from the subjects of the business thereof, many of which are located outside of the Second municipal ward.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a sufficient remedy can be secured by using Syrup of Figs, Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

Meteoric Shower Photographed.

New York, Nov. 22.—A New Haven dispatch to the Post says: The development of the plates exposed at Yale observatory during the meteoric shower shows that about ten meteoric trails have been obtained, of which four are photographed at Lowell. Twelve cameras were used, of which eight were composed of the Yale observatory and four of a polar wheel of two and twelve inch focus. At each point two or three photographs between six and twelve have been photographed and the comparation of the results may be possible. On one night during a few hours more than one hundred meteors passed in the direction, were observed with the naked eye.

Observations for other groups of meteors will probably be made next Friday night, in spite of the moon and probably also early next month.

THE SIMPLEST CURE FOR INDIGESTION.

As Well as the Safest and Cheapest.

The new medical discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, is the ideal of making the work out stomach as all the work give to a much needed rest, and cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

You get nourishment and rest at the same time, because the tablets will do thoroughly digest all wholesome food taken into the stomach whether the stomach is in a healthy condition or not, because the digestive organs are given a chance to rest and recover their natural vigor and health. The Tablets are thus an unique request.

To show the manner in which the results are of different people and how widely and of many ills it cures, some of the testimonials are presented a few recent cases.

Mr. J. O. Wendly of Peoria, Ill., writes: I was unable to eat anything but the plainest food and even that was disagreed with, but since using one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I can eat anything and everything I wish.

Mr. Samuel Kepple of Gimpi, Pa., writes: I was unable to eat anything but the plainest food and even that was disagreed with, but since using one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I can eat anything and everything I wish.

Mr. H. H. Brown, Barnard, Vt., writes: "I think Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best thing for dyspepsia I ever heard of. I recommend them to anyone troubled as bad as I was.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will not relieve dyspepsia in a day, but they are surely and lastingly by aiding the food to be properly assimilated, and consequently giving a healthy action to the proper quantity of bile, that by all druggists at 50 cents per package.
